GOVERNANCE AND GOAL SETTING WORKSHOP | JANUARY 13, 2026

10:00am - 3:00pm
St. Joseph, Hayward

This workshop is being led by the Office of Parish Transformation and will include a review of the parish finance and pastoral council articles and by-laws as well as an introduction to Appreciative Inquiry as a process for strategic planning and goal setting. There will be an option to attend this workshop either in-person or virtually. To register for this workshop please contact Andrew Kreye at akreye@catholicdos.org.

ANNUAL CEMETERY & COLUMBARIUM CERTIFICATION REPORT

The State of Wisconsin mandates that each cemetery establishes and maintains a Perpetual Care Fund for the future upkeep of parish cemeteries. The Chancery office will report to the State on behalf of all parishes. This year the state-required report covers cemetery activity between January 1st and December 31st, 2025. The Chancery office will report to the State on behalf of all parishes, based on your completed form. If your parish has a cemetery and/or stand-alone columbarium (NOT in the cemetery), a 2025 Cemetery Certification Request form must be completed. All forms must be completed and returned no later than February 6th, 2026.

An instructional webinar was held December 10th in an effort to answer topical questions and concerns regarding the Cemetery reporting process and completing the form. If you were unable to attend, all instructional materials including the slide deck, account listing, and recording can be found at: <https://catholicdos.org/webinars>. To view only the video go to: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C9EpO8ljwJo>. The form and instructions will arrive very soon.

ANNUAL STATUS ANIMARUM QUESTIONNAIRE

Considering Diocesan needs when moving forward, “looking back” in the form of the Status Animarum Questionnaire (SAQ) is beneficial and necessary. Please watch for forthcoming January email regarding updating your Parish contact information for the person responsible for completing this important annual task, SAQ instructions, and login information to complete of this annual survey online.

USCCB OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS SPECIAL MESSAGE ON IMMIGRATION

BALTIMORE. November 12, 2025 – As the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) gathered for their Fall Plenary Assembly in Baltimore, the bishops issued a Special Message addressing their concern for the evolving situation impacting immigrants in the United States. It marked the first time in twelve years the USCCB invoked this particularly urgent way of speaking as a body of bishops. The last one issued in 2013 was in response to the federal government’s contraceptive mandate.

Under the regulations pertaining to statements and publications of the Conference, a "Special Message" may only be issued at plenary assemblies, and they are statements which the President of the Conference, the Administrative Committee, or the general membership consider to be appropriate in view of the circumstances at the time. To show the consensus of the body, a Special Message must receive two-thirds of the Conference members present and voting at the plenary in order to pass. In a vote of 216 votes in favor, 5 votes against, and 3 abstentions, the bishops overwhelmingly approved the Special Message, with sustained applause of the body following the vote.

The full text of the bishops' Special Pastoral Message follows:

As the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30-37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26). You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint! (cf. Romans 5:5)

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

Joy is a net of love by which we catch souls. -Mother Teresa

"LIFE: OUR SIGN OF HOPE" - ANNUAL YOUTH ESSAY CONTEST

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life Activities annually selects a theme highlighting the dignity of each person and respect for his or her life. The October 2025 – September 2026 theme is Life: Our Sign of Hope, highlighting our baptism, where we share in the life of Jesus, and our hope for eternal life.

In conjunction with this theme, the Diocese of Superior Respect Life Committee annually holds a pro-life youth contest, endeavoring to:

1. Help young people deepen their understanding of our God-given human dignity and what it means for our daily lives and decisions, particularly within the context of respect for human life, and

The contest is intended for use across multiple age ranges and disciplines. Youth in grades 5-12 are eligible to enter. Contestant entries can be in essay or poem format. Please encourage your parish youth to participate in this initiative and engage them in the Catholic faith, help them grow in their relationship with Christ, and provide them an opportunity to bear faithful witness in our local community. VATICAN UNVEILED® COMING TO MALL OF AMERICA | JANUARY 10 - FEBRUARY 1

SAINT PAUL, MN - While we wait and hope Pope Leo XIV will return to the Twin Cities – where he studied as a seminarian in the early 1980s – we know that 250-300 items from previous popes, saints and others are coming here this winter.

In celebration of the 175th anniversary of the Catholic Church in Minnesota, the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is hosting Vatican Unveiled, an exhibit of the largest collection of papal artifacts outside of Rome. Father Richard Kunst, a priest of the Diocese of Duluth, serves as curator of the exhibit. Father Kunst has a deep knowledge of the items and a passion for telling their stories.

