If you know anyone that is interested in learning about the Catholic faith, RCIA classes will begin in September. For more information, please contact Dorothy Smith @ 606-524-5087. Also, we would like to have families that are interested in sponsoring individuals throughout the RCIA program. A sponsoring family will help support those individuals going through the class and help them engage in our Catholic community of Sacred Heart. If interested, please contact Dorothy Smith or Deacon Kurt @ 606-304-1405.

PALM SUNDAY REFLECTION!

The Church celebrates this Sixth Sunday in Lent as both Palm Sunday and Passion Sunday. It is on Palm Sunday that we enter Holy Week, welcoming Jesus into our lives and asking Him to allow us a share in His suffering, death and Resurrection. This is the time of the year when we stop to remember and relive the events which brought about our redemption and salvation. The Holy Week liturgies present us with the actual events of the dying and rising of Jesus.

These liturgies enable us to experience in our lives here and now what Jesus went through then. In other words, what we commemorate and relive during this week is not just Jesus' dying and rising, but our own dying and rising in Him, which result in our healing, reconciliation, and redemption. Just as Jesus did, we, too, must lay down our lives freely by actively participating in the Holy Week liturgies. In doing so, we are allowing Jesus to forgive us our sins, heal the wounds in us caused by our sins and the sins of others and transform us more completely into the image and likeness of God. In this way, we will be able to live more fully the Divine life we received at Baptism.

Attentive participation in the Holy Week liturgies will also deepen our relationship with God, increase our Faith and strengthen our lives as disciples of Jesus. But let us remember that Holy Week can become "holy" for us only if we actively and consciously take part in the liturgies of this week. During this week of the Passion -- passionate suffering, passionate grace, passionate love and passionate forgiving -- each of us is called to remember the Christ of Calvary and then to embrace and lighten the burden of the Christ Whose passion continues to be experienced in the hungry, the poor, the sick, the homeless, the aged, the lonely and the outcast.

Today's liturgy combines two contrasting moments, one of glory, the other of suffering - the welcome of Jesus into Jerusalem and the drama of His trial which ends in His crucifixion and death.

Today's liturgy combines two contrasting moments, one of glory, the other of suffering - the welcome of Jesus into Jerusalem and the drama of His trial which ends in His crucifixion and death.

The crowds greeted Jesus' entry into Jerusalem with joyful enthusiasm. A few days later some of those people were undoubtedly part of the hate-filled crowd screaming "CRUCIFY HIM!" How can something so wonderful take such an ugly turn? How does that happen in our world, lives, and hearts? How can it get so bad so quickly?

It isn't easy to be a hero, or to stand alone. It isn't easy to do what's right when doing what's right isn't popular. It's easier to go along with the crowd. When they shout, "Hosanna", we shout "Hosanna!" When they scream, "Crucify him", we scream "Crucify him!" The history of the Church, from Jesus to the present moment, is filled with the witness of saints and martyrs who didn't accept the social and personal sins of their times as just "the way things are" but instead followed the way of Jesus, even knowing it was the way of the cross. Sadly, many of us are too easily swept into the fear and hatred of the crowd, and willing to unleash our wrath on the most convenient innocent victim.

Jesus, the Suffering Servant, who came to speak a word to the weary, who did not shield his face from buffets and spitting, who emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, who was obedient unto death—this is our Lord, who we are to follow no matter where he leads, no matter how difficult the path. Let us rejoice and sing as Jesus comes into our life today. Let us also weep and mourn as His death confronts us with our sin.

During this Holy Week, let us prayerfully remember all who will receive their first communion, baptism and reception into the full communion with the Catholic Church.

God is good - All the time!

All the time - God is good!
