Quotation

of the week

~ Maxime Lagace

"Generosity starts when the ego ends."

From the Pastor's Desk

This teaching of our Lord in our Gospel today is a sobering one, one that should make us all sit up and take serious notice. He has taken us into his household. He has made us his "little flock." We are invited guests in his home, his Church, rather than mere servants. He warns us today that we must always be busy about our vocation, about the reason why he invited us into his home. We are Christians, we are members of his Church, for our own eternal good. God, through Christ's Incarnation, has put us on the road to heaven. He is ever helping us on the way. Sadly however, there are many Christians who are destined for heaven but who, in their folly, have left the only road which leads there, and are now travelling in the opposite direction.

Let us take a serious look at the way we are living today. Is our behavior in our home, in our place of work, in our recreation, in our relations with God---prayers and church attendance---and with our neighbor, is it such that we would change nothing in it if we were told by God that we were to die tonight? If it is, thank God for it and let's keep it going; we are on the right road. If it is not, don't wait for God to tell us when or where we will die; he will not tell us. Put things right today, and then we shall not worry when our call to judgment comes. Death will be graduation day for the good Christian---not examination day.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

YOU CAN LEAVE A LEGACY!

You can avoid excess taxes by giving certain appreciated securities, art, or coin/stamp collections to St. Joseph's Parish. This is a very attractive and substantial way to make a memorial gift.

Business of the Week:

DO YOU HAVE A COLLEGE STUDENT?

A college student would love to receive a Raise Right gift card for their gas, their favorite restaurant, grocery store, or clothing store. This way you know where they are spending the money you send them. Pick up a national listing after a weekend Mass or in the parish office to find the stores near your college student.

We now have Visa Cards on hand*

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS:

Wed 5:45 am Morning Men's Group — O'Neill Hall

EDITH STEIN: THE SEVENTH CHAMBER

During this very special week for the Augustine Institute, we celebrate both our patron, St. Augustine, and his mother, St. Monica! As a preeminent Doctor of the Church, Augustine has been said to be "the holiest of the wise and the wisest of the holy." To celebrate this great Church Father, please enjoy Augustine: A Voice for all Generations!

LEARN

FORMED NOW: MARTYRS AND MONASTICS

We celebrate many martyrs and monastics during this rich week in the liturgical calendar. But how did the Church become a place of heroic martyrdom and steadfast monasticism? In this video, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss these themes and their history in the early Church.

LISTEN

15 THINGS TO DO IN THE MIDST OF SUFFERING BY JEFF CAVINS

The Church celebrates the feast of St. Maximilian Kolbe this week. Kolbe, a Polish Catholic priest, fearlessly suffered the horrors of Auschwitz, where he was eventually martyred because of his faith. The life of this Saint reminds us that suffering is a mystery we all face at many points in our lives. In this talk, internationally known speaker Jeff Cavins shares his insights on this difficult topic and shows us how our suffering can become redemptive.
