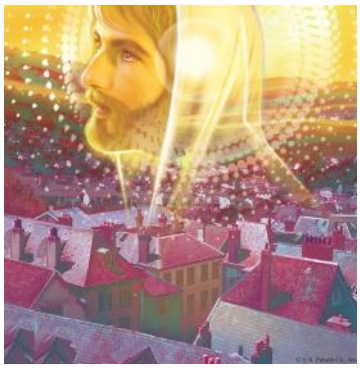
ENTHUSIASM AND GRAMMAR



There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don't show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today's reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul's fervor for his subject matter derails the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage's early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us was so excited by our faith in Christ that we were left grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with the message of Christ!

ENTUSIASMO Y GRAMÁTICA

Hay una buena razón para que los escritos de Pablo no se usen como modelos de gramática correcta hoy. La lectura de hoy nos ofrece un buen ejemplo de que para Pablo el mensaje tenía precedencia sobre la gramática. La primera oración es bastante larga y deja a los lectores sin aire; luego hay una serie de declaraciones que están hilvanadas sólo en la mente de Pablo. Pero, ¿qué importa? El fervor de Pablo es tan evidente que las palabras no le salen lo suficientemente rápidas para expresar sus ideas de manera ordenada. Los estudiosos de la Escritura regularmente interpretan su falta de sentido gramático como señal de la importancia de un pasaje en la Iglesia joven; como algo tan importante para ellos que el lenguaje que usaron nunca fue refinado.

¿Qué puede causar tal estado? ¿Contar la trama de una película de acción o describir jugada por jugada de un juego de fútbol? ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que estuvimos tan excitados por nuestra fe en Cristo que nos faltaba el aire al contarlo, o cometíamos errores gramaticales por hablar con tanto entusiasmo? ¡Puede que sea ejemplo de mala gramática, pero es una manera excelente de inspirar a otros con el mensaje de Cristo!

FATHERHOOD

When a father gives to his son, both laugh; when a son gives to his father, both cry.
—William Shakespeare

WHAT WE LOVE

We cannot help conforming ourselves to what we love.
—St. Francis de Sales

PATERNIDAD

Cuando un padre da a su hijo, ambos ríen; cuando un hijo da a su padre, ambos lloran.
—William Shakespeare

LO QUE AMAMOS

No podemos evitar asemejarnos a lo que amamos.

SAINT JOHN FISHER (1469-1535) AND SAINT THOMAS MORE (1477-1535)

June 22

From Robert Bolt's classic A Man for All Seasons to Showtime's edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household—four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him Patron of Statesmen and Politicians, citing More's generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More's decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: "I die the king's good servant, but God's first." Alone among England's bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII's divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: "Don't bother sending Fisher's red hat here; I'll send Fisher's head to Rome!" Whose "good servants" are we first? Isn't a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone?

SAN LUIS GONZAGA (1568-1591)

21 de junio

Luis Gonzaga nació en palacio y gozó de la vida cortesana. Desde los cinco años su padre le inició en la vida militar, esperando que además de heredar el trono, hiciera carrera política y militar. Pero su madre quería que fuera sacerdote. A los siete años tuvo una experiencia de Dios y ahí cambió su vida, pues se prometió a sí mismo que sería santo y comenzó a ayunar varias veces por semana. Posteriormente, a los 14 años renunció a su título nobiliario y a sus herencias, cediéndolas a su hermano. Mientras estudiaba filosofía en la Universidad de Alcalá de Henares leyó la vida de los misioneros jesuitas y decidió hacerse jesuita. Ingresó al noviciado jesuita a los 17 años, bajo la dirección de san Roberto Belarmino. Ahí, el padre superior, le pidió que redujera sus horas de oración y a lo extremado de sus penitencias. Por esos años una epidemia azotó Roma y él, sin pensarlo dos veces, se ofreció de voluntario en el hospital, donde se contagió de la enfermedad, encontrando la muerte a los 23 años.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR REOPENING OF PARISH

As we plan We are in need of volunteers to staff positions to ensure compliance with the rules and to keep everyone safe as we reopen All Saints Saturday (5:30 PM) and Sunday (8:30 AM, 10:30 AM, and 12:30 PM Spanish) Mass.

