Quotation

of the week

In regards to the Sacrament of Confession, Jesus told St. Faustina, this is "where the greatest miracles take place," and it happens at a parish near you!!!!

From the Pastor's Desk

The central themes of today's readings are the importance of hospitality in Christian life and the necessity of listening to God before acting. The key to the Christian life is setting priorities: Jesus Christ first, then everything else. The only way really to learn that lesson is to spend some time every day, "sitting at the feet of Jesus." Martha has become a symbol of action-oriented, responsible people who get the job done. Our world and our parish churches need such dynamic and generous men and women. We need them to sing in the choir, to be lectors, to provide funeral luncheons, to teach faith formation, and bring communion to shut-ins. But amidst the active and busy lives we lead, we also need to be like Mary, finding quiet time every day to listen to God. Let's not become anxious and worried about many things. Rather, let us order everything in our lives – job, family, recreation, friendships, etc. – around one still point, namely, the love of God.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Pope Francis @Pontifex

I invite you to go out and look for those elderly persons who are most alone, at home or in residences where they are guests. Let's make sure no one feels alone. Visiting the elderly who live alone is a work of mercy in our time! #GrandparentsElderly #BlessingOfTime

*Saint Mary Magdalene was one of the few who remained with Christ during His agony on the Cross. She visited His tomb with two other women and found it empty. It was to her that our Lord first appeared after His Resurrection. He asked her to announce His Resurrection
