From the Pastor's Desk

In today's gospel, Jesus' heart is moved with pity for the crowd for "they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." Jesus always has a tender and compassionate heart for all his children, but especially for those who are distressed and in need.....for he desires each person to have a personal relationship with him. One of the ways that Jesus makes known his friendship and love for all people is through his priests, his shepherds. Please continue not only to pray for more vocations to the priesthood, but for holy shepherds who are willing to lay down their lives for their sheep, and who will make known the extravagant love and mercy God has for all his children.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Quotation
of the week

~ Blessed Henry Suso

"It is practically impossible that suffering does not benefit a man in some way, whether he is yet in the state of sin, is just converted, making progress, or already arrived at perfection, because it scours the iron, purifies the gold, and embellishes the precious stones."
