LENTEN REFLECTION.

Lent is an exceptional time for conversion, to become more attentive to the cry of the poor as well as that of the planet itself, our common home. We are always in need of growth and Lent is the time to rededicate ourselves to grow in Christ.

As Pope Francis reminds us: “The human person grows more, matures more, is sanctified more to the extent that he or she enters into relationships, going out from themselves to live in communion with God, with others and with all creatures” (Laudato Si, 240).

We are not yet all that we are called to be. Lent provides the opportunity to fix our GPS firmly on Jesus, to make it ever more clear toward what we are drawn. Now is the time to become more identified with Jesus and the lifestyle of the reign He inaugurated. It's so easy to get distracted while we journey along the way, to begin to think that the things we do achieve our salvation. Lent reminds us that salvation is a gift, for which we can demonstrate our gratitude but never earn, deserve, or merit.

Our Lenten practices have much less to do with what we are “giving up” than with what we choose to share. We share as we have been shared with—going out of ourselves to enter into greater communion with nature, with others, with God. Communion is not one-sided, but mutual. It's less about doing for others than doing with others. It's growing together.

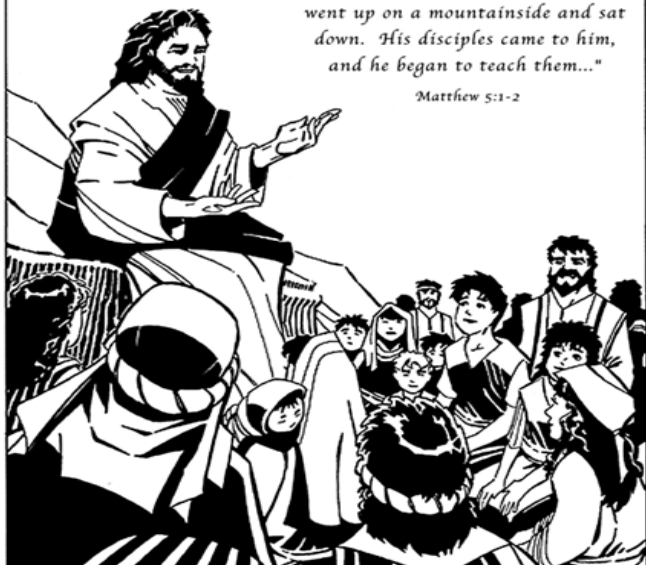

Lent is a time to confront our weaknesses, acknowledge our need for God's mercy, and surrender ourselves to His transformative love. It is a pilgrimage of the soul, a journey of the spirit toward repentance and humility. Let us use this time to detach ourselves from worldly distractions, creating space for prayer and contemplation as we find new hope in the coming passion of our Lord.

Second Sunday of Lent

"Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them..."

Matthew 5:1-2

LENT 2024

2nd Sunday of Lent

God of purpose and grace,
fill us with a longing
for the life
you created for us.
Give us strength to endure suffering
and difficulties,
and joy in the midst of them.
Help us to walk in your way
and to seek your mercy
when we stumble.
Amen.