Please use the sign up link below to sign up for a position. As you will see, it has the specific times for arrival listed in the volunteer sheet.
https://signup.com/go/oseBQop

The positions are as follows:

Sanitizing and Guidance Stations (3 people per Mass)
Greet people arriving for the mass and make sure they have a mask, they properly utilize the hand sanitizer before proceeding, and explain the procedures for entering the building.
Count people who are entering the church so we maintain below 25% capacity Guide (direct) people arriving to the entry door and Sanitizing station.

Cleaning Pews after Service (4 people per Mass)
Use the solution and spray bottles provided by the Church to disinfect each of the pews that could be used (only 25% are available) by spraying the spray on the pew. No wiping required. Spray door handles and other areas that are touched by visitors.

If there are questions on how to volunteer or general questions on what you would need to do, please contact trent.hebert@allsaintsheights.com

VOLUNTARIOS NECESARIOS PARA ABRIR LA PARROQUIA

Mientras planificamos la reapertura de Todos los Santos para los servicios de fin de semana del sábado (5:30 p.m.) y domingo (8:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m. y 12:30 p.m. en español), necesitamos voluntarios para el personal de los puestos para garantizar el cumplimiento de las normas y mantener a todos a salvo.

Utilice la cadena electronica de registro a continuación para registrarse en un puesto. Como verá, tiene los horarios específicos de llegada enumerados en la hoja de voluntarios. https://signup.com/go/oseBQop
Si tiene preguntas sobre cómo ser voluntario o preguntas generales sobre lo que necesitaría hacer, comuníquese con trent.hebert@allsaintsheights.com

A message from Father Bill

Caution! :Phony emails, text messages and requests for gift cards.

There have been reports of phony email and text messages that appear to come from me requesting the purchase of gift cards. This is a scam (referred to as “phishing). Do not purchase gift cards for such a request.

The message invokes strong emotions like greed or fear. Sensitive data, or money, is requested. Beware that even if the message appears to be from someone you know, it could be a hacker impersonating one of your trusted contacts. If there is doubt about the legitimacy of an email from a known sender, contact them using alternate means, such as a known phone number, to confirm the contents of the message.

St. Joseph: A Model for Fathers

This Sunday, June 18, we honor the men who are fathers in our lives, and especially our own fathers.

Both parents fulfill specific, essential roles within the family, which we see demonstrated foremost by the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph within the Holy Family. Nevertheless, research has shown that the specific presence of the father in the home is incredibly important for a child's development. Children with absent fathers are at greater risk for a number of risk factors, including poverty, behavioral problems, substance abuse, and crime. Even more significantly, fathers are the primary determinant of their children's commitment to religion. This Father's Day brings with it the opportunity to recognize the invaluable influence our fathers have on our lives, as well as to thank them for all of the sacrifices they make daily on our behalf...

Not much is known about St. Joseph, but he is honored for being a just man. In his apostolic exhortation Redemptoris custos (Guardian of the Redeemer), St. John Paul II praises St. Joseph for supporting and protecting the Son and the Mother of God, whose care was entrusted to him. Without questioning, St. Joseph humbly obeyed God's commands, in what St. John Paul II characterizes as "Joseph's Way."

When Mary was found to be with child after the Annunciation, while she was still betrothed to Joseph, he was placed in the difficult situation of deciding how to respond. Rather than expose her to shame, he resolved to quietly send her away. However, when an angel appeared to St. Joseph in a dream, instructing him to take Mary as his wife and to name her Son Jesus because He would redeem the world, St. Joseph set aside his hesitation and obeyed. After Jesus's birth, St. Joseph fulfilled his obligations as Jesus's earthly father by taking him to the temple to be circumcised and named.

Warned in another dream that King Herod was searching for the Child to kill Him, St. Joseph immediately fled with Mary and Jesus to Egypt. He provided for them there until another angel appeared to him after the death of Herod, telling him it was safe to return with his family to Israel. St. Joseph is not mentioned in Scripture after Jesus is found in the temple at the age of twelve, and thus it is generally conceded that he died, with Jesus and Mary close to him, before Jesus began His adult ministry. For this reason, St. Joseph is also the patron of a good death.

