19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. 'It is a ghost,' they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, 'Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.' Peter said to him in reply, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, 'O you of little faith, why did you doubt?'"
~ Matthew 14:25-31

From the Pastor's Desk

In today's Gospel our Lord sends his disciples to row across the lake, knowing that they would meet strong, gale-force head-winds and be in danger. He did this because he wanted to strengthen their faith and trust in himself. It was in their "dependency and helplessness" that Jesus shows them his great power – and as a result of this, their faith in him was strengthened, and they declared he was the Messiah, the Chosen of God. There is an important lesson for us in this incident: We all have many troubles, trials, and misfortunes in life – and God foresees them all and can prevent them. However, he lets them take their course. God knows that our troubles in life are like the growing pains of our youth—they are necessary if we are to arrive at our full stature as sons of God. They form, mold and shape our religious character and bring us closer to God—if we allow them to do so.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

THE BIBLE and the VIRGIN MARY

JOURNEY THROUGH SCRIPTURE

The Women's Study Group will start up for the 2020-2021 academic year on Monday, August 24th, 5:30-6:45pm in O'Neill Hall. Our subject material is "The Bible and the Virgin Mary" series found on formed.org. All women of the parish, no matter what age or vocation, are welcome to partake in this study of the greatest and holiest woman who ever lived—and understand who she really is in relation to our lives! Following the interpretive pattern of the authors of Scripture and the Fathers of the Church, The Bible and the Virgin Mary series will examine the role of Mary in salvation history. Through a method called typology, we'll study her role as the New Eve, the Ark of the New Covenant, and the Queen Mother. This study also examines Catholic doctrine with regard to the Blessed Virgin, answering common objections along the way. Additionally, the study explores the Vatican-approved apparitions of Our Lady that have occurred over the last two millennia. Women are welcome to attend all twelve sessions or attend as it works for your schedule. No matter how great or little you think your knowledge and devotion to Our Lady is, all will be sure to be strengthened in love for her and enter a deeper relationship with her!

Fr. Kovash's Men's Group meets Wednesday mornings at 5:45 am in O'Neill Hall. All men are welcome at anytime!

Since the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary falls on a Saturday this year, the Holy Day of Obligation on August 15th is officially revoked. We still celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption on this day, however. Mass will follow the normal Saturday Mass schedule of an 8am Mass on August 15 in honor of Our Lady.

A NEW RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

YEAR IS UPON US!!!

Religious Education for Kindergarten through high school youth group begins Wednesday, September 9th at St. Joseph's and on Sunday, September 13th at St. John's in Trenton for kindergarten through 6th grade (Confirmation students and high school youth are invited to attend St. Joseph's classes). You may find the calendars for the year, class start times, and registration on St. Joseph's website, stjparish.com. Classes are without cost. St. Joseph's would like to emphasize the need for the faith to also be taught at home in addition to classes at church. If you wish to know of resources for this, please contact the parish office. Our religious education program is meant to reinforce the faith taught at home and it cannot be fruitful or make up for the lack without it. St. Joseph's would love to be a guiding compass for families to learn how to instill the faith from home. Our Catholic faith and our relationship to God are the greatest gifts we have. Let us pass it on with a sense of urgency in this culture of godlessness and lack of hope.

THE FORGOTTEN SACRAMENT:

REVIVING ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Each of us will die one day, and for some reason we rarely ponder that day. The Church gives us the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as a means to strengthen and heal both physically and spiritually those who are dying, or those who are in danger of death through grave illness or undergoing a serious operation. If you are elderly, or even if you are young and in good health, express your wish to your family or friends that you wish to be anointed by a priest when in danger of death. Ask for the Last Rites (in addition to Anointing) when death is certain. If you know other Catholics who may not be aware of the fruits of this Sacrament, tell them about the healing possible through its reception.

Goodbye to Deacon Jacob Degele!!

Our Seminarian, Deacon Jacob Degele, has left us to continue his studies in preparation for his priestly ordination, June 11, 2021.

Please pray for him in his last year of seminary formation!

Music Ministry Update: A Time of Transition

I wanted to take this opportunity to update you on two temporary changes happening in our music ministry.

First, our piano isn't missing. On August 1st, the piano was moved into O'Neill Hall for a long overdue overhaul. During this period, every nook and cranny of the instrument will be inspected and, if needed, re-furnished. This will ensure that we will get to enjoy our piano for many more years to come.

