24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins?"

~Sirach 28: 2-4

"Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." - Lk 23:24

From the Pastor's Desk

Our Gospel message is easy to understand but often not easy to carry out. Jesus desires for us to forgive, to forget, and to be reconciled: In the light of eternity and considering the shortness of our span of life, harboring old grudges is pointless. The forgiveness that we offer others is the indispensable condition which makes it possible for us to receive God's forgiveness and to pray meaningfully: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." What God expects from us is limitless forgiving and an ability to gloss over faults and to keep on loving even in the face of insults. When we withhold forgiveness, we hurt ourselves the most as we remain the victim. When we offer forgiveness, we open the door for healing. Time really does heal wounds. Be liberated and forgive others.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

63rd Annual God's Share Appeal, Sept 12 & 13th This year's theme, "All good giving and every perfect gift is from above" James 1:17 reminds us of our personal challenge to practice our faith as Christian stewards. Believing that God is the Creator of all; recognizing the gifts and talents God has blessed us with; tending to our gifts and talents; and returning them to God with increase are the daily principles that energize Christian stewards. It is only because of generous Catholics like you that Bishop Kagan is able to meet the ever increasing needs of the programs and services provided to our parishioners and parishes. Because of your outpouring of generous support to our Appeal, we are able to provide critical funding that enables the Church in western ND to form our youth and adults in faith, promote the dignity of life and marriage, and foster vocations to the priesthood. Each parish operating on its own can only do so much, but when parishes join together, linking the people of our Diocese together, we can realize our unlimited potential. Please give generously next weekend! Please contact the Diocese at 701-204-7202 for any questions.

By Mrs. Julie Quamme

St. Joseph's School has moved into the "yellow" phase of the ND Smart Re-Start plan. This means that our students and staff are taking extra preventive measures to be cautious so that we remain safe and healthy. One big change you may notice is that the 1st grade classroom has moved into a portion of O'Neill Hall. The first graders are enjoying their new environment.

The U.S.D.A has announced that the summer flexible free meal program will continue through December 31st. This means that all students attending St. Joseph's School will receive breakfast and lunch at no cost.

An order for school apparel has been placed. If you are interested in ordering something please let Mrs. Lysne in the school office know right away (701-572-6384). If you don't catch this order, she will be placing another order soon as we anticipate lots of students will want to make purchases, especially as the days are getting cooler.

The Afterschool Club began on Thursday, August 27 at 3:00. Aislinn Egge is heading the Afterschool Club. There are still spots available in the Afterschool Club if you are interested. The cost is $200 per month. Drop-Ins are welcome, but you must call the school in the morning and let the office know your child will be attending the Afterschool Club that day. The cost is $20. Please call the school for more information.

St. Joseph's School still has openings in most grades if you are still wanting to enroll your child. Please call the School Office (701-572-6384) to enroll or to inquire about additional information.

School pictures will be taken on Tuesday, Sept. 15th beginning at 8:30. A digital form was emailed to all parents. If you did not receive an email regarding pictures, please contact the office.

HIS ANGELS at OUR SIDE

Men!!! Fr. Kovash is beginning a new book with his morning Men's Group!

Join Fr. Kovash Wednesday mornings at 5:45am beginning September 16th for a study about angels, using the book, "His Angels at Our Side" by

Fr. John Horgan. We all believe in and love angels, but most of us know little about them and their roles in our lives. In these pages, Fr. Horgan introduces us to everything Scripture and the Church tells us about angels, including:

- Why the Church teaches that the angels were created at the time of creation
- The responsibilities of the angels at every Mass
- The key difference between spirits and angels
- Seven habits you must develop to grow closer to God through His angels
- How St. Joseph can expose you to the inspirations of the angels
- The difference in the way humans and angels think
- How you can imitate the warrior nature of the angels
- The three ways you must respond to your angel's guardianship
- The five roles that every angel takes in their service for the Lord
- The surprising ways in which angelic warfare is carried out

THE FORGOTTEN SACRAMENT: REVIVING ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Each of us will die one day, and for some reason we rarely ponder that day. The Church gives us the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as a means to strengthen and heal both physically and spiritually those who are dying, or those who are in danger of death through grave illness or undergoing a serious operation. If you are elderly, or even if you are young and in good health, express your wish to your family or friends that you wish to be anointed by a priest when in danger of death. Ask for the Last Rites (in addition to Anointing) when death is certain. If you know other Catholics who may not be aware of the fruits of this Sacrament, tell them about the healing possible through its reception.

Saint of the Week: Our Lady of Sorrows

Feast day: September 15

The Catholic Church celebrates the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15, the day after the feast of the Holy Cross to show the close connection between Jesus' Passion and Mary's Sorrows. The devotion to the Sorrows of Mary properly appears toward the middle of the fourteenth century, but Mary's compassion was remembered from early centuries. Mary's sorrows has its roots in the Gospel. Major references are: John 19:25 (Calvary); Luke 2:35 (Mary pierced with a sword). Other sorrows can be inferred: Luke 2:7 (no room at the inn); Matthew 2:6-18 (massacre of the Innocents); Luke 2:41-50 (anxious search for Jesus); Luke 4:28-30 (rejection by townspeople of Nazareth); and Luke 11:53-54 (rejection by authorities of Jerusalem), etc. For a while there were two feasts in honor of the Sorrowful Mother: one going back to the 15th century, the other to the 17th century. Both were celebrated by the universal Church: one on the Friday before Palm Sunday, the other in September.

As devotion to the seven sorrows developed, two lists of seven sorrows were drawn up, one including the infancy and childhood of Jesus Christ, the other concentrating on the Passion.

1. The prophecy of Simeon; 2. The massacre of the Innocents and flight to Egypt; 3. Jesus lost in Jerusalem; 4. Jesus arrested and judged; 5. Jesus crucified and dying; 6. Jesus taken down from the Cross; 7. Jesus wrapped and laid in the tomb; and ...

1. Jesus is arrested and struck; 2. Jesus is led to Pilate to be judged; 3. Jesus is condemned to death; 4. Jesus is nailed to the Cross; 5. Jesus gives up His Spirit and dies on the Cross; 6. Jesus is taken down from the Cross; 7. Jesus is wrapped and laid in the tomb.

The commemoration of Mary's sorrows gave rise to meditations, prayers, poems, lamentations, not to forget the representations of the Pieta. This devotion became part of the mysteries of the rosary, as we now know them. The present form of the Seven Sorrows was popularized by John de Coudenberghe (1482):

- 1. The prophecy of Simeon (Lk 2:34-35);
- 2. The flight into Egypt (Mt 2:13-21);
- 3. The loss of Jesus for Three Days (Lk 2:41-50);
- 4. The ascent to Calvary (Jn 19:17);
- 5. The crucifixion and death of Jesus (Jn 19:18-30);
- 6. Jesus taken down from the cross (Jn 19:39-40);
- 7. Jesus laid in the tomb (Jn 19:39-42)

Mary, as a lady of sorrows, is a comfort and strength to all who suffer as she extends her maternal pity to each of us. Mary, in the midst of her sorrows, was still a powerful figure. She gives an example that in the midst of sorrows and sufferings, they can be redemptive. At the foot of the cross, she stood fearlessly while others fled. Mary looked on her Son's wounds with pity, but saw in them the salvation of the world and offered her own sufferings in union with them. As Jesus hung on the cross, she did not fear to be killed, but offered herself to her persecutors. All, but especially mothers, should turn to Our Lady of Sorrows throughout the trials and disappointments of life, specifically concerning children.
