Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reflection for 6th Sunday of Easter Year C

The 6th Sunday of Easter Year C brings us closer to the heart of the early Church's journey. It invites us to reflect on key themes from the Mass readings and consider how they apply to our lives

- Unity in Faith: The first reading for the 6th Sunday of Easter Year C, Acts 15:1-2, 22-29, provides insight into the early Church's challenges and growth. The passage focuses on the First Council of Jerusalem, where Church leaders, including Peter and James, decided that Gentile believers should not be required to follow the Mosaic law. This decision was important for the spread of Christianity beyond Jewish communities. It highlights the importance of unity and inclusion in the Church. Understanding this context helps us appreciate the early Church's efforts to build a diverse and unified community.

- Guidance of the Holy Spirit: The Holy Spirit helps guide the decisions of the apostles in Acts 15:28. We see how the Holy Spirit still guides the Church today. The reading encourages us to listen to God's voice, not just in scripture and tradition, but also in the voices of the poor and marginalized. We must be open to the promptings and whisperings of the Holy Spirit within us, allowing him to guide our actions and decisions. The readings remind us that we are not alone in our journey, but that God is with us through the Holy Spirit, offering comfort, guidance, and peace.

- New Jerusalem: The second reading describes the vision of the New Jerusalem. It represents the hope and promise of a future with God.
- God's Presence: In Revelation 21:22-23, we learn there is no need for a temple because God's presence is everywhere. This shows us that God is always with us.
- Obedience to Jesus: The Gospel speaks about keeping Jesus' word as a sign of love. Obeying Jesus' teachings brings us closer to Him. Jesus states that those who love him will keep his words, and the Father will love them and make his home with them. This highlights the connection between love, obedience, and the Father's presence in our lives.
- Gift of Peace: Jesus promises peace in John 14:27. This peace is different from what the world offers and calms our hearts. The peace that Christ offers, a peace that is not shaken by troubles because it is rooted in God's unchanging love.

The role of the Holy Spirit didn't end with the apostles. The Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church, offering wisdom and support to leaders and believers alike. This presence helps the Church remain faithful to the mission of Christ, even in challenging times. The decisions made by the Church are influenced by the Holy Spirit, ensuring they align with God's will.

As we celebrate the 6th Sunday of Easter Year C, we are reminded to seek the Holy Spirit's guidance in our own lives. By opening our hearts to the Holy Spirit, we can find the strength and wisdom needed to make good decisions. Let us trust in the Holy Spirit to lead us, just as it led the apostles, and continue to guide the Church in truth and unity.
