FAMILIAR INSIGHTS

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings.

People complain God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly.

Paul tells the Philippians that he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so.

In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows that the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work—but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

ENSEÑANZAS FAMILIARES

Los maestros espirituales suelen repetir sus enseñanzas, y repetir las de otros maestros. Quizás no existen muchas verdades diferentes que decir. Sólo muchos seres humanos lentos y aletargados, como nosotros, que necesitan oír lo básico una y otra vez. Considera, por ejemplo las lecturas de hoy.

La gente se queja de que Dios no es "justo" y Ezequiel responde que Dios es más que justo. Las personas eligen su propio destino, y las personas pueden cambiar. Hasta los malhechores pueden cambiar de rumbo, hacer lo que es justo, y vivir. "Los hechos valen más que las palabras". ¿Un nuevo discernimiento? Para nada.

Pablo dice a los filipenses que lo llenarían de alegría si los que claman ser creyentes, de hecho, buscan el interés de los otros y no el propio. "Obras son amores y no buenas razones". ¿Una idea novedosa? No lo creo.

En el relato de Jesús del viñador y sus dos hijos, todos saben que el que dijo que no trabajaría, pero lo hizo le lleva la delantera al que dijo que trabajaría, pero no lo hizo. "Fácil es hablar". ¿Ya lo oíste antes?

Pray for us

Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus (1873-1897) October 1

"The cornerstone's dated 1872, but the stained glass is much later," explained the pastor, astonished when his visitor accurately dated it to just before the Great Depression, explaining, "The window for the Little Flower"—Thérèse's nickname—"gives it away." From her canonization in 1925, her statues and windows adorn most churches where European immigrants worshiped. Entering Carmel at fifteen, victim of tuberculosis at twenty-four, Thérèse proposed her "Little Way" to sanctity: doing ordinary tasks with extraordinary love. Thus ordinary Catholics, many of whom had lost loved ones to tuberculosis, embraced her. Though she never left her cloister, this Carmelite's spiritual communion and devoted correspondence with missionaries earned her the title Patroness of Missions. Her autobiography, Story of a Soul, continuously in print since her death, chronicles her prayerful perseverance through doubt and caused her to be the youngest person ever named a Doctor of the Church. Countless physical healings and spiritual conversions testify to her fulfillment of her deathbed promise: "After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth!" —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús (1873-1897) 1o de octubre

Teresita es la más joven de las doctoras de la Iglesia, pues murió a los 24 años, víctima de la tuberculosis. Jamás salió del convento carmelita en que vivía, pero siempre oró intensamente por los sacerdotes y los misioneros, llegando a ser la patrona de las misiones. Su vida no fue fácil, pues quedó huérfana de madre a los 4 años y se vio forzada a emigrar a otra ciudad con su padre y tres hermanas María, Paulina y Celina. Desde los 9 años se dio cuenta de que quería ser carmelita, pero su edad se lo impedía, hasta que a los 15 años le pide personalmente al Papa León XIII que le otorgue el permiso para ser admitida como religiosa carmelita. Así fue. Como religiosa destacó por la profundidad de su relación con Dios y la austeridad con que vivía, practicando la oración y la mortificación cristiana, pese a una salud muy delicada. Respecto a sus sufrimientos escribió: "He llegado a un punto en el que me es imposible sufrir, porque todo sufrimiento es dulce". Fue canonizada en 1925.

GUARDIANS FOR VALUABLE SOULS

So valuable to heaven is the dignity of the human soul that every member of the human race has a guardian angel from the moment the person begins to be.

—St. Jerome

GUARDIANES PARA ALMAS VALIOSAS

Tan valiosa para el cielo es cada alma humana que cada miembro de la raza humana tiene un ángel de la guardia desde el momento en que la persona comienza a existir.

—San Jerónimo

SON, WORDS ARE RARELY ENOUGH

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people:
"The man came to the second son and said the same thing;
and he answered, 'I will, sir'; but he did not go.
Which of the two did the will of his father?"
They said, "The first." Mt 21:30-31

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

St. Paul wrote to the Philippians: Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important ...
