OUR PARISH MISSION

Though diverse in many ways, we are united in glorifying Christ and being of service to our brothers and sisters. Embracing the Holy Spirit, we are drawn more deeply into the love of the family.

NUESTRA MISIÓN PARROQUIAL

Distintos de muchas formas, estamos unidos glorificando a Cristo y sirviendo a nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Recibimos con los brazos abiertos al Espíritu Santo, conforme nos lleva más profundamente al amor de la familia.

Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

As followers of Christ we are a resurrection people and we believe that there is life beyond death. We are all on our way home to God. Yet, moving from life here on earth to our heavenly home can be more peaceful if we prepare for it emotionally, mentally, spiritually and physically.

Día de Todos los Santos Día de la Fiesta 1 de noviembre

En la fiesta de Todos los Santos, honramos a esos hombres y mujeres que ya hayan sido canonizados o no han llevado vidas de virtud heroica que sirven de ejemplo para todos los cristianos.

Los santos son grandes soñadores. Creen que, con Dios a su lado, nadie ni nada puede detenerlos.

Los santos son personas de acción. No esperan a que alguien más haga el bien primero; se lanzan de inmediato a hacerlo.

Los santos son portadores de amor. Intentan ver a Cristo en cada persona y en cada situación. Los santos nos enseñan que lo que más importa en la vida no es lo que ganamos o poseemos, ni el trabajo que tenemos ni las personas que conocemos. Lo que realmente importa es cuánto amamos a Dios, a los demás y a nosotros mismos, y qué tan bien mostramos ese amor en todo lo que hacemos.

All Saints Day Feast day November 1st

On the feast of All Saints, we honor those men and women who—whether they've been canonized or not—have led lives of heroic virtue that set an example for all Christians. Saints are big dreamers. They believe that with God on their side, no one and nothing can stop them. Saints are go-getters. They don't wait for someone else to do good first; they jump right in. Saints are love-bringers. They try to see Christ in every person and every situation. Saints tell us what matters most in life is not what we earn or own, not the job we have or the people we know. What really matters is how much we love God, others, and ourselves, and how well we show that love in all we do.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

What is Spiritual Direction?

The purpose of Spiritual Direction is to grow in holiness and strengthen one's relationship with God. It is an experience of exploration of your spiritual journey while you are being accompanied by a director who helps you become more attentive to God's presence, movement, and action in your life. The real director in the spiritual direction relationship is the Holy Spirit, and it is the responsibility of the directee to become more aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit in their lives.

If you are interested in having spiritual accompaniment, contact a Spiritual Director that serves the St. Paul community from the list below:

DIRECCIÓN ESPIRITUAL

¿Qué es la dirección espiritual?

El propósito de la Dirección Espiritual es crecer en santidad y fortalecer tu relación con Dios. Es una experiencia de explorar tu camino espiritual, acompañado por un director que te ayuda a estar más atento a la presencia, movimiento y la acción de Dios en tu vida. El verdadero director en la relación de dirección espiritual es el Espíritu Santo, y es tu responsabilidad ser más consciente de la presencia del Espíritu Santo en tu vida.

Si estás interesado en ser acompañado, comunícate con un director espiritual que sirve a la comunidad de la Iglesia de San Pablo:

The Principles of Catholic Social Justice

- Dignity of the Human Person: Human life is sacred; each person is made in the image of God. This is the foundation of all Catholic Social Justice teaching.
- The Common Good and Community: To "love your neighbor" has individual and broad social commitments. Everyone has a responsibility to contribute to the common good.
- Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: The moral test of a society is how it treats its most vulnerable members. The poor have the most urgent moral claim on the conscience of a nation.
- Rights and Responsibilities: Every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to the things required for human decency, including food, shelter, clothing, employment, health care, and education. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities. We are called to work globally for Justice.
- Subsidiarity and the Role of Government: The principle of subsidiarity holds that the functions of government should be performed by and at the level as close as possible to and by the people most affected. Only when needs cannot be met adequately is a higher level of government required to provide help for the common good. Authentic development must be full, human development as a requirement for human dignity.
- Economic Justice: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Workers have a right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to safe working conditions, and a right to organize. Rights to economic initiatives and private property have limits. Catholic teaching opposes amassing excessive wealth when others lack the basic necessities of life.
- Stewardship of God's Creation: How we treat the environment is a sign of our respect for our Creator. The goods of the earth are gifts from God and are intended by God for the benefit of everyone. We have a responsibility to care for these goods as stewards, not as consumers.
- Promotion of Peace and Disarmament: Peace is the fruit of justice and is dependent upon right order among human beings. Peace is a positive, action-oriented concept. "Peace is not just the absence of war. It involves mutual respect and confidence between peoples and nations. It involves collaboration and binding agreements." (Pope John Paul II)
