From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The entire month of November is a particularly blessed time to pray for all the souls in purgatory. These souls of our deceased loved ones are still in need of purification before entering spotless, and immaculate, paradise. Nothing impure can enter heaven. It is a great mercy, and a matter of the justice of God, to have a stage of purgation for souls. These souls had their sins forgiven, but had not made full restitution or satisfaction for the harm their sins had caused on earth. When a person's sins are forgiven in the Sacrament of Confession a penance is given. This penance is meant to "make up" "make satisfaction" for the harm caused by sin. The church refers to it as "temporal (meaning ...in time, in this world) punishment due to sin", and this "just punishment" is reduced and even eliminated completely through authentic penance, true prayer from the heart, fasting, works of charity, and through plenary indulgences granted by the church. Because of our belief in the Communion of Saints (i.e. that we are still connected intimately with those who have died, through the power of Christ), we can pray for the souls in purgatory and help them. The prayer of St. Gertrude is common and I encourage you to pray it daily, "Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen." My Mom prayed this prayer every day. She died a year ago, on November 2nd, the feast of All Souls. I had Mass at her bedside while she lay dying and she took her last breath after the Gospel reading from John 6:37-40, "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ." This was a great comfort to our family. It was Mom's way of teaching her children, one last time, to always pray for the souls in purgatory, and to put our faith in Jesus and his power to raise us to eternal life. I encourage you to have Masses offered for your loved ones, and the living for that matter. Novena Prayers for the souls in purgatory are traditionally prayed from Oct. 24 - Nov. 2nd, but you can pray it anytime for nine straight days. Find the prayers online at scripturecatholic.com or do a simple google search. May all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

Blessings,

Fr. Paul Eberle

YOU CAN LEAVE A LEGACY!

You can avoid excess taxes by giving certain appreciated securities, art, or coin/stamp collections to St. Joseph's Parish. This is a very attractive and substantial way to make a memorial gift.

31st Sunday In Ordinary Time

from Principal's Desk

It is great to be back! I didn't know what to expect on my first pilgrimage and I couldn't have asked for anything more. It was refreshing to be surrounded by thousands of people praying and worshipping together. I went to refocus and reset. In our materialist, busy lives it is easy to forget or put aside what should constantly be at the center of our lives- our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The Medjugorje message that our great Mother wants to remind us of is quite simple. She reminds us to

1. Pray the rosary with our hearts.
2. Receive the Eucharist
3. Read scripture.
4. Fast
5. Participate in monthly confession

Upcoming Events:

Friday, November 10 -NO SCHOOL- Veteran's Day
– please remember a Veteran

Candy should arrive next week and our candy sales will begin. Please find a St. Joseph Student to help satisfy your sweet tooth!

As Mary reminds us- "it is not about me, it is about my Son." Let's remember to declutter our lives of all the Earthly distractions that keep us from building our relationship with God the Father, his Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

In Christ,

Mrs. Clark

Children's Adoration :

I invite you to bring your children (any ages) to attend Children's Adoration. November 11th, 30th, and Dec. 9th from 9:00-10:00 a.m. are the next dates scheduled. If you are wondering if your child is too young or too old for this, the answer is "no" they are not too young or too old. If you are worried about your child acting out during this time, that's ok, don't let it deter you from coming. No one is perfect, and we understand we all have tough moments. God understands too, and loves when we come into his Eucharistic presence. I lead the children in about 10-15 minutes of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance on the altar, and then the children go to O'Neill Hall for activities, while the parents can remain in Adoration. It is truly a blessed time for our youth and families. Please come. You are most welcome and it will be a blessing to our entire parish to have our youth pray for our parish and the world. Our world needs it, and God always answers the prayers of his children.

Blessings,

Fr. Paul Eberle