This unique, historical collection will be hosted daily at Mall of America from January 10th – February 1st, 2026. Some of the items will include a document with the second oldest papal signature outside of the Vatican and a Swiss Guard uniform from the time of Pius X so rare that the Swiss Guard asked to borrow it for their own exhibit.

The 19,000 square foot exhibit is open and welcoming to all, as people will experience interesting historical perspectives, artistic items with old-world craftsmanship, and papal artifacts that show the humanity behind the leaders.

News gatherers, content creators and show hosts are encouraged to tour Vatican Unveiled and speak with Father Kunst and Archbishop Bernard Hebda when each is available, as well as willing attendees. We are confident your readers, viewers and listeners will be interested in the educational and spiritual opportunities an exhibit like this presents.

Media day – with live broadcast opportunities starting very early in the morning – will be Friday, January 9th. You may find more details about the exhibit on the Archdiocese's Vatican Unveiled website, along with this media kit and special promotional video from Archbishop Hebda. Archbishop Hebda and the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis look forward to hosting you and your viewers, listeners and readers.

About Father Richard Kunst: Originally from Duluth, Minnesota, Father Richard Kunst was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Duluth in 1998. Prior to ordination, he worked in the political realm as a staff member for U.S. Senator Rod Grams of Minnesota. As a priest, Father Kunst juggles parish assignments as well as diocesan duties, including columnist for The Northern Cross and oversight of initial phases of the sainthood cause of Monsignor Joseph Buh. Father Kunst has a deep love for Church history as can be seen in the collection of papal and other artifacts he has curated.

2025-2026 DIOCESAN CALENDAR OF FEASTS, FASTS AND PARTICULAR LITURGICAL OBSERVANCES

catholicdos.org/liturgical-seasons: Call the Office of Worship at (715) 394-0233 for paper copies.

NEW TRANSLATION OF RITUAL BOOK:Order of the Anointing of the Sick and their Pastoral Care

This newly translated text will replace the Anointing ritual that has been in use since the early 1980's, Pastoral Care of the Sick: Rites of Anointing and Viaticum. Besides the newly translated texts, the structure of the ritual book has changed. The ritual from the 1980's was arranged in a manner suitable for use by both clergy and lay ministers. The new ritual text will be only for use by Priests and Deacons. However, as the implementation date approaches, the USCCB will ensure that non-ordained ministers continue to have access to those texts which they use in ministry to the sick and homebound. The newly translated rite may begin to be used as of February 11th, 2026 (the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes). Its use is obligatory as of April 5th, 2026 (Easter Sunday). Once information about the publishers is released there will be an opportunity for a diocesan bulk order of the new ritual books, timed so that they will be available for pick-up at our diocesan 2026 Priest Assembly / Mass of Chrism – Sunday, March 22nd through Tuesday, March 24th. catholicdos.org/ritual-books-new-editions

CLOSING OF THE JUBILEE YEAR 2025

2025 the Jubilee Holy Year, the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord, an "event of great spiritual, ecclesial, and social significance in the life of the Church." 34TH WORLD DAY OF THE SICK | FEBRUARY 11

World Day of the Sick is sponsored by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Health Pastoral Care and has been celebrated since 1992 on the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. This celebration reminds us to pray for all who are sick and to recognize and honor healthcare workers and caregivers.

"The compassion of the Samaritan: loving by bearing the pain of the other" is the theme chosen by the Holy Father for this World Day of the Sick. This year's theme is centered on the Gospel figure of the Samaritan who manifests love by taking care of the suffering man who has fallen into the hands of thieves. This is intended to emphasize this aspect of love for one's neighbor: love needs concrete gestures of closeness, through which we take on the suffering of others, especially those who are ill, often in a context of fragility due to poverty, isolation and loneliness.

Within the implementation stage of the synod, our local Church is called to receive the directives of the Final Document of the Synod and begin to apply them through a process of accompaniment and evaluation. In review of the Final Document, the Diocese of Superior has identified that much of what is expressed and expected of the local Church is already in process through our Maintenance to Mission initiative and pastoral plan. As a diocese, we will continue follow the Pathways for the Implementation through our Maintenance to Mission Initiative. While we remain on this journey, please continue to recite the Synodal Prayer at Mass at a minimum of one weekend per month. If you have any questions, please contact Peggy Schoenfuss, pschoenfuss@catholicdos.org.

