From the Pastor's Desk

Christ, the Son of God, is our Good Shepherd. He has laid down his life for us, his sheep, as he himself said. Today he tells us that his sheep know his voice and that they follow him. Do we always listen to his voice and follow him.....or do we listen to the voice which opposes Jesus? The enemies of Christ, and of our eternal welfare are blaring forth their own gospel, a gospel of degradation, destruction, and selfishness. Their message to us is to forget the future, get all the pleasure and power and prosperity we can out of this short life. They wish us to think of ourselves only. What those who don't listen to the Good Shepherd's voice forget, is that all this was tried before and failed miserably. The great empires of the past, built on the same pagan philosophy as that of our new "saviors," flourished for a while but one by one they collapsed from internal corruption. Today we are once more reminded of this one basic and solid fact of life. We are destined for an eternal life. Our Good Shepherd, Christ our Savior, promised to give us this eternal life, if we listen to his voice and follow him.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash
