Quotation

of the week

"Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort me and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger."

~St. Patrick

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Epiphany. The word means "manifestation" or "revelation" because the feast celebrates a "revelation" of Jesus' divinity. We recall the arrival of the wise men from the east, who followed the shining star, the sign of a new born king. On arriving they offered the child Jesus gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These three gifts foreshadow what Jesus will do when he grows up. Gold for a king. Jesus is a king, a heavenly king. Frankincense for a priest. Jesus is a priest and the sacrifice. Myrrh for his burial. Myrrh was used to embalm a deceased body. Jesus will die for our sins, and rise on the third day, leaving the tomb empty and our hearts full of life and hope. January 6th is the traditional date of Epiphany, and the end of the Christmas season, but we celebrate Epiphany on the Sunday close to the 6th, because it is such a special feast. In much of the world, especially in eastern countries, January 6th is the "big" day Catholics celebrate and exchange gifts, recalling the gifts given to Jesus, and the gift of God's Son to the world, which is the greatest gift of all. Originally this day celebrated four different events: (1) The Baptism of the Lord at which time the Holy Spirit descending upon him in the form of a dove and the voice of the Father said "this is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased". (2) Jesus Christ's first miracle at the wedding at Cana when he changed water into wine and began his public ministry. (3) The Nativity of Christ, which is Christmas and celebrate the birth of Jesus. (4) The visitation of the Magi/Wisemen (Epiphany) who come and do him homage and give gifts. I pray that the Lord Jesus will continue to "reveal" himself to you. When you experience and show forth love and mercy, forgiveness and compassion, Jesus is showing himself to you. He stays with you each day and right now is sitting next to you. Speak to him and let him speak to you.

Blessings,

Fr. Paul Eberle

Queridos feligreses,

Este domingo celebramos la fiesta de la Epifanía. La palabra significa "manifestación" o "revelación" porque la fiesta celebra una "revelación" de la divinidad de Jesús. Recordamos la llegada de los reyes magos de oriente, que seguían la estrella resplandeciente, el signo de un rey recién nacido. Al llegar, ofrecieron al niño Jesús regalos de oro, incienso y mirra. Estos tres dones presagian lo que Jesús hará cuando crezca. Oro para un rey. Jesús es un rey, un rey celestial. Incienso para un sacerdote. Jesús es un sacerdote y el sacrificio. Mirra para su entierro. La mirra se usaba para embalsamar un cuerpo de difunto. Jesús morirá por nuestros pecados, y resucitará al tercer día, dejando la tumba vacía y nuestros corazones llenos de vida y esperanza. El 6 de enero es la fecha tradicional de la Epifanía y el final de la temporada navideña, pero celebramos la Epifanía el domingo cerca del 6, porque es una fiesta muy especial. En gran parte del mundo, especialmente en los países orientales, el 6 de enero es el "gran" día en que los católicos celebran e intercambian regalos, recordando los dones dados a Jesús y el regalo del Hijo de Dios al mundo, que es el regalo más grande de todos. Originalmente, este día celebraba cuatro eventos diferentes: (1) El Bautismo del Señor, momento en el que el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre él en forma de paloma y la voz del Padre dijo: "Este es mi Hijo amado, en quien tengo complacencia". (2) El primer milagro de Jesucristo en las bodas de Caná, cuando cambió el agua en vino y comenzó su ministerio público. (3) La Natividad de Cristo, que es Navidad y celebra el nacimiento de Jesús. (4) La visita de los Reyes Magos (Epifanía) que vienen y le rinden homenaje y le dan regalos. Oro para que el Señor Jesús continúe "revelándose" a sí mismo a ustedes. Cuando experimentas y muestras amor y misericordia, perdón y compasión, Jesús se está mostrando a ti. Él se queda contigo todos los días y ahora mismo está sentado a tu lado. Háblale y deja que te hable.

Bendiciones,

Rev. Paul Eberle