A century before St. John Paul II, Pope Leo XIII strongly encouraged devotion to St. Joseph in his encyclical Quamquam pluries. Regardless of our various states in life, we can each find a model in St. Joseph's humility, fidelity, and commitment to his family. The devotion to St. Joseph is one of the most powerful devotions, particularly for fathers, because he is not only their patron but also the protector of families—after all, one of his titles is "Terror of Demons," making him an important intercessor, along with St. Michael, for anyone seeking protection from the devil for himself or his loved ones. However, St. Joseph's intercession is also important for women, inasmuch as he was the guardian of the Virgin Mary and is known as the Guardian of Virgins. He is also the patron of the Universal Church, unborn children, workers, travelers, and many countries. In addition to his principal feast on March 19, St. Joseph is also celebrated by the Church on May 1, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker.

Did You Know?

Q. Why is fire associated the representation of the Holy Spirit?

A. While the dove is one of the most familiar symbols of representation for the Holy Spirit, there are seven additional symbols that symbolize the Spirit of the Lord. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we come to understand that water serves as a symbol that signifies birth of life; fire on the other hand, "fire symbolizes the transforming energy of the Holy Spirit. The prayer of the prophet Elijah, who 'arose like fire' and whose 'word burned like a torch, brought down fire from heaven on the sacrifice on Mount Carmel." (CCC 696). In Acts 2:3-4 we learn that, "In the form of tongues 'as of fire,' the Holy Spirit rests on the disciples on the morning of Pentecost and fills them with himself." (CCC696). In addition to fire, water symbolizes the Holy Spirit's action of Baptism. Anointing with oils is symbolized during the sacramental sign of Confirmation named chrismation. Cloud and light appear together when the Holy Spirit manifests. A Seal represents the seal that Christ has set upon us in conjunction with the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. The hand symbolizes the healing and blessing of the sick by Jesus. The finger represents the finger of God that casts out demons and it is by God's finger that God's law was written on tablets of stone. "The hymn Veni Creator Spiritus invokes the Holy Spirit as the 'finger of the Father's right hand." (CCC700). The dove is seen at the end of the flood released by Noah and returns with a fresh olive-tree banch. " When Christ comes up from the water of his baptism, the Holy Spirit, in the form of a dove, comes down upon him and remains with him." To learn more about each symbol, please visit The Catechism of the Catholic Church, Symbols of the Holy Spirit, 694.

¿Lo sabías?

P. ¿Por qué el fuego está asociado a la representación del Espíritu Santo?

R. Si bien la paloma es uno de los símbolos más familiares de representación para el Espíritu Santo, hay siete símbolos adicionales que simbolizan el Espíritu del Señor. En el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, llegamos a comprender que el agua sirve como símbolo que significa nacimiento de la vida; fuego, por otro lado, "el fuego simboliza la energía transformadora del Espíritu Santo. La oración del profeta Elías, que 'se levantó como el fuego' y cuya 'palabra ardía como una antorcha, derribó el fuego del cielo sobre el sacrificio en el Monte Carmelo." (CCC 696). En Hechos 2:3-4 aprendemos que, "En forma de lenguas 'como de fuego', el Espíritu Santo descansa sobre los discípulos en la mañana de Pentecostés y los llena de sí mismo." (CCC696). Además del fuego, el agua simboliza la acción del Bautismo del Espíritu Santo. La unción con aceites se simboliza durante el signo sacramental de la Confirmación denominada crismación. La nube y la luz aparecen juntas cuando el Espíritu Santo se manifiesta. Un Sello representa el sello que Cristo ha puesto sobre nosotros junto con los Sacramentos del Bautismo, la Confirmación y las Órdenes Sagradas. La mano simboliza la curación y la bendición de los enfermos por Jesús. El dedo representa el dedo de Dios que expulsa demonios y es por el dedo de Dios que la ley de Dios fue escrita en tablas de piedra. "El himno Veni Creator Spiritus invoca al Espíritu Santo como el 'dedo de la mano derecha del Padre." (CCC700). La paloma se ve al final de la inundación liberada por Noé y regresa con una baruleda fresca de olivo. "Cuando Cristo sale del agua de su bautismo, el Espíritu Santo, en forma de paloma, cae sobre él y permanece con él." Para aprender más acerca de cada símbolo, por favor visite El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, Símbolos del Espíritu Santo, 694.
