Teach us to be true Christ bearers to those who do not know him.

Protect us all as we travel through this world on our pilgrimage back to the Father.

All praise and glory be to God most holy, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

*The family of Andy Thaler would like to say thank you to everyone who prayed, texted, visited the hospital, or came to his visitation and beautiful funeral mass. Thank you to Father Damian, Kevin Meece and the choir, Jane Fox and Judy Jones for serving and doing the lector. ## Seventh Sunday of Easter

Quote:

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.” Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away. Acts 6:1–12

Reflection: The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord commemorates the fortieth day after the Resurrection and the completion of Jesus’ earthly mission, when Jesus ascended body and soul into Heaven and took His seat at the right hand of His Father. Traditionally, the location of the Ascension is believed to be less than a mile east of the Old City of Jerusalem, and that spot is marked by the Chapel of the Ascension, which is said to contain a miraculous imprint of the footprints of Christ before He ascended. The event of the Ascension is found in the Gospels and Acts (Mark 16:19–20, Luke 24:50–53, Acts 1:6–12. It is also alluded to in various other passages (John 6:62, Ephesians 4:7–10, 1 Timothy 3:16, 1 Peter 3:21–22)

The Ascension of the Lord is not just about Jesus returning to the Father. It is also about the promise He makes to His disciples. He tells them that the Holy Spirit will come to give them strength. This Spirit will help them spread the Gospel to all nations. Jesus' words give them hope and prepare them for the mission ahead. The apostles may have felt uncertain as they watched Jesus ascend. He had been their teacher and leader, and now He was leaving. But He reassured them that they would not be alone. He told them to wait for the Holy Spirit, who would guide and empower them. Their trust in His promise shows the importance of faith and patience.

The Ascension of the Lord also reminds believers that they are called to continue Jesus' mission. Just as the apostles were sent out, all followers of Christ are sent to share His message. The Holy Spirit gives the strength and wisdom needed for this task. Those who trust in God's promise will find the courage to live out their faith.

Though every aspect of Christ's life is shrouded in mysteries which will only be fully understood by the faithful when they stand before Him and behold the Beatific Vision, today we especially ponder this beautiful and profound mystery of our faith. As we celebrate the Ascension, try to prayerfully meditate upon the perfect unity of Jesus' human and divine natures. Ponder further the truth that because the Son of God is both God and man, and He beholds His Father and the Holy Spirit as both God and man, He invites each of us to begin to share in that glorious vision. Only after we fully die in and with Him and rise to new life in and with Him will we be able to know Him clearly and share in His glorious resurrected and ascended life. Until that moment comes, it's important to ponder that which is incomprehensible. We must know that we do not know, believe what is beyond belief, hope in that which is more than we can understand. God is a mystery; the Ascension is a mystery—but they are mysteries that must be penetrated by prayer. Do so today as we commemorate this holy culmination of the earthly life and mission of Christ.

Prayer: My Ascended Lord, forty days after You rose from the dead You ascended to the right hand of the Father in Heaven, taking up Your throne from which You pour forth both judgment and mercy. As we honor this great mystery of Your divine and human life, I beg for mercy upon me and upon the whole world. Free us from all sin, and open the flood-gates of Your mercy so that all people will share one day, body and soul, in the glory of Your Beatific Vision. Jesus, I trust in You.
