Pastor's Chronicle

For almost 100 years Americans have been honoring mothers with a special day on the Second Sunday of May. Every mother has a difficult job in keeping the right balance between being a good wife and good mother. Children not only absorb much of her time, but also much of the attention and affection once given exclusively to her husband. Parents can find themselves becoming rivals of the children's affection. Traditionally the mother's role is understood as one who nurtures and protects a child from danger. Certainly the nights spent sitting up caring for a sick child going without rest or sleep until the child is comfortable and secure is an act of unselfish love. The child is incapable of repaying the mother for the care and comfort and accepts the love as part of the natural bond between them.

As baptized Christians, we actually have several "mothers." Along with our natural birth mother we have the Church that is often spoken as a bride and mother. It is Mother Church who calls us to the waters of baptism to be reborn into the new life of the risen Christ.

We also have another mother Mary, who is the "Mother of the Church." Her life clearly shows that even for her, motherhood was a vocation that included both joy and suffering, as one beautiful prayer says: "Mary gave birth to our Savior and so nurtured the Church at its beginning. She accepted God's parting gift of love as she stood beneath the cross and so became the mother of all those who were brought to life through the death of her Son."

Our truest mother is that unique human being through whom we were given the gift of life, the one whom we bonded in the first hours of our life outside the womb, the person whose love for us and nurturing of us, began well before we could return the love and caring in any way.

In the Acts of the Apostles it says: "We must undergo many trials if we are to enter the kingdom of God." These words will resonate with every mother, for they know their vocation is not all candy and kisses, hugs and bouquets, that the vocation of motherhood also brings its share of sorrows, disappointments and sufferings.

Today let us ask Mary to bless all mothers, both living and dead. Strengthen them. Console them. Reward them. Help them to be good mothers—and wives---this day and always.

Crónica del pastor

Durante casi 100 años, los estadounidenses han estado honrando a las madres con un día especial el segundo domingo de mayo. Toda madre tiene un trabajo difícil para mantener el equilibrio correcto entre ser una buena esposa y una buena madre. Los niños no solo absorben gran parte de su tiempo, sino también gran parte de la atención y el afecto que una vez se dedicaron exclusivamente a su esposo. Los padres pueden llegar a ser rivales del afecto de los niños. Tradicionalmente, el rol de la madre se entiende como alguien que cuida y protege a un niño del peligro. Ciertamente, las noches que pasamos sentados cuidando a un niño enfermo sin descansar ni dormir hasta que el niño se sienta cómodo y seguro es un acto de amor desinteresado. El niño es incapaz de pagarle a la madre por el cuidado y la comodidad y acepta el amor como parte del vínculo natural entre ellos.

Como cristianos bautizados, en realidad tenemos varias "madres". Junto con nuestra madre natural tenemos la Iglesia que a menudo se habla como una novia y una madre. Es la Madre Iglesia quien nos llama a las aguas del bautismo para renacer en la nueva vida de Cristo resucitado.

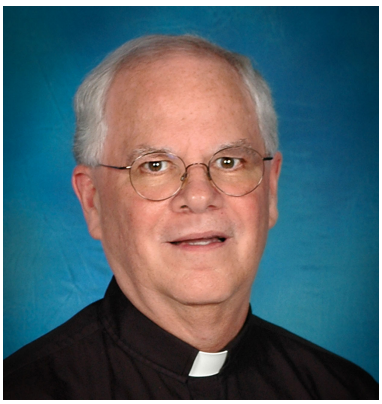
También tenemos otra madre, María, que es la "Madre de la Iglesia". Su vida muestra claramente que incluso para ella, la maternidad era una vocación que incluía alegría y sufrimiento, como dice una hermosa oración: "María dio a luz a nuestro Salvador y Así nutrió la Iglesia en su inicio. Ella aceptó el regalo de despedida del amor de Dios cuando se paró debajo de la cruz y se convirtió así en la madre de todos aquellos que fueron traídos a la vida por la muerte de su Hijo ".

Nuestra verdadera madre es ese ser humano único a través del cual recibimos el regalo de la vida, aquel con quien nos relacionamos en las primeras horas de nuestra vida fuera del útero, la persona cuyo amor por nosotros y crianza de nosotros, comenzó mucho antes de que pudiéramos. Devuelve el amor y el cuidado de cualquier manera.

