God is Good All the Time
All the Time God is Good

Quote:

Once, being before the Blessed Sacrament and having a little more leisure than usual, I felt wholly filled with this Divine Presence, and so powerfully moved by it that I forgot myself and the place in which I was. I abandoned myself to this Divine Spirit, and yielded my heart to the power of His love, He made me rest for a long time on His divine breast, where He discovered to me the wonders of His love and the inexplicable secrets of His Sacred Heart, which He had hitherto kept hidden from me. Now He opened it to me for the first time, but in a way so real, so sensible, that it left me no room to doubt, though I am always in dread of deceiving myself.

~Vision of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

The Feast of the Sacred Heart, celebrated 19 days after Pentecost, is a feast day that commemorates the love of Jesus Christ for humanity, as symbolized by His heart. This devotion, rooted in the belief of God's boundless and passionate love, emphasizes Jesus' sacrifice for humanity's salvation and invites a response of love and devotion. It is a time to reflect on Jesus' boundless love, mercy, and compassion, and to consider how we can reciprocate that love in our own lives.

The central message of the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the infinite and compassionate love exploding from the Heart of Jesus for all mankind. It emphasizes our Lord's sacred Sacrifice for our salvation and invites us to respond to His love. The Sacred Heart also calls us to make reparation for sins, especially human indifference and ingratitude toward Him. The nature of our Lord's love is that it cannot be contained within His Heart and necessarily bursts forth. When His love is received, He is consoled. When it is ignored, the love in His Heart expands and waits to gush forth in superabundance upon anyone who is willing to receive it.

Key Aspects of the Feast:

- Symbolism of the Heart:

The heart of Jesus is a powerful symbol of God's love, both divine and human, and His willingness to sacrifice for humanity. It represents the core of Christ's message: to love God and love your neighbor.

Jesus' Love and Sacrifice:

The devotion highlights Jesus' immense love for humanity, which led Him to offer Himself on the cross for our salvation. The feast encourages reflection on His sacrifice and the cost of that love.

Call to Love and Reparation:

The Sacred Heart devotion also calls for acts of reparation for sins and offenses against God, particularly human indifference and ingratitude. It encourages a response of love, gratitude, and devotion from believers.

- Focus on Mercy:

In contrast to distorted views that focus solely on God's punishment, the Sacred Heart devotion emphasizes God's mercy and compassion, inviting us to turn to Him with trust and hope.

- Personal Transformation:

The devotion encourages a personal transformation, inviting us to open our hearts to God's love and to love others as Jesus loved us.

Jesus also made twelve promises to those who would honor the Sacred Heart:

I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life. I will establish peace in their families. I will console them in all their troubles. They shall find in My Heart an assured refuge during life and especially at the hour of their death. I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings. Sinners shall find in My Heart the source of an infinite ocean of mercy. Tepid souls shall become fervent. Fervent souls shall speedily rise to great perfection. I will bless the homes where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored. I will give to priests the power of touching the most hardened hearts. Those who propagate this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, never to be effaced. The all-powerful love of My Heart will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under my displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments; My heart shall be their assured refuge at that last hour.

As we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus, ponder the fact that Jesus' love must pour forth from His Heart. He needs willing recipients to receive that love. Console His heart by being one of those recipients and by loving Him in return. Doing so will win countless graces for you and for the whole world.

Prayer: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I love You, adore You, and desire to lay my head upon Your Sacred Heart so that the outpouring of Your love will be received and You will be loved all the more. I beg pardon for every sacrilege, indifference, and rejection You encounter and pray that I can make reparation to You. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I especially beg pardon for my sins and pray that my sins all be consumed by the fire of Your love. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
