LENTEN REGULATIONS FOR CATHOLICS

ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT is observed on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all the Fridays of Lent by all Catholics 14 years of age and older.

FASTING IS OBSERVED on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59 years of age. Those bound by this rule may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted as necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. Those who are sick, pregnant, or nursing, or whose health would adversely be affected by fasting or abstinence, should not consider themselves bound by these norms.

BY THE THREEFOLD DISCIPLINE of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving during the season of Lent, all Catholics are called to embrace penances and to perform works of charity that reflect a deep desire for conversion of heart. They are also called to pray fervently for those Catechumens and Candidates who will celebrate the Easter Sacraments with the Church this year. May this Lent lead all to a deeper union in Christ with one another.

From the Pastor's Desk

The lesson we have to learn from today's gospel hardly needs any emphasizing. We must, if we are truly Christian, forgive those who offend or injure us. We must love all men, whether they be friends or enemies. G. K. Chesterton says: "We are commanded to love our neighbors and our enemies; they are generally the same people."

And this love begins at home, because it is here that it can and should be learned and practiced. It is first and foremost necessary for Christian peace in the home. If there is peace and harmony between husband and wife, as there will be if both are truly charitable, the children will learn too to be understanding and forgiving. Our charity must spread from the home to our neighbors---to all those with whom we have contact. It is easy to get along with most people, but in every neighborhood and in every village or town there will always be those who are difficult. There will be the dishonest, the tale-bearers, the quarrelsome, the critic of everyone and everything. It is when we have dealings with such people that all our Christian charity is necessary. Most likely we will never be able to change their ways of acting, but charity will enable us to tolerate their faults and will move us to pray for their eternal welfare.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

from Principal's Desk

As we all know, kids say the darndest things. A couple of weeks ago two sisters were being dropped off. The younger one got out of the vehicle and came skipping through the door with what seemed to be no care in the world. A few moments later the older sister came through the door, carrying two backpacks and two lunch bags. As she came trudging through the door trying to hold on to everything, she said, "sometimes I feel like the maid!"

I'm guessing we all have that overwhelming feeling at times. Since Christmas break there's probably a good chance my staff has felt that way. We've had spelling bees, mardi gras, Catholic Schools Week, and candy sales just to name a few. However, this week seemed to be a bit quieter, which I'm sure was much appreciated.

Upcoming Events:

Monday, Feb. 20th – No school due to President's Day

Friday, Feb. 24- Family Fun night at the Raymond Center for school families

Classes are filling up for the upcoming school, don't forget to get your child(ren) registered if you have not done so already.
