Pentecost Sunday

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home, Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

By the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, Christ's Paschal Mystery (his suffering, death, and resurrection) was brought to completion. The Holy Spirit prepares us with his grace in order to draw us to Christ. He manifests the risen Lord to us, opening our minds. St. Thomas Aquinas says that the Holy Spirit interiorly perfects our spirit, communicating to it a new dynamism so that it refrains from evil for love. With the Holy Spirit within us "it is quite natural for people who had been absorbed by the things of this world to become entirely other-worldly in outlook, and for cowards to become people of great courage (St. Cyril of Alexandria). Come Holy Spirit, Come!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Make your home in us and transform us so that we can live for Jesus, and die for him, if necessary.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Quotation of the week — ~ St. Augustine

"O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams."

Pope Francis @Pontifex · May 25

Jesus bore our humanity and brought it beyond death to a new place, to Heaven, so that there where He is, we might also be.

Thou art hidden, but I see Thee. Thou art silent, but I hear Thee. Thou art immobile, but Thou reachest out to draw me in and hold me against Thy Heart. One who possesses Thee in the Sacrament of Thy love, possesses everything. Because Thou art here, I lack nothing. Because Thou art here I cannot be lonely. Because Thou art here, heaven itself is here, and myriads of angels adoring Thee and offering Thee their songs of praise. Because Thou art here, I need not search for Thee anywhere else. Because Thou art here, my faith possess Thee, my hope is anchored to Thee, my love embraces Thee and will not let Thee go.

Sunday Mass Music

We have removed all the missals and music books to simplify sanitizing on weekends. However, we know many still wish to participate in singing at Mass. Therefore, we have created an online link where you may print off the upcoming weekend's music, bring it to Mass, and then dispose of it later yourself. Go to stjparish.com each week and click on the link provided.

Church Attire for Summer

Modesty and dignity in apparel are not only respectful to God, but they are also beneficial to our common worship of God. Therefore, in this respect, in a special way as warm temperatures arrive, we kindly encourage wearing clothing that is not revealing or overly casual. We understand some individuals come from work and may find it difficult to change from casual attire in time for Mass. God sees the heart, so do not worry. Just make your best effort to look your best for God. For those in other situations, some helpful questions to ask are: Would I be comfortable wearing this to an audience with the pope or someone famous? Would I consider wearing this to a job interview? Mass seems less extraordinary because of its weekly and daily occurrence; nonetheless, it is the most special event we can ever attend. May our Church attire reflect the dignity of the holy events we partake in at Mass!

WE NEED YOUR HELP WITH OUR LIVESTREAMING OF MASSES……

As was announced when public Masses resumed, we will continue to livestream daily Masses for the foreseeable future until further directives are released. These live internet broadcasts are saved in the @stjosephwilliston Facebook account and are uploaded to the stjparish.com website soon after.

For livestreaming, we need to let everyone know that there is only one WIFI access point in the church accessible to the camera broadcasting the Mass. When multiple devices try to connect to the access point, the network is taxed, and the camera phone must compete for an uninterrupted connection. It is not the number of devices so much as the stalls created when individual devices constantly try to re-synchronize with the network. This occurs when an idle smartphone uses WIFI in the background to update/synch all the apps that are running, or when a device is just out of range of the signal and tries to reconnect. This interferes with the broadcast and the livestream runs into issues and sometimes breaks off.

Here's how you can help us: the simplest way is to turn off your phone when you get into the church for Mass.*

Putting the phone in airplane mode does not disable WIFI. With new phones, Bluetooth and WIFI capabilities are left active even when airplane mode is on (unless configured otherwise). This means the device can continue to be connected to the wireless network with access to the internet.

Please help us provide a good broadcast during livestreamed church services. It means giving the faithful who are at home real-time electronic access to the celebrations of the Mass in our parish. Kindly turn off your phones.

JUNE IS THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED THE LOVE OF THE HEART OF CHRIST FOR YOU???

Consider developing devotion to the Heart of Jesus. You may consecrate yourself and your family to the Sacred Heart and do the Nine First Friday's devotion for starters. Visit sacredheartdevotion.com for more info. The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated the Friday following Corpus Christi Sunday, this year on June 19th. The following are papal approved promises of Jesus given to the Church through St. Margaret Mary:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will comfort them in their trials.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and, above all, in death.
5. I will shed abundant blessings on all their undertakings
6. Sinners will find in My Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls will become fervent.
8. Fervent souls will rapidly grow in holiness and perfection.
9. I will bless every place where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. The names of those who promote this devotion will be written in My Heart, never to be blotted out.
12. I promise thee, in the excessive mercy of My Heart, that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months, the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU HAVE GONE TO THE SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION?

At times, we wish life provided a restart button. We make mistakes, we sin, and the consequences seem insurmountable. Indeed, they are for us, but not for God. The "restart button" we secretly desire is the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which washes away the sins that burden us, giving us a second chance. Here, Jesus, Who has felt all of our pain and guilt and borne the weight of all of our sins, yet without sin, waits for us like an understanding doctor who earnestly desires to heal his patients. Just as we regularly wash our cars and clean our homes, so, too, does our soul beg to be cleaned. Pope Francis offers some words of encouragement to anyone hesitating about going to confession: "Everyone say to himself: 'When was the last time I went to confession?' And if it has been a long time, don't lose another day! Go, the priest will be good. And Jesus will be there, and Jesus is better than the priests - Jesus receives you. He will receive you with so much love! Be courageous, and go to confession."

STRIVE: A 21 -Day Detox from Porn, is an online video series written and hosted by Matt Fradd. STRIVE is for men who wish to break free from a porn addiction. Participants sign up at strive21.com to receive access to daily videos in which Fradd takes viewers on a step-by-step process of ridding their lives of pornography. He draws on his eight years of experience combating porn. He explains through the following, "I know what works, and what doesn't. I can help viewers begin down the path to lasting success. Over the past eight years, I've spoken to as many as a million people on the topic. Everywhere I go it is a huge issue with the majority of people I encounter. The problem is exacerbated by the fact that we all carry around with us a potential portable, X-rated movie theater that can also be used to make phone calls. ... I'm also hearing about an increasing number of young women addicted to porn, as well as children who at ages 8 to 12 are first getting exposed to it, and then going on to be regular consumers. Over the past 40 years there have been studies conducted by different branches of science on porn's sociological, psychological and neurological effects on viewers. It was previously thought that for something to be addictive, it had to be a substance that you put into your body. But we know from the DSM-5 {{Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, fifth edition} that one of the five categories of addiction is natural addiction like pathological gambling. Such behaviors can produce the same effect in the brain as a substance like alcohol. Pornography elicits powerful neurotransmitters, called dopamine, in the brain that can lead to us getting addicted. Our brain gets over stimulated, and its reward center becomes numbed. In this state of atrophy, our brain craves dopamine, which drives us to more pornography. But as our brain keeps craving dopamine, it craves a harder drug, by which I mean porn, which features deviant sexual behavior and unnatural fetishes. The viewer suffers in a variety of ways, such as from anxiety, depression, isolation and marital breakdown. It can also affect us physically, making it more difficult for us to engage in and enjoy sexual relations with another person....The first step is to expose it to the antiseptic life of truth. Bring your problem to a trusted friend to whom you can be accountable. Second, if you're a Catholic, you can repent and go to the Sacrament of Confession and receive the graces that God offers. I would also recommend Catholics get the support of a good spiritual director... I'd remind people that patient perseverance is necessary. The wounds didn't occur overnight, and they're not going to vanish overnight..." Join Matt Fradd in the fight against porn and register free for STRIVE!
