Reflection

Prayer: Jesus, you gave us Mary to be our Mother shortly before you died on the cross. (Jn 19:26-27.) Let Mary teach me the heard facts and sublime joys of the cross.

Promise: "This is how all will know you for my disciples: your love for one another. Jn 13:35

Praise: "Rejoice always!" (1Thes 5:16) "He has been raised up!" (Lk 24:6) Thank you, Jesus!

Prayer for a Child's First Communion

Lord Jesus,

Bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time.

May this day be an initial step into a life-long love of the Eucharist.

Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship.

Thank you for their innocence and goodness.

May their hands, extended in anticipation of your Body and Blood, inspire all of us to cherish this sacred sacrament.

God is Good All the Time
All the Time God is Good

The fifth Sunday of Easter Year C focuses on the growth of the early Church and Jesus' command to love one another. These readings highlight the importance of faith, community, and the promise of a new heaven and earth.

The lesson focuses on Jesus' new commandment to love one another. Love is not just an emotion, but a choice and action. It means being patient, kind, forgiving, and wanting the best for others, just as Jesus loved us. This type of love often requires sacrifice and putting other's needs before our own. By loving this way, we show we are true disciples of Christ. The themes of the readings encourage us to live out our faith in practical ways. They remind us of the importance of love, community, and the hope we have in God's promises.

- Spreading the Gospel: Acts 14:21-27 shows Paul and Barnabas spreading the good news. This theme emphasizes the importance of sharing our faith with others.
- Endurance in Faith: Paul and Barnabas encourage believers to remain true to the faith despite hardships. This reminds us to stay strong in our faith through difficulties.
- New Creation: Revelation 21:1-5A— speaks of new Heaven and a new earth. This theme assures us of God's promise to make all things new.
- God's Presence: In In Revelation, God dwells with his people. This theme highlights the closeness of God and His presence in our lives.

- Love One Another: John 13:34-35 emphasizes Jesus' command to love one another. This theme is central to Christian life and shows how we should treat others.
- Glorifying God: Jesus speaks of being glorified in John 12:31-33A. This theme teaches us to honor God in all we do.
- Community Support: The early Church supported each other as seen in Acts. This theme reminds us to help and support one another in our faith journeys.

As we come to the table of the Lord to receive his body and blood, may we receive the grace and strength to live and love the way He has asked us to. Jesus loved even when He was tired. Jesus loved even when he was overworked. Jesus loved even when they didn't love them back. Jesus loved those who disagreed with Him. Jesus loved those who were different from Him. Jesus loves even when WE don't love Him back. To love this way is hard. To love this way is painful. To love this way is will feel like we are dying, and yet that is what we are called to do. Yet, it was loving this way that took Jesus right through the cross to the resurrection. It is no wonder that He wanted us to remember this, and live the same way he did. St. Paul says if we die with Christ we rise with Christ.

He has shown us the way. He has offered the pathway to peace, and now He leaves us the voice mail he wants us never to forget: "I love you...Love one another...Do this in memory of me."
