From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel is about the rich man and Lazarus, the poor man who was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. This parable of Jesus admonishes us to be considerate to the poor and needy, and not self-indulgent like the rich man of the Gospel who neglected Lazarus. The rich man is like those the Prophet Amos spoke of, "Woe to the complacent in Zion! Lying upon beds of ivory, stretched comfortably on their couches." Do we notice the needs of those around us and respond to them with generosity? We have a wonderful Good Samaritan fund at the parish, so that we can assist the needy who come to the parish office. To leave a donation please contact the parish office or leave a check to St. Joe's with "Good Samaritan" in the memo line. We are also blessed to have a St. Vincent De Paul Society at the parish that you can support. On this Catholic Charities of North Dakota appeal weekend, we also have an opportunity to respond for those whom they assist. The following is a prayer for the poor.

Prayer for the Poor

God of Justice, open our eyes
to see you in the face of the poor.
Open our ears
to hear you in the cries of the exploited.
Open our mouths
to defend you in the public squares
as well as in private deeds.
Remind us that what we do
to the least ones,
we do to you.
Amen.

Blessings,
Fr. Paul Eberle

YOU CAN LEAVE A LEGACY!

Over 70% of all adults neglect to prepare a will; many more do not keep it up to date. Think about getting yours done or reviewed. You will be doing your heirs a wonderful service. Consider helping St. Joseph's Church through a bequest in your will. Check our website for a free will service you can do yourself or contact an attorney about making out your will.

Quotation of the week

"Grant me, O Lord my God, a mind to know you, a heart to seek you, wisdom to find you, conduct pleasing to you, faithful perseverance in waiting for you, and a hope of finally embracing you."

from Principal's Desk

It's typical at the beginning of every year to be a review period as we get back into the school routine. Once the review period is over and new concepts are introduced, it's fun to see how children react to learning new concepts, which can be challenging. It's been my experience that many of my past students who have become successful in their adult lives aren't necessarily the students who picked up on new concepts the easiest, but rather the students who exhibited the most grit. They were the ones who persevered through the challenges and had the mindset that they could accomplish things. They just weren't there yet. Part of our focus this year is to help students develop the "grit" to overcome challenges.

So, it is with our spiritual life. It's not always easy to live a virtuous life. Like our personalities, different virtues are more challenging to some than they are to others. We just need to never give up on what we aren't good at. We can become better versions of ourselves. If we have the "grit" it will happen. We just aren't there yet.

Upcoming events:

- Monday, October 13 – Parent Teacher's Conferences 3:30-6:30 pm
- Tuesday, October 14- Parent Teacher's Conferences 5:00-8:00 pm
- Thursday, October 16- No School- Fall Break
- Friday, October 17- No School- Fall Break

Box of Joy

What is a Box of Joy Ministry?

Box of Joy is a Christmas gift box ministry that is organized by Catholic parishes, schools and groups to support existing Catholic ministries in developing countries. Not only does this initiative encourage and support poor families, but it also enables American families to put their faith into action, developing charitable hearts as they reach out to people.

This advent St. Joseph's Catholic School and St. Joseph's Church is partnering with Cross Catholic Outreach and bless a child with a Box of Joy.

More information to come.

Coffee & Donuts

To make Coffee & Donuts more regular, we are looking for volunteers to simply serve and clean-up after each Sunday Mass. Supplies will be provided and the donuts delivered by other volunteers. Please help support this fellowship opportunity by contacting jacob.monson@midco.net.

Seminar on Preparing for End of Life

Get Your Affairs in Order

On Sunday, October 12th, beginning at 4pm in O'Neill Hall, there will be a seminar to assist anyone with end of life plans. Seth Coughlin will speak about preparing a funeral. Tom Kalil will speak on preparing a will. David Tamisea will speak on Catholic Healthcare directives. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. No registration required.

Making preparations ahead of time is always a good idea, and can alleviate a great deal of stress upon a family and provide clarity around your wishes after you pass. They will be grateful as we help you ensure:

1. You have a valid/updated will in place.
2. You have Advanced Catholic Medical Directives, a Healthcare Power of Attorney, and a Durable Power of Attorney in place.
3. Legacy planning: you establish a plan for gifts to your parish and your favorite charities.
4. Mass Planning: Give yourself the beautiful gift of pre-planning your own funeral Mass.

Please come.

Business of the Week:

"HORIZON RESOURCES"

This is the convenience store that has a little of everything. As you fill up your tank of gas, run in and fill up your stomach as well. They've got a great selection of breakfast, lunch, drinks, and snacks, to choose from. If you are working outside, they carry Ferris lawn mowers, snow blowers, and generators. They even sell tools, oil, and fill 20-100# propane bottles. For the avid hunter and outdoorsman, they have a complete line of clothing, boots, and gloves for either work or play. They stock the gun department with a variety of shotguns, rifles, and ammunition. Plus, they even carry Traeger pellet grills!

Attention Pinochle Players!!!

It's time for a new season of pinochle!! Grab a partner and join in the fun!! We promised fun, laughter and friendship!!! Cost is $25/ team !!

Light reception after Mass.

Spend an hour with Jesus in Adoration

My name is Jacob Monson, and I am a weekly adorer of Eucharistic Adoration in our parish. Eucharistic Adoration is so important because it places me in the physical presence of Jesus. My hour commitment not only affords me an opportunity to reflect on everything in my life, but the physical presence of the Lord draws me into a conversation with Him about these things. My prayer is far from perfect, and my mind is constantly wandering – I spend most of my time fending off distractions and just trying to focus. And to be honest, the conversations feel very one-sided most of the time. But He must be speaking to me somehow because doing this on a weekly basis has inspired me to a greater devotion to my vocation and a firmer desire for God's plan for me. There's something about His physical presence in Eucharistic Adoration that feeds our deepest desires. He has so much He wants to say to and do with us, and this is the best way to encounter that! Please give him a chance by visiting Him in Adoration.

This Week on Formed

Week of September 28, 2025

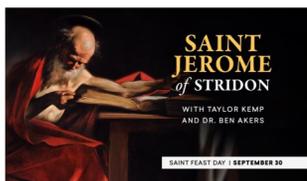

St. Therese | Littlest Saints

Which flower in Jesus's garden is the best? The most beautiful? St. Therese gives us her "little" answer to these questions.

St. Francis of Assisi: Sign of Contradiction

From 4PM Media and The Ministry of the Wild Goose comes a breathtaking film on the life of St. Francis of Assisi. A fool according to the standards of the world, St. Francis' life was a sign of contradiction, convicting others of the beauty of Christ and his Gospel.

St. Jerome | Catholic Saints

An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St. Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
