TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY.

Here I Am, Send Me!

Today, on World Mission Sunday, we respond, "Here I Am, Send Me," to our baptismal call to mission, and we offer, at the Eucharistic celebration, our prayers, and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we are "sent" out to witness to mission in the world through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world. Your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.

HOY ES EL DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

¡Aquí me tienes, mándame a mí!

Hoy, en el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, respondemos, "Aquí me tienes, mándame a mí," a nuestro llamado bautismal misionero, y ofrecemos, en la celebración eucarística, nuestras oraciones y nuestro generoso apoyo financiero, a través de la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe, para continuar la misión de Jesús. Hoy somos "enviados" a dar testimonio de la misión en el mundo a través de nuestras oraciones y sacrificios por nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Sus oraciones son su regalo más preciado para las Misiones. Sus oraciones y ayuda financiera, ofrecida hoy, DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES, apoyan a los sacerdotes misioneros, religiosas, hermanos, y catequistas laicos que son testigos de Cristo en un mundo tan necesitado de Su sanación, amor y paz.

29th Sunday of Ordinary time

READ Matthew 22:15-21

Summary of the Gospel

Ever watch a sports figure or a public person get faced with a high pressure situation and handle it so coolly that you wonder if they were nervous? This Sunday's Gospel passage shows us that Jesus was as 'cool' as they come when the pressure was on Him. After Jesus' persistent arguments against the religious authorities of His day, one of those groups, the Pharisees, decided to put it back in Jesus' face. St. Matthew tells us that they went off by themselves to come up with a plan to trip up Jesus, having Him literally convict Himself with His own words. So they went to Jesus, and began by showering Him with all kinds of complements. While these complements are true in and of themselves, the Pharisees really didn't believe them: They actually hated Jesus, and did not think He taught with the authority of God. Once they were done with their phony complements, they put Jesus to the test. They decide to trap Him over the issue of taxes, an issue that even today gets us emotionally charged. The question put to Jesus was this: Should the people pay the census tax or not? Note that Jesus was in public, and no doubt there were government officials there. There probably were many common people watching this exchange. Why did the Pharisees ask this question? Well, if Jesus says, 'yes, pay the tax', then He would be considered an enemy of the Jews, in which case He would lose His popularity and the people would rebel against Him. If Jesus says, 'no, don't pay the tax', then He would be considered an enemy of Rome and would be put in jail. So the Lord finds Himself in a pressure situation, and yet He stays calm and does not panic. He thinks clearly and goes right to the heart of the matter: The Pharisees are spiritual hypocrites who just want to trap Jesus and make themselves look good. Jesus' response is so cool – He thought of something they hadn't thought of and turned the issue back on them. Jesus wasn't trying to be politically correct with His answer by pleasing everyone, but He did want to put the Pharisees in their place. The primary spiritual lesson in this passage is not how we should handle our money (that is a secondary lesson), but how we should handle ourselves in the face of those who intend to do evil: We should always strive to be people of Truth, and be ready to speak for Truth when called upon. Jesus shows us how to stand up for the Truth, and how we should never let fear hold us back from saying what needs to be said. Let us pray for the courage to stand up for the truth in all cases, so we can be faithful children of God the Father.

Discussion Questions

1. Why did the Pharisees spend so much time 'buttering Jesus up' before they questioned Him about taxes? How do you think the Pharisees reacted to Jesus response? 2. In what situations today is it difficult for Christians to calmly stand up for their faith? Describe difficult situations you have seen in your daily life. 3. Describe a situation in life that makes you nervous and tests your 'coolness'. What would it take for you to remain 'cooler' in those situations? How can Christ help you remain in control of your emotions?

Adult Ministry and Faith Formation:

Adult faith formation at St Paul the Apostle Catholic Church is centered around the understanding that living "The Way" taught by Jesus Christ is a life-long, evolving journey, involving both effort and decision. To enable adults to explore the faith and deepen their knowledge of God's Word, we provide many opportunities to come together in a learning environment. As a diverse community with a small parish feel, we know it is important to walk that journey with others and to share what we have learned along the way.

Contact Heidi at hclark@stpaulcatholic.org or call 281-333-3891, ext. 328.

Because our faith is too rich and too beautiful to have ever learned it all…

For those Considering Catholicism

Our RCIA program welcomes seekers at any time throughout the year. If you feel like God is calling you to learn more about becoming Catholic, now is a great time to respond to that call. Our RCIA program is currently meeting online, and we have options to help regardless of what your availability might be.

Silver Linings Meeting

Community members who are 55 and up are welcome to join Silver Linings for their monthly get-together this Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. in Founders Hall. The group is watching episodes of the Catholic program called The Chosen and discussing the ideas presented. Lunch this month is being catered by Subway, and all social distancing guidelines are observed. Participants are invited to bring their own drinks to enjoy. Also, this is the meeting where annual dues of $12 is collected to support the activities of the organization. Please RSVP at 832-599-1666.

Support and Friendship for Moms of the Parish

Moms have always benefited from supportive friendships, and during a pandemic, the need is even greater. We are happy to offer a brand-new online group for both moms and moms-to-be to find friends, share the joys and challenges of parenthood, and grow together in faith. The group—aimed primarily at pregnant moms and moms of children up to grade school age—is focused on welcoming moms and giving them fun and interesting topics to discuss and ways to connect. The group meets online on Wednesday evenings, from 8-9 p.m.

Men's Friday Rise Continues

Despite the need for social distancing, many groups and ministries continue to meet online and in other, creative ways. Among them is the weekly men's Rise group which meets online via Zoom from 7-8 a.m. on Friday mornings. They discuss that weekend's scripture readings, opportunities for service, and share aspects of their faith journeys. If you would like more information about joining them, contact Marcus at 832-250-3897 or Brian at 713-560-8412. Newcomers are always welcome!
