From the Pastor's Desk

Lent is a time to look at our temptations, sin and the consequences. During Lent, we are challenged to die to sin, to die to our pride and ego, to die to selfishness, so that we may rise again to the new life in the Risen Christ. Today's readings give us the notion that testing comes to us by an outside agency – the devil. However, the Good News is that, though we are tempted and often succumb, God's grace provides the way of salvation for us. Prayer, penance and acts of charity enable us to defeat our temptations. Let us say "yes" to God this Lent and say "no" to sin and selfishness.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Kindness: the excellence of character that drives ethical decisions- people who act with this virtue act that way not for a reward because it is simply the right way to behave and it is how we wish others to behave toward us.

There are so many simple ways to show the virtue of kindness that take very little effort or time out of our day- a smile, a thank-you, a text, a hug, a listening ear. The list is endless.

This morning I put on an old shirt from my coaching days. It reminded me of my young assistant coach that I shared many laughs as we muddled our way through our first coaching experience together. I haven't visited with her in almost a year. I took a picture of my shirt and texted her - "Hey coach, thinking of you today! 😊" I immediately got a text back, "Hey coach! I really needed that this morning! My grandma passed away on Friday..."

Take the time to be kind!

Upcoming events:

Tuesday, February 28, a special presentation for our students from story teller, Darin Crow

Friday, March 3- announcement of our virtue of the month (kindness) winners at Children's Mass

In Christ,
Mrs. Clark

God, the Father of mercies, through the Death and Resurrection of his Son, has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God grant you pardon and
