From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

The gospel this week describes the Martha and Mary dilemma, of which we are all too familiar. I would venture to guess that most of us are more like Martha, anxious and busy about many things and forget that Mary has chosen the better part. Mary has chosen to sit at the feet and listen to Jesus. That is true prayer. Listening to God is praying. Talking to God, like we do in conversations with others, is praying. When we talk to God and listen to God our life changes for the better. I encourage each of us this week to take some quality silent time out of our busy day to "sit" at the feet of Jesus and pay attention to what he allows us to feel in our heart and soul. Tell Jesus what you think and feel, listen to what he thinks and feels about you. He will tell you He loves you more than you can imagine.

P.S. I helped out at Trinity Youth Camp this past week and return on Sunday night. This is a Catholic camp for youth going into 4th-8th grade. I encourage parents to keep it in mind and send your kids next year. There are three weeks available throughout the month of July, one of those weeks is held at Camp of the Cross near Garrison. Your kids will love it! We have Mass every day and all kinds of fun camp activities.

Blessings,
Fr. Paul Eberle
