4th Sunday of Lent

"Rejoice, Jerusalem! Be glad for her, you who love her; rejoice with her, you who mourned for her, and you will find contentment at her consoling breasts." This Sunday is known as Laetare Sunday and is a Sunday of joy. Lent is half over, and Easter is enticingly near.

This Sunday was formerly called "Laetare Sunday" since its mood and theme was one of hope and rejoicing that Easter was near. In the reformed calendar this Sunday is not different from the other Sundays of Lent even though the entrance antiphon for the day still begins with the Latin word "laetare" and the vestments worn by the celebrant are rose-colored, not violet. The day is important because it is the day of the second scrutiny in preparation for the baptism of adults at the Easter Vigil.

Congratulations to Shawn Fryer for receiving the St. George Medal from the Catholic Committee on Scouting!

When we arrive at dilemmas in life and are unable to decipher the right direction to go, if we hope to maintain our joy in the process, we must (repeat must) allow the Lord to be our Guide, our Strength, our Wisdom—our all!

If you are the super-responsible, I-can-handle-it individual who tends to be in-tense and impatient, letting go and letting God take charge will be one of life's most incredible challenges. But I urge you, do it! Force yourself to trust Another who is far more capable and intelligent and responsible than you.

*Our God forever and ever . . .
Will guide us until death.
Psalm 48:14*

Confirmation Preparation

In preparation for the confirmation candidates day of reflection I am reaching out to the parish in search of the following items: an old television (rabbit ear style) that still works, it does not have to get channels it just has to make static; Several pieces or one large piece of heavy rope (the style used for docking large boats); a pair of worn out or heavily used leather sandals; and a larger mirror (2x3), framed or not framed does not matter. If you are able to help with these items please drop them by the parish office with your name and contact number attached to the item or contact Jane Fryer at 528-2810 for pick up. We will be needing them by Sunday, April 3rd.
