We had around 39 kids attending VBS. Everyday they had a lesson about the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, St. Margaret Mary, the 12 promises for those who venerate the heart of Jesus and the Saints. The kids made their own snacks, played games, sang songs and made crafts. A big thank you to Jennifer Hoeing, Hannah Leon, Jacki Frazier and Deacon Clawson for helping manage the stations. Anthony Spaeth, Alexis Fenimore, Clara Kemple, Catherine Neuman, Emily Spaeth and Eduardo Quintana did an amazing job guiding the kids and coming early to prepare the school to receive the kids and staying late to clean up. What a great group of young people! Thank you! Amaranta Kemple

Thank You! On behalf of the funeral committee, we would like to thank all those who have volunteered to prepare food or to help with future funeral dinners. The response was very much appreciated. God Bless, Cindy Sickbert and MaryAnn Harpring

June 27, 2021 - 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together. ©LPi

The Archdiocese of Indianapolis has lifted the Dispensation from the Obligation of Mass, effective June 11, 2021. Except for the unique situations as described below, those who are otherwise healthy are obligated to return to Sunday Mass.

- Those who have comprised health conditions and/or at high risk of contracting the Covid virus.
- Those who are caretakers of persons who are sick or of persons at high-risk of serious illness if they contract the Covid virus.
