Prayer shawls and lap robes have been made for centuries. They are universal and embracing; they comfort and enfold; wrap and warm; mother and hug; shelter and embrace. Those who knit and receive shawls and robes are blessed.

The power of the prayer shawl is in its physical properties and source of warmth. It feels like a hug and serves as a reminder that people are praying for you and whatever your concern is. There always seems to be someone in need of a shawl, and in the course of making each one you come to feel closer to the person who will receive it. The gift of a prayer shawl enables the recipient to be surrounded by prayer, and is a tangible reminder of God's care and love, encouragement, and inspiration.

Prayer Shawl ministry is not new to St. Paul's, although it has been several years since the ministry has been active.

St. Paul ECP

St. Paul ECP is requesting donations for our childcare/school program. Unlike other parish programs, ECP does not receive funding from DSF or the parish. Our entire operating costs are funded through tuition, fundraising, and donations to our program. These operating costs include expenses such as payroll, activity and learning programs, supplies, teacher fees, training and licensing expenses, etc.

Rising inflation also affects our program. Please prayerfully consider helping us with a donation. You can do this through a designated donation in the weekly collection, through Faith Direct, or by contacting Sheri at 281-333-0176 or szombory@stpaulcatholic.org.

Donations are tax deductible and allow us to continue to enrich the children in our community by expanding their access to education and fun! Thank you so much for helping to support the future by supporting the children of ECP!

The Principles of Catholic Social Justice

- Dignity of the Human Person: Human life is sacred; each person is made in the image of God. This is the foundation of all Catholic Social Justice teaching.
- The Common Good and Community: To "love your neighbor" has individual and broad social commitments. Everyone has a responsibility to contribute to the common good.
- Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: The moral test of a society is how it treats its most vulnerable members. The poor have the most urgent moral claim on the conscience of a nation.
- Rights and Responsibilities: Every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to the things required for human decency, including food, shelter, clothing, employment, health care, and education. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities. We are called to work globally for Justice.
- Subsidiarity and the Role of Government: The principle of subsidiarity holds that the functions of government should be performed by and at the level as close as possible to and by the people most affected. Only when needs cannot be met adequately is a higher level of government required to provide help for the common good. Authentic development must be full, human development as a requirement for human dignity.
- Economic Justice: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Workers have a right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to safe working conditions, and a right to organize. Rights to economic initiatives and private property have limits. Catholic teaching opposes amassing excessive wealth when others lack the basic necessities of life.
- Stewardship of God's Creation: How we treat the environment is a sign of our respect for our Creator. The goods of the earth are gifts from God and are intended by God for the benefit of everyone. We have a responsibility to care for these goods as stewards, not as consumers.
- Promotion of Peace and Disarmament: Peace is the fruit of justice and is dependent upon right order among human beings. Peace is a positive, action-oriented concept. "Peace is not just the absence of war. It involves mutual respect and confidence between peoples and nations. It involves collaboration and binding agreements." (Pope John Paul II)
