Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation concerning the difficulties they will face in their mission of proclaiming the kingdom of heaven. Even family members will turn away.

The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure the community and us, we hear encouraging words of Jesus.

In this passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering can not be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

Antecedentes de la Lectura del Evangelio

El Evangelio de hoy ofrece a los discípulos consuelo ante las dificultades que enfrentarán en su misión de proclamar el Reino de los cielos. Incluso algunos miembros de sus propias familias les darán la espalda.

El Evangelio también hace referencia a los peligros y persecuciones que esta comunidad probablemente ya había sufrido y seguiría sufriendo. Para tranquilizar a la comunidad y también a nosotros, escuchamos las palabras alentadoras de Jesús.

En este pasaje, Jesús puede entenderse como alguien que pone el sufrimiento en perspectiva. Los discípulos de Jesús están llamados a mantener su atención fija en Dios. Quienes pueden dañar el cuerpo no tienen el poder supremo; Dios sí lo tiene.

Sin embargo, la persecución y el sufrimiento no siempre pueden evitarse ni prevenirse. Pero Jesús tranquiliza a sus discípulos asegurándoles que Dios conoce y se preocupa por todo lo que les sucede a sus hijos.

Duodécimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

21 de junio de 2026

"No teman; ustedes valen más que muchos gorriones."

(Mateo 10:31)

El santo matrimonio llama a los esposos a poner a Cristo en el centro de sus vidas y a reflejar su amor cuidándose y sirviéndose mutuamente. ¿Podría Dios estar invitándolos a esta vocación de amor fiel y abnegación? Si es así, busquen la guía de una pareja que admiren y preguntenles cómo viven su compromiso mutuo y con Cristo.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 21, 2026

"Do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows."

(Matthew 10:31)

Holy matrimony calls spouses to place Christ at the center of their lives and to reflect His love by cherishing and serving one another. Could God be inviting you to this vocation of faithful love and self-sacrifice? If so, seek guidance from a married couple you admire and ask how they live out their commitment to each other and to Christ.

St. Paul ECP

St. Paul ECP is requesting donations for our childcare/school program. Unlike other parish programs, ECP does not receive funding from DSF or the parish. Our entire operating costs are funded through tuition, fundraising, and donations to our program. These operating costs include expenses such as payroll, activity and learning programs, supplies, teacher fees, training and licensing expenses, etc.

Rising inflation also affects our program. Please prayerfully consider helping us with a donation. You can do this through a designated donation in the weekly collection, through Faith Direct, or by contacting Sheri at 281-333-0176 or szombory@stpaulcatholic.org.

Donations are tax deductible and allow us to continue to enrich the children in our community by expanding their access to education and fun! Thank you so much for helping to support the future by supporting the children of ECP!

The Principles of Catholic Social Justice

- Dignity of the Human Person: Human life is sacred; each person is made in the image of God. This is the foundation of all Catholic Social Justice teaching.
- The Common Good and Community: To "love your neighbor" has individual and broad social commitments. Everyone has a responsibility to contribute to the common good.
- Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: The moral test of a society is how it treats its most vulnerable members. The poor have the most urgent moral claim on the conscience of a nation.
- Rights and Responsibilities: Every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to the things required for human decency, including food, shelter, clothing, employment, health care, and education. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities. We are called to work globally for justice.
- Subsidiarity and the Role of Government: The principle of subsidiarity holds that the functions of government should be performed by and at the level as close as possible to and by the people most affected. Only when needs cannot be met adequately is a higher level of government required to provide help for the common good. Authentic development must be full, human development as a requirement for human dignity.
- Economic Justice: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Workers have a right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to safe working conditions, and a right to organize. Rights to economic initiatives and private property have limits. Catholic teaching opposes amassing excessive wealth when others lack the basic necessities of life.
- Stewardship of God's Creation: How we treat the environment is a sign of our respect for our Creator. The goods of the earth are gifts from God and are intended by God for the benefit of everyone. We have a responsibility to care for these goods as stewards, not as consumers.
- Promotion of Peace and Disarmament: Peace is the fruit of justice and is dependent upon right order among human beings. Peace is a positive, action-oriented concept. "Peace is not just the absence of war. It involves mutual respect and confidence between peoples and nations. It involves collaboration and binding agreements." (Pope John Paul II)