Second, I have temporarily ceased work as Music Director. On August 1st, my visa also expired. Until the issuance of a work permit by the government, I am unable to work. Of course, the request for the work permit has been duly filed and we simply await for the card to be printed and mailed to me. At that point, I will be rehired by the church and resume my duties as your Music Director.

Our capable music ministry team has prepared for this period of abrupt change to the best of their ability. Generous volunteers have stepped up to help with continuing to provide music for our liturgical celebrations and I am so thankful for them.

I ask that all music-related inquiries or requests be referred to Sarah Sando. Emails can continue to be sent to music@stjparish.com and texts can continue to be sent to (701) 404-9686. As well, the parish office front desk will be able to refer these queries to her.

I humbly ask that you pray with and for me. May all the employment-related paperwork be sorted out without any additional delay. I look forward to returning to my place behind the piano, singing with you and making music again for the greater glory of God.

Saint of the Week: St. Maximilian Kolbe

Feast day: August 14

Birth: January 8, 1894

Death: August 14, 1941

Canonized: October 10, 1982

St. Maximilian Kolbe was born as Raymund Kolbe on January 8, 1894, in Poland. St. Maximilian Kolbe was very active in promoting the Immaculate Virgin Mary and is known as the Apostle of Consecration to Mary. Much of his life was strongly influenced by a vision he had of the Virgin Mary when he was 12. "That night I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me. Then she came to me holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should persevere in purity, and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both." One year after his vision, Kolbe and his elder brother, Francis joined the Conventual Franciscans. Kolbe was given the religious name Maximilian. At the age of 21, Kolbe earned a doctorate in philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University. He would also earn a doctorate in theology by the time he was 28.

St. Maximilian Kolbe organized the Militia Immaculata (Army of the Immaculate One). His goal was to work for the conversion of sinners and enemies of the Church, specifically the Freemasons, and he would do so with the intercession of Mary.

In 1918, he was ordained a priest and continued his work of promoting Mary throughout Poland. Over the next several years, Kolbe took on publishing. He founded a monthly periodical titled, "Rycerz Niepokalanej" (Knight of the Immaculate). He also operated a religious publishing press and founded a new Conventual Franciscan monastery at Niepokalanow, which became a major religious publishing center. Kolbe also founded monasteries in both Japan and India. To this day, the monastery in Japan remains prominent in the Catholic Church in Japan.

In 1936, Kolbe's poor health forced him to return home to Poland, and once the WWII invasion by Germany began, he became one of the only brothers to remain in the monastery. He opened up a temporary hospital to aid those in need. When his town was captured, Kolbe was sent to prison but released three months later. Kolbe refused to sign a document that would recognize him as a German citizen with his German ancestry and continued to work in his monastery, providing shelter for refugees - including hiding 2,000 Jews from German persecution. After receiving permission to continue his religious publishing, Kolbe's monastery acted as a publishing house again and issued many anti-Nazi German publications. On February 17, 1941, the monastery was shut down; Kolbe was arrested by the German Gestapo and taken to the Pawiak prison. Three months later, he was transferred to Auschwitz. Never abandoning his priesthood, Kolbe was the victim to severe violence and harassment. Toward the end of his second month in Auschwitz, men were chosen to face death by starvation to warn against escapes. Kolbe was not chosen but volunteered to take the place of a man with a family.

During the last days of his life, Kolbe led prayers to Our Lady with the prisoners and remained calm. He was the last of the group to remain alive after two weeks of dehydration and starvation. The guards gave him a lethal injection of carbolic acid. St. Maximilian Kolbe died on August 14 and his remains were cremated on August 15, the same day as the feast of the Assumption of Mary. He is the patron Saint of drug addicts, prisoners, families, and the pro-life movement.

NEED SOME ENCOURAGEMENT TO GO TO CONFESSION? At times, we wish life provided a restart button.

We make mistakes, we sin, and the consequences seem insurmountable. Indeed, they are for us, but not for God. The "restart button" we secretly desire is the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which washes away the sins that burden us, giving us a second chance. Here, Jesus, Who has felt all of our pain and guilt and borne the weight of all of our sins waits for us like an understanding doctor who earnestly desires to heal his patients. Just as we regularly wash our cars and clean our homes, so, too, does our soul beg to be cleaned. Pope Francis offers some words of encouragement to anyone hesitating: "Everyone say to himself: 'When was the last time I went to confession?' And if it has been a long time, don't lose another day! Go, the priest will be good. And Jesus will be there, and Jesus is better than the priests - Jesus receives you. He will receive you with so much love! Be courageous, and go to confession."
