PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Parish Family of Sacred Heart, are a vibrant Catholic community called by God, guided by the Holy Spirit, to continue the mission of Jesus, celebrate the Holy Eucharist and Sacraments and remain faithful to the Magisterium. As good stewards, we work to promote life, show love through prayer and service and be the light of Christ in our world.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Malachi 3:19-20a, Thessalonians 3:7-12, Luke 21:5–19

“By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” (Luke 21:19)

In today’s Gospel, Jesus speaks of the destruction of the Temple — a shocking image for His listeners. The Temple was the center of Jewish life, a symbol of God’s presence and strength. Yet, Jesus reminds them — and us — that no earthly beauty or power lasts forever. “All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone.” This is not a message of fear, but of faith. Jesus isn’t warning us about the end of the world; He is teaching us how to live in the world without losing hope when things fall apart.

A little boy once built a sandcastle at the beach. He spent hours perfecting it, only to watch the tide wash it away. He looked sad for a moment, then smiled and began building again. When someone asked him why, he said, “The sea can take my castle, but not my joy.” That’s the heart of Jesus’ message today. When the “tides” of life come — illness, loss, betrayal, or change — our faith reminds us that God is not found in the castle but in the heart that keeps building with hope. Saint Augustine said, “Our hearts are restless until they rest in You, O Lord.” When everything else collapses, the soul anchored in God remains unshaken. Jesus tells His disciples that they will face persecution and rejection, even from those closest to them. Yet He also promises, “Not a hair of your head will perish” (Luke 21:18). It means that no suffering is wasted when it’s offered in faith. God keeps count of every tear and turns even pain into grace. Jesus’ final words in this Gospel are the key: “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.”

Faith isn’t proven in comfort, but in perseverance — the quiet decision to trust God one more time when we feel like giving up. There’s a story of a missionary priest who worked for years in a remote village and saw almost no visible results. Discouraged, he wrote in his diary, “Nothing seems to change.” But many years later, after his death, that same village became the heart of a thriving Catholic community. Seeds of faith often grow underground before they bloom.

St. Francis de Sales once said, “Have patience with all things, but first of all with yourself.” That’s holy perseverance — patient endurance rooted in love. When Jesus spoke of the temple’s destruction, He was also pointing to Himself — the new and living Temple. “You are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you” (1 Cor 3:16). What matters most is not the building of stone, but the faith built within. We are called to build that inner temple daily — through prayer, forgiveness, and acts of love. These are the stones that endure forever.

Dear friends, the world will always have its storms, but Christ reminds us: “Stand firm and you will win life.”

When we hold fast to Jesus — through confusion, loss, and change — we find the peace that the world cannot give. Jesus Loves You!

Angel Tree Christmas Outreach

Our Angel Tree is up in the lobby of the church and covered in angels for 65 children from our community. Each child has 2 angels, one lists a clothing item or needed item and one lists a fun, wanted item. Please have items turned in no later than Wednesday, December 10 and make sure to include the angel with the item submitted so we can ensure it goes to the correct child. Thank you for continued generosity!!

Volunteers needed for a Parish Christmas Play!!

As we prepare to celebrate the joyous season of our Savior's birth, Fr. Antony invites parishioners to take part in an inaugural Christmas play. We will need volunteers of all ages to assist both on stage and behind the scenes — director, narrator, actors, singers, set decorators, costume helpers and stage assistants are all appreciated. No prior experience is necessary — only a willing heart and a desire to share the joy of Christmas with our parish family. Rehearsals will begin soon, and the program is tentatively to be presented the weekend before Christmas.

One Minute Meditations

St. Albert the Great

Possibly one of the Church's greatest intellectuals, St. Albert was the eldest son of a powerful German military official. Despite opposition from his family, he joined the Dominican Order. Being well educated, St. Albert desired to make all the learning of the East available to the Latin-speaking West. He earned his doctorate at the University of Paris in 1245 and taught at Paris and Cologne. He is best known as the master of St. Thomas Aquinas.

Praying for the dead

Catholics see Purgatory as an expression of God's mercy — a place where souls who die in His grace, but need further purification, are prepared for Heaven. This month, we pray for our departed loved ones, asking God to bring them quickly into His presence.

One tradition is to request a Mass on the anniversary of a loved one's death. If that soul is already in Heaven, the graces benefit others still in need. In God's mercy, nothing is ever wasted.

"Forgiveness comes...through the soul's desire to be united to me [i.e., to God], the infinite Good, according to the measure of love attained by the recipient's desire and prayer. A person receives as much of my goodness as he gives to me." St. Catherine of Siena, The Dialogue

Christ as King of our hearts

When we proclaim, "Christ is King," we're not making a poetic or symbolic statement. We're declaring a truth that shapes every part of our lives. To live under Christ's rule is to give Him authority over what we believe, how we worship, how we act, and how we spend our time.

What we believe: At the center of our faith is a relationship. Knowing Jesus personally — through the Gospels, through prayer, through the lives of the saints — transforms abstract belief into living faith. When someone asks, "Why are you Catholic?" our answer should come from experience, not just theology.

How we worship: Imagine a king hosting a free, lavish banquet every week for all his subjects. Every Sunday, we're invited to a banquet — not of food, but of grace. To say, "Christ is King" is to obey His words: "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). The Mass is not just a weekly routine; it's a divine encounter.

How we act: Our actions, especially the small ones, speak volumes. Reverence, patience, honesty, integrity,

"You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth."
John 18:37

and generosity are everyday ways of making Christ visible through us. These aren't just virtues — they're signs of loyalty to our true King.

How we spend our time: Daily prayer proclaims that Christ reigns not only over Sunday, but over our entire lives. Whether prayer feels powerful or dry, it anchors us in Him. No time given to Christ is ever wasted.

To say "Christ is King" is to surrender everything to Him. It's a declaration that He reigns not just in Heaven, but here, now, in us.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why does the Church offer indulgences?

An indulgence is "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This "temporal punishment" refers to the purification the soul undergoes before entering Heaven.

The power of indulgences flows from Christ's sacrifice and is applied through the merits of the saints and prayers of the Church. Indulgences are not shortcuts to Heaven or "free passes"; they require repentance and conversion of heart.

To obtain an indulgence, conditions must be met: sacramental Confession, reception of Holy Communion, prayer for the Holy Father's intentions, and performance of the indulgenced act.