En los Hechos de los Apóstoles se dice: "Debemos someternos a muchas pruebas si queremos entrar en el reino de Dios". Estas palabras resonarán en todas las madres, porque saben que su vocación no es todo dulces y besos, abrazos y ramos. que la vocación de la maternidad también trae su parte de tristezas, decepciones y sufrimientos.

Hoy pidamos a María que bendiga a todas las madres, tanto vivas como muertas. Fortalecerlos. Consolarlos Recompénsalos. Ayúdalos a ser buenas madres, y esposas, hoy y siempre.

Caution!



A message from Father Bill: Phony email requests for gift cards.

There have been reports of phony email messages that appear to come from me requesting the purchase of I-Tunes gifts cards. This is a scam (referred to as "phishing). Do not purchase gift cards for such a request.

To protect yourself from online criminals, look out for emails and messages that have these characteristics:

1) You are asked to click on unsolicited links or open attachments.
2) The message creates a sense of urgency.
3) The message invokes strong emotions like greed or fear.
4) Sensitive data, or money, is requested.

Beware that even if the message appears to be from someone you know, it could be an attacker impersonating one of your trusted contacts. If there is doubt about the legitimacy of an email from a known sender, contact them using alternate means, such as a known phone number, to confirm the contents of the message.—Fr. Bill

¡Precaución!

Un mensaje del padre Bill: solicitudes de correo electrónico falsas para tarjetas de regalo.

Ha habido informes de mensajes de correo electrónico falsos que parecen provenir de mí solicitando la compra de tarjetas de regalo de I-Tunes. Esta es una estafa (conocida como "phishing"). No compre tarjetas de regalo para tal solicitud.

Para protegerse de los delincuentes en línea, busque correos electrónicos y mensajes que tengan estas características:

1) Se le solicita que haga clic en enlaces no solicitados o abra archivos adjuntos.
2) El mensaje crea un sentido de urgencia.
3) El mensaje invoca emociones fuertes como la codicia o el miedo.
4) Se solicitan datos sensibles, o dinero.

Tenga en cuenta que incluso si el mensaje parece provenir de alguien que conoce, podría ser un atacante que se haga pasar por uno de sus contactos de confianza. Si hay dudas acerca de la legitimidad de un correo electrónico de un remitente conocido, comuníquese con ellos utilizando medios alternativos, como un número de teléfono conocido, para confirmar el contenido del mensaje. –Pr. Bill

"Savers and Saviors" Success Story

Our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry benefited enormously from the shopping efforts of the "Savers & Saviors" group. The ten participants accepted a challenge of saving toward the goal of donating. Over a three-week period the "Savers" were able to purchase over 300 products at a cost savings of 87%. By taking advantage of sales, store offers, coupons, and rebates, the products worth $1,076 were purchased for just $141.

By donating the products to our Food Pantry, the "Savers" became "Saviors" to the grateful recipients of the items. Friends visiting the Food Pantry can definitely use the purchased items such as non-perishable groceries, personal toiletries, and baby products. The food pantry is located in the yellow house behind church at 1035 Cortlandt St. It is open from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM, Monday thru Thursday and on Wednesday evenings 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM. If you would like further information, please contact Jack & Pam Lemp at 713-248-0573 or Beatrice Towns at 713-314-6827.

Historia de éxito de "ahorradores y salvadores"

Nuestra despensa de alimentos de St. Vincent de Paul se benefició enormemente de los esfuerzos de compra del grupo "Savers & Saviors". Al donar los productos a nuestra Despensa de Alimentos, los "Ahorradores" se convirtieron en "Salvadores" a los agradecidos destinatarios de los artículos. Los amigos que visiten Food Pantry definitivamente pueden usar los artículos comprados, como comestibles no perecederos, artículos de aseo personales y productos para bebés.

La despensa de alimentos está ubicada en la casa amarilla detrás de la iglesia en 1035 Cortlandt St. Está abierta de 9:00 AM a 10:30 AM, de lunes a jueves y los miércoles por la noche de 6:00 PM a 7:30 PM. Si desea obtener más información, comuníquese con Jack & Pam Lemp al 713-248-0573 o con Beatrice Towns al 713-314-6827.
