From the Pastor's Desk

Today's passage in Luke puzzles a lot of people, and that is because in the Middle East, anyone who deliberately cut ties with family and social network would lose the ordinary means of making a living. Further, a person's life and family relationships were a necessity for security and identity, regardless of social position. Why was Jesus, who had been recommending that his followers love everybody --including their enemies-- suddenly announcing that no one could be his disciple unless he hated his own family? Did Jesus really mean that we must "hate" those nearest and dearest to us? No, Jesus uses this very strong language as an example of Semitic hyperbole or exaggeration, spoken for effect. Matthew's gospel confirms this. "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me." (Mt 10:37-38). When Jesus said "hate your family," he was talking about spiritual detachment, the ability to put God first in all aspects of our lives, including our relationships. Without such detachment, one does not have the ability truly to follow Jesus.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Twenty-Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

from Principal's Desk

The school year is underway and it's great to see so many bright, smiling faces enter the school building each day – and I'm not just talking about the students! I'm seeing the same bright, smiling faces from my staff. The beginning of the year is always a bit of a trial period as new personalities join together in new classrooms and new situations.

The staff was fortunate to start out with three days of in-service that were uplifting and helped us learn how to focus on the positive in our lives whether at work or home. Deacon Josh Hill led a great retreat on peace and how charity and works of abandonment can bring us that peace.

Our Top 20 in-service day focused on being above or below the line when reacting to situations. How we react to a situation can make all the difference. Being above the line, refers to lifting people up in times of need and really understanding people before we make rash judgements about them or their actions.

The best part of my job so far has been to watch my staff, not only accept each other for who they are, but also selflessly help each other out. I've seen it among the students this past week as well. Parents, although we know things won't always go perfectly, I feel confident your kids are in great hands!

REMINDER: No school Monday, September 5th because of Labor Day

In Christ,

Narcel Clark

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Court St. Therese #958, will be meeting on Tuesday, September 6, 2022 in O'Neill Hall starting at 7:00 p.m. All current and new members are invited to join us as we start the year with the Installation of the 2022-2024 Officers. This will then be followed by discussing & approving the yearly proposed budget and calendar of events. As a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church or its missions, all Catholic women are invited to join this heartwarming organization that is focused on prayer, unity, and charity.

St. Joseph's invites singers to join our parish Chorale!

Chorale is a group open to all singers of any skill level, though having the ability to read music is encouraged. Chorale will sing for mass every third Sunday of the month. Members of the Chorale will have one rehearsal a month – the Wednesday before the third Sunday from 7 – 8pm at the Music Office in the Parish New Life Center. Ideally, we will have enough singers to do SATB parts, but we can also make do with any arrangement of voice parts at all. Whether two people or twenty, if you're available to sing that third Sunday, please do join us! Instrumentalists are welcome to join us as well.

If interested in singing alto, tenor, or bass (harmony parts), please have listened to the music beforehand and prepared as much as you can – especially if you cannot read music. (Those who feel more comfortable singing melody are always welcome to do so.) We will review parts during rehearsal, but the more prepared you are, the faster our rehearsals will go! I will send out the list of songs the week before which will include access to the sheet music and, on occasion, audio practice tracks.

If interested in joining Chorale, please RSVP with Emily Driscoll at music@stjparish.com. Our first Chorale rehearsal will be Wednesday, September 14th. (Note: If you have a church-issued Ipad, please bring it!)