III. Review and Approval of Agenda

Motion to approve agenda as amended - Fr. David Neauschwander, Second Fr. Jerome D'Souza. Approved

IV. Bishop Powers' Report

A. Catholic Charities

The State of Wisconsin attorney general is petitioning the WI Supreme Court to change the laws to take away tax exemption from everyone so it's not discriminating. The Beckett Firm will approach the US Supreme Court if the WI Supreme Court doesn't uphold the US Supreme Court decision.

B. Clergy Updates

Fr. Dave Oberts has been moved to assisted living in Rice Lake but is still concelebrating Masses in Rice Lake. Fr. Brost fell last week but is okay. He continues to decline, but is still celebrating Mass at the home he is in. Fr. Hayden is having a flair up of some hip issues and will be taking a break from his help-out position. He continues to mow lawn for Sacred Heart parish. Fr. Ron Olson is in good spirits. Fr. Andy Anderson is starting to help with things at Saint Patrick in Hudson. Fr. Gene Murphy is driving again. Fr. Virgil still has some significant health issues. Fr. Dennis Mullen is holding his own. Fr. Greg Hopefl is back to subbing. Fr. John Drummy is doing well. Fr. Bill Green is doing well and is saying Mass each week. Fr. Jim Brinkman is doing well. Fr. Pat Hardy is doing well. Fr. Bob Kazarak is doing well. Dcn. Arthur is up and around and assisting at Masses again. The deacons in Tomahawk are all doing well.

C. USCCB Meeting Items

- Ad limina could possibly be in 2027.
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) – we should possibly hold training for students within the next year. Could it possibly take the place of the Safe Environment lesson? The way the AI program works, the friending programs have proven to convince young people to take their life. There is a caution to not get sucked into AI more than we have to. The big danger is what it will be doing in the medical field. Many insurance companies are going to AI programs to approve procedures. Right now, what is going through AI is prejudiced against Blacks, Oriental and Women.
- There was discussion to consecrate the U.S. to the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Summer of 2026.
- The next Eucharistic Congress is scheduled for 2029.
- The attorneys dealing with immigration are hopeful that there will be lessened time out of the country to thirty days rather than a full year. For someone applying for a green card today, it would be 2037 before it would be approved.

D. Question from Bishop – is needing two exits from a confessional an issue? No presbyters thought it has been a problem to only have one exit. Discussion was had regarding how new structures have set up confessionals to be separate rooms or another exit from the confessional. The presbyters suggested to continue this discussion. Fr. John Anderson will have a discussion with Paul Birch about researching this need.

V. Managers and Finance Reports

- There should be a reminder about the 33-Day consecration sent out.
- Great to see the OCIA workshop.
- The UW-River Falls Newman participants in the Friends of the Bridegroom event thought it was great.
- March for Life will continue this coming year.
- It is very important that the Safe Haven Sunday information get out at the end of November as mentioned.
- Continue to try to get requests for letters of suitability to the Chancellor with enough time to get them issued.
- There was a Come and See weekend at IHM in Winona this past weekend. Fr. Dan Tracy took three young men from our diocese.
- Dates for upcoming ordinations are:
 - 2026, May 24 – Memorial Day Weekend Sunday, Carl & Scott Diaconate
 - 2027, May 30 – Memorial Day Weekend Sunday, Carl & Scott Priesthood
- The musicians' workshop in Amery went very well. Since then, the presenter had a serious stroke. He is improving but is in need of prayer.
- Paul Birch has four people to be on a committee to begin looking at moving forward with training for Eucharistic ministers or leaders of prayer at nursing homes.
- The December 28, 2025, closing of the holy year Mass is not going to be a special event in our diocese. Bishop encourages us though not to lose the hope of the year after this year is over. The theme of hope and mercy should always be part of the homilies. The message of mission can be that message of hope.
- The Penance service materials given out by the Office of Worship are very helpful.
- The Word of Life that is given out monthly is very easy to plug into intercessions each week.
- Thank to the Office of Administration for keeping an eye on succession planning in diocesan offices.
- The diocesan budget is well done. It is impressively lower than some parish budgets – for the amount the diocese does, Bishop is commended for keeping such an admirable budget.
- The workshop with finance people was very well done and it is nice to meet other people doing the same work.

