St. Paul ECP

St. Paul ECP is requesting donations for our childcare/school program. Unlike other parish programs, ECP does not receive funding from DSF or the parish. Our entire operating costs are funded through tuition, fundraising, and donations to our program. These operating costs include expenses such as payroll, activity and learning programs, supplies, teacher fees, training and licensing expenses, etc.

Rising inflation also affects our program. Please prayerfully consider helping us with a donation. You can do this through a designated donation in the weekly collection, through Faith Direct, or by contacting Sheri at 281-333-0176 or szombory@stpaulcatholic.org.

Donations are tax deductible and allow us to continue to enrich the children in our community by expanding their access to education and fun! Thank you so much for helping to support the future by supporting the children of ECP!

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Meditation Questions:

Why does the Holy Trinity want to exist as three persons in one being?

What does God the Father mean to you?

Antecedentes de la Lectura del Evangelio

El Evangelio de hoy proviene del comienzo del Evangelio de Juan. En el contexto del enfoque de hoy sobre el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad, la lectura llama nuestra atención sobre la acción de Dios, quien se revela en tres personas: Dios Padre, Jesús el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Dios Padre, por amor al mundo, envió a su Hijo al mundo para salvarlo. Por medio de la muerte y resurrección del Hijo, se nos ha dado el don del Espíritu Santo. Como tres personas, Dios actúa siempre como un Dios de amor; no condena al mundo, sino que actúa para salvarlo.

El Evangelio también llama la atención sobre la respuesta que se requiere de nosotros. El amor de Dios por nosotros nos llama a responder con fe, profesando nuestra creencia en el Hijo de Dios, Jesús, y en la salvación que Él ha ganado para nosotros. Esta profesión de fe es un signo de la obra del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas.

Preguntas para la meditación:

¿Por qué la Santísima Trinidad quiere existir como tres personas en un solo ser?

¿Qué significa para ti Dios Padre?

The Most Holy Trinity - May 31, 2026

*"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son."
(John 3:16)*

The Trinity's love calls each of us to respond generously, offering our lives in service and fidelity. In priesthood, this gift is lived out daily through the sacraments, pastoral care, and witnessing Christ's love to the world. Might God be inviting you to follow this path? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office

La Santísima Trinidad - 31 de mayo de 2026

"Porque de tal manera amó Dios al mundo que dio a su Hijo único." (Juan 3:16)

En el sacerdocio, este don se vive a diario a través de los sacramentos, la atención pastoral y el testimonio del amor de Cristo al mundo. ¿Quizás Dios te esté invitando a seguir este camino? Habla con tu sacerdote o comunícate con la Oficina de Vocaciones

The Principles of Catholic Social Justice

- Dignity of the Human Person: Human life is sacred; each person is made in the image of God. This is the foundation of all Catholic Social Justice teaching.
- The Common Good and Community: To "love your neighbor" has individual and broad social commitments. Everyone has a responsibility to contribute to the common good.
- Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: The moral test of a society is how it treats its most vulnerable members. The poor have the most urgent moral claim on the conscience of a nation.
- Rights and Responsibilities: Every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to the things required for human decency, including food, shelter, clothing, employment, health care, and education. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities. We are called to work globally for justice.
- Subsidiarity and the Role of Government: The principle of subsidiarity holds that the functions of government should be performed by and at the level as close as possible to and by the people most affected. Only when needs cannot be met adequately is a higher level of government required to provide help for the common good. Authentic development must be full, human development as a requirement for human dignity.
- Economic Justice: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Workers have a right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to safe working conditions, and a right to organize. Rights to economic initiatives and private property have limits. Catholic teaching opposes amassing excessive wealth when others lack the basic necessities of life.
- Stewardship of God's Creation: How we treat the environment is a sign of our respect for our Creator. The goods of the earth are gifts from God and are intended by God for the benefit of everyone. We have a responsibility to care for these goods as stewards, not as consumers.
- Promotion of Peace and Disarmament: Peace is the fruit of justice and is dependent upon right order among human beings. Peace is a positive, action-oriented concept. "Peace is not just the absence of war. It involves mutual respect and confidence between peoples and nations. It involves collaboration and binding agreements." (Pope John Paul II)
