Today's Readings Lecturas de Hoy

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/061222.cfm>

JOHN 16:12-15

Reading closely

1. What more do you think Jesus might have wanted to tell his disciples that he didn't say?
2. What all do you think the disciples believed about God's Spirit given their Jewish background?
3. How do you think the disciples imagined the experience of receiving the Spirit?
4. What reservations might the disciples have had about receiving the Spirit?
5. What does this passage reveal about the relationship between God, Jesus, and the Spirit?

Living the word

6. How are the Father, Son, and Spirit one God?
7. How are the Father, Son, and Spirit different?
8. How does the Spirit glorify Jesus today?

Saying goodbye

This passage is part of Jesus' last formal words to his disciples. In this farewell speech, unique to John's Gospel, Jesus tries to prepare his disciples for his arrest and the events that will follow. If Jesus spelled out exactly what was going to happen as well as who he is, his disciples would be too horrified and confused to understand (v.12).

Spirit of truth

People will accuse Jesus' followers of speaking falsely about Jesus' identity and, therefore, of God. Jesus assures his followers that what the Spirit will help them to believe and profess will be true. The Spirit's words are true because he speaks what he hears (v.13), that is, the Spirit speaks what God commands him to speak, just as Jesus did.

The things that are coming

As well as helping the disciples make sense out of what happened to Jesus, the Spirit will help them understand where God is leading them. Ultimately the Spirit enables the followers of Jesus to know God's great love and to discern how best to share this love with others, despite sometimes dangerous opposition.

JUAN 16:12-15

Leyendo de cerca

1. ¿Qué más crees que Jesús podría haber querido decirles a sus discípulos que no dijo?
2. ¿Qué crees que creyeron los discípulos sobre el Espíritu de Dios dado su trasfondo judío?
3. ¿Cómo crees que los discípulos imaginaron la experiencia de recibir el Espíritu?
4. ¿Qué reservas podrían haber tenido los discípulos sobre recibir el Espíritu?
5. ¿Qué revela este pasaje sobre la relación entre Dios, Jesús y el Espíritu?

Viviendo la palabra

6. ¿Cómo son el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu un Dios?
7. ¿Cómo son diferentes el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu?
8. ¿Cómo glorifica el Espíritu a Jesús hoy?

Diciendo adiós

Este pasaje es parte de las últimas palabras formales de Jesús a sus discípulos. En este discurso de despedida, exclusivo del Evangelio de Juan, Jesús trata de preparar a sus discípulos para su arresto y los eventos que seguirán. Si Jesús explicara exactamente lo que iba a suceder y quién es, sus discípulos estarían demasiado horrorizados y confundidos para entender (v.12).

Espíritu de verdad

La gente acusará a los seguidores de Jesús de hablar falsamente sobre la identidad de Jesús y, por lo tanto, de Dios. Jesús asegura a sus seguidores que lo que el Espíritu les ayudará a creer y profesar será cierto. Las palabras del Espíritu son verdaderas porque habla lo que escucha (v.13), es decir, el Espíritu habla lo que Dios le ordena que hable, tal como lo hizo Jesús.

Las cosas que vienen

Además de ayudar a los discípulos a dar sentido a lo que le sucedió a Jesús, el Espíritu les ayudará a comprender hacia dónde los está guiando Dios. En última instancia, el Espíritu permite a los seguidores de Jesús conocer el gran amor de Dios y discernir la mejor manera de compartir este amor con los demás, a pesar de la oposición a veces peligrosa.