VI. Follow up from Previous Meetings

A. Three Lakes Chapel-Shrine

- Bishop, Fr. John Gerrits and Fr. John Anderson will set up a meeting with them. They will send the submitted questions prior to the meeting.

B. Policy on Electronic Giving and Electronic Paying of Bills

- Steve Tarnowski submitted a draft for electronic giving.
- Larry French is working on a draft in regard to electronic paying of bills.

C. Holy Communion Announcement

- Bishop handed out samples. The presbyters chose this statement:

■ At this time, we are ready to receive the gifts of the Most Holy Eucharist, the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. Catholics who are prepared to receive Holy Communion may do so in the usual manner. Those who are non-Catholic may remain in the pews or come forward with their arms crossed over their chest to receive a blessing.

- This is to be said after the priest and deacons receive communion.
- Fr. John Anderson will talk with Paul Birch about any guidelines about blessings at the time of communion.
- A message will go out to the priests on directions for using this statement and giving the blessing prior to it being required.

D. Catholic Herald Update

- The order number that goes to parishes has been cut.
- A committee has been formed to review the Herald.

VII. New Items

L. Building Projects

- New Richmond Property Purchase - A duplex and piece of property across from the church has been purchased. The council has acknowledged the approval of purchase.

M. Goal Setting

- Chris Newkirk reviewed the combined dreams from the clergy workshop and pastoral council. One of the key items mentioned from both groups is communication – both how things are communicated within a parish as well as from the diocese. All of the diocesan offices will be reviewing the suggestions.
- Presbyters were asked to help narrow down the suggestions to move the diocese closer to setting specific goals. Their priorities were:

Diocesan-wide

- Communication
- Collaboration – within clusters and with neighboring clusters
- Greater sense of diocesan Church – one Body in Christ.
- Radical reprioritization of equipping for discipleship.
- Focus intentionally for equipping and supporting discipleship with leadership (lay and clergy) – Acts 3:42.

Diocesan Offices

- The loss of staff in the next few years needs to be addressed – succession planning.
- Is the diocesan staff modeling true discipleship – are they living it?
- Radically reprioritizing to support parishes on mission.
- Support for priests who go to new parishes – help the new priest connect with the parish – pastorally, missionally, financially, etc.
- Reorganizing priorities in regards to the evangelization letter and pastoral plan.
- Lay people to take up responsibilities, especially with strategic planning
- Communication

N. Re-clustering – the counselors went into Closed Session to discuss a possible re-clustering of some parishes.

VII. Time and Place of Future Meetings

February 17, 2026, St. Peter Parish Hall, Cameron, 11:00 AM

May 19, 2026, St. Joseph Parish Center, Hayward, 11:00 AM

August 25, 2026, St. Joseph Parish Center, Hayward, 11:00 AM

November 24, 2026, St. Joseph Parish Center, Hayward, 11:00 AM

VIII. Adjournment and Closing Prayer

Closing Prayer -- adjournment at 1:58 – Motion to adjourn Fr. David, Second Fr. Jerome approved

A Prayer for Our Church

Heavenly Father,
In every age you have been our refuge.
Yet again and still, we stand before you asking for your protection on your holy Church

For the victims of abuse and their families, pour out your healing and your peace.

For the bishops of this country,
continue to inspire their decisions,
and guide them with your Spirit.

For the thousands of good and faithful priests, who have followed your call to serve you and your people in holiness, sustain them by your grace.

For the faithful who are angry, confused, and searching for answers, embrace them with your love,
restore their trust,
console them with your clear Gospel message,
and renew them with your sacraments.

We place our Church in your hands,
for without you we can do nothing.
May Jesus, our High Priest and true compass,
Continue lead her in every thought and action –
to be an instrument of justice,
a source of consolation,
a sacrament of unity,
and a manifestation of your faithful covenant.

Grant this through that same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

LIFE

Our Sign of Hope

There is perhaps no more beautiful celebration than when parents bring their newborn child to the waters of baptism. Parents, godparents, family, and friends share in this sacrament with incomparable joy. For in baptism, we share in Christ's death and resurrection, and through the outward signs of water and oil, are made children of God and given the hope of eternal life with Him.

"The death and resurrection of Jesus is the heart of our faith and the basis of our hope."¹ Through our Lord Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven, death is overcome, and life is victorious. "Hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite not knowing what the future may bring."² Because of this Christian hope, we can face the unknown trials of life with faith rather than fear.

