Reflection

THE GIFT OF FAITH

Faith is a gift. When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, they were going to the source of that faith with their request. God is the giver of all good gifts, including faith. When we put our faith in Christ, we believe that God is with us, even though we cannot physically see God. Or can we? If we are attentive, we see the evidence of God's presence in the love of family and friends, care poured out in service of our neighbors, the living beauty of creation. This is not blind faith, but rather is the result of seeing with the eyes of faith. Followers of Jesus look beyond what is apparent to see what is possible with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit within and among us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 2, 2022

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the Lord who made us. — Psalm 95:6

EL DON DE LA FE

La fe es un don. Cuando los discípulos le preguntaron a Jesús que aumentara su fe, se estaban dirigiendo al origen de la fe con su petición. Dios es quien da todos los dones buenos, incluida la fe. Cuando ponemos nuestra fe en Cristo, creemos que Dios está con nosotros, aunque no podamos ver físicamente a Dios. ¿O a caso podemos? Si estamos atentos, vemos la evidencia de la presencia de Dios en el amor de la familia y los amigos, en el cuidado vertido al servicio de nuestros prójimos, en la belleza de la creación. Esta no es una fe ciega, sino más bien es el resultado de ver con los ojos de la fe. Los seguidores de Jesús miran más allá de lo que es aparente para ver lo que es posible con la presencia del Espíritu Santo dentro y entre nosotros. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

October 2, 2022 | Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4 | 2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14 | Lk 17:5-10

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The prophet Habakkuk lived seven centuries before Christ, yet his words could well be ours today: "I cry out to you, 'Violence!' but you do not intervene." Do we sometimes feel as though strife in our communities, and even within our own families, is more than we can handle? Like the prophet, we may ask, "How long, O Lord? I cry for help but you do not listen." Indeed, we may feel our prayers are not being answered. Perhaps it is simply that they are not "answered" in the manner and timeframe in which we wish they would be. Although "God's time" and his plan for our lives may seem mysterious or discouraging, it is by continuing to bring our concerns to God in prayer that we can actually help our faith grow and mature. We see countless examples of people who remain faithful in spite of hardship, misfortune and loss. Let us take time today, as the disciples did, to pray and ask Jesus to "increase our faith." In simply turning to the Lord, we exhibit faith that, like a tiny mustard seed, has great power and can be a source of strength to ourselves and those around us. It is in faith in Christ that we find hope.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I find today's Gospel reading so reassuring. Even just a tiny speck of faith can move mountains. Or, in this case, uproot a mulberry tree and plant it in the sea! Working for a Catholic magazine, I'm privileged to write about people with a deep and abiding faith, one they freely share with others through their example and by sharing their stories. I bet we can all point to a friend or family member who exhibits the kind of faith so strong that it rubs off on others they encounter. Jesus reminds us that even a little faith can have a huge impact – not only on our lives but on others. We can share it by offering to pray for those facing a challenge, talking to God when we feel overwhelmed, and opening our hearts to the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and in the faces of the people we encounter each day.

PRAY Even the prophet Habakkuk and the disciples experienced "off" days where faith eluded them. But the psalmist reminds us to keep showing up in prayer: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Especially in moments of despair, bring your concerns to God in prayer.

Adorer

We have a need for adorers to commit to a weekly recurring Holy Hour. Adorers may sign up at the entrance of the side door of the Sanctuary or through FlockNote. Wednesdays 8:30 AM to 9:00 PM. You are invited to grow in your faith by setting aside time to spend with Jesus. There are several hours where only 1 person has committed to be present. Ideally, we would have at least 3 - 4 people for each hour.

Adorador

Necesitamos que los adoradores se comprometan a una Hora Santa recurrente semanal. Las adoratrices pueden apuntarse en la entrada de la puerta lateral del Santuario o por FlockNote. Miércoles 8:30 AM a 9:00 PM. Estás invitado a crecer en tu fe reservando tiempo para pasar con Jesús. Son varias horas donde solo 1 persona se ha comprometido a estar presente. Idealmente, tendríamos al menos 3 - 4 personas por cada hora.

Legion of Mary
Legion de Maria

Cap. XII. Fines externos de la Legión 2. El Fin Remoto y más Alto: ser Levadura en la Sociedad

Por importante que sea la obra que lleva entre manos, la Legión no la considera ni como el último ni como el principal fin de su apostolado: mira más allá de las dos, tres o muchas horas semanales que invierta el legionario en su cometido, y contempla la irradiación permanente del fuego apostólico encendido en su hogar. Una organización que logre comunicar tan gran ardor a sus miembros, tiene movilizada una fuerza inmensa. En ella, el espíritu apostólico es dueño absoluto de todo su pensar, hablar y actuar; y en sus manifestaciones externas traspasa los límites de tiempo y lugar. Por ella, las personas más tímidas y, al parecer, menos aptas para luchar, adquieren una capacidad extraordinaria de influir en los demás, hasta el punto de que en cualquier circunstancia -y aun sin ejercer el apostolado conscientemente-, el pecado y la indiferencia se ven precisados a doblegarse como ante un poder superior. Esto lo enseña la experiencia de cada día. ¿Qué extraño, pues, que la Legión se llene de orgullo -como el general contemplando sus posiciones bien defendidas-, al echar su mirada sobre los hogares, comercios, talleres, escuelas, oficinas, y todo centro de trabajo o esparcimiento donde la Providencia le ha permitido colocar un buen legionario? Aun allí donde llegan al colmo el escándalo y la irreligión -donde, por decirlo así, están atrincherados-, la presencia de esta Torre de David atajará el avance y desbaratará las fuerzas del mal. Nunca se harán las paces con la corrupción; siempre se esforzará por remediar la situación, a fuerza de sacrificio y súplicas; se combatirá sin tregua, denodadamente y, sin duda, con el triunfo final.

Chapter 12. The external aims of the Legion 2. The Remoter and the Greater Aims: the Leaven in the community

Important, however, as may be the work in hand, the Legion does not regard it as the ultimate or even as the chief object of its members' apostolate. Such work may employ two, three, or many hours of the legionary's week, whereas the Legion looks beyond this to every hour of that week as radiant from the apostolic fire which has been kindled at its hearth. The most diffident and otherwise least equipped person becomes invested with a peculiar capacity to influence others, so that whatever the surroundings, and even without the pursuing of a conscious apostolate, sin and indifference will end by bowing to a power greater than themselves. Universal experience teaches this. Therefore, with the satisfaction with which a general contemplates important posts adequately held, does the Legion think of each home, shop, factory, school, office, and every other place devoted to purposes of work or recreation, in which a true legionary may be set by circumstances. Even where scandal and irreligion are at their worst, entrenched so to speak, the presence of this other Tower of David will bar the way to further advance and menace the evil. The corruption will never be acquiesced in; efforts at remedy will be essayed; it will be a subject of sorrow, of prayer; will be contended against determinedly, un remit - tingly, and probably successfully in the end .