We are called to be signs of hope to all people, especially those whose goodness, value, and dignity are undermined. As members of the Body of Christ, we carry this hope with us as we continue Jesus' mission on earth. Pope Leo XIV encourages us, "How important it is that each and every baptized person feel himself or herself called by God to be a sign of hope in the world today."³

Sadly, there is a devastating absence of hope today. We see this most profoundly in a sweeping disregard for human life in its most vulnerable forms and stages. Abortion and assisted suicide are products of hopelessness and despair. Yet even amid the increasing attacks on human life, we know that the "storms that buffet us will never prevail, for we are firmly anchored in the hope born of grace, which enables us to live in Christ and to overcome sin, fear and death."⁴

"Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy Spirit that has been given to us." Romans 5:5

We have been entrusted with a message of hope for the woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant or for the man diagnosed with a terminal illness. At these challenging moments, we must bring God's presence, witnessing to His love, and inspiring a renewal of hope in those whose hearts are burdened. For "hope is born of love and based on the love springing from the pierced heart of Jesus upon the cross."⁵

Having been "buried with Christ in Baptism, we receive in his resurrection the gift of a new life that breaks down the walls of death."⁶ Confident of God's presence within us, may we share the Gospel of Life with those most in need of hope, knowing that "the grace of God precedes and accompanies his people as they press forward firm in faith, active in charity and steadfast in hope."⁷

Hope that Anchors Us

Facing the end of life, whether for ourselves or someone we love, can stir fear, sadness and deep questions about what lies ahead. Yet, in these moments, we are called to cling to a hope far greater than anything this world offers.

Christian hope is not just a wish for things to improve; it is a certainty, rooted in a person who will never fail us. Our hope rests in the One who guarantees it—Jesus Christ, who holds our future in His hands.

So how do we truly live out this hope, especially when suffering weighs heavy?

Let us use the letters of the word “hope” to reflect more deeply on the assurance Jesus has given us.

Holding Fast to Christ

Our hope is not in vague ideas but in Jesus Christ: God who took on flesh, loved us to the end, and conquered death. When life's final chapter feels uncertain, He remains our sure and steadfast anchor. We are held by a God who keeps His promises. "The mystery of the Redemption of the human person is in an astonishing way rooted in the loving involvement of God with human suffering. That is why we can entrust ourselves to God and to convey this certainty in faith to the person who is suffering and fearful of pain and death."¹

Overcoming Death

Through His resurrection, Jesus Christ, overcame death and gave us the hope of joining Him in eternal life. Eternal life is a relationship with our Lord who does not die, who is Life and Love itself. "Death is a decisive moment in the human person's encounter with God the Savior."² Thanks to the grace of Christ, death is not the end of life but a promise of communion with God. This is the glorious future awaiting us, and the great hope that steadies us even now when we are suffering.

Persevering in Solidarity

The Gospel is not just information; it transforms. It changes our life and enables us to act. Since we know who holds our tomorrow, we can face today's fears with courage. This hope reshapes how we face suffering. It means living our final days not in despair, but with joy, offering our pain as prayer and witness.

This hope is not just for us; it is a light we pass to others. In hospice rooms, family conversations, and quiet acts of care for others, we become living reminders that no life is beyond God's reach. "The scene of the Cross provides a way of understanding that even when it seems that there is nothing more to do there remains much to do, because 'remaining' by the side of the sick is a sign of love and of the hope that it contains."³ Together, we can build communities anchored in solidarity that no illness or grief can destroy. We believe that every human life, to the very last breath, has inestimable value and demands our protection and care.

Embracing Suffering

Jesus did not just observe human suffering—He entered into it. Our God chose to become like us! Love Himself chose to suffer with us, and that changes everything. Even when we feel alone, He is there, whispering, “I am with you.” Our suffering becomes meaningful when united to Christ’s suffering on the Cross. When we unite our pain with His, it becomes a share in God’s redeeming work, a mystery where our deepest wounds become vessels of grace. This is the scandal of our faith: a God who did not spare Himself so that we would know we are never abandoned.

Isaiah the prophet tells us, “They that hope in the Lord will renew their strength” (Is. 40:31). In life’s hardest moments, let us fix our eyes on our Lord Jesus Christ. He walks this path with us, redeems our struggles, and promises a dawn where every tear is wiped away. May His hope light our way, guiding us and our loved ones to our heavenly home with Him.
