*To learn anew the Gospel:
The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

Well, we are halfway through October. Fall is definitely in the air. The mornings are crisp and cool. The leaves are changing colors. As we watch the changing of the seasons, we are reminded of the changes we experience in life. This is Respect Life month and again we are called to pray for the preservation of all human life from conception to natural death.

It's also a good time to reflect on the many blessings in our own lives and the lives of the people who have blessed us simply by being a part of our lives. Many of those individuals are still present to us, but some only remain with us in spirit and memory.

As we approach November, we are called to reflect and pray for those who have gone before us in faith. November 1st is the Feast of All Saints. It's our future feast day. As in past years, we will set up our altar of remembrance in the back of church. Please bring in photographs of family and friends who are now counted among the saints. There will be baskets in the back of church for your pictures. Please help us remember the lives and blessings of those who have gone before us.

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry

Please remember the following in your prayers...

Lynn Allen (Vivian Allen's daughter)
 Vivian Allen
 Fred Arnold
 Thea Barrett
 Phil Bradshaw (Peggy O'Connor-Campbell's brother-in-law)
 Brenda Chaney
 Morgan Craig (Diane & Charlie's granddaughter)
 Mynelle Gardner
 Morris Gardner
 Carla Gerton
 Flossie Hill
 Betty Jones
 Beverley Jones
 Gwendolyn King
 Mary Martin (Myrle Dulaney & Myrna Martin's sister)
 Martha Mayes (Thelma Mayes' mother)

Please contact Deacon Kerry if you would like to add or remove someone from the Prayer List.

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary. Indeed, our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor.

Healing Service

Jesus told his followers to heal the sick (Mark 16:18) and promised that those who believe in him will do the things he did and even greater things (John 14:12). The Indianapolis Campus of the Encounter School of Healing is hosting a Healing Service at 6:30 pm on Saturday, October 29, at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church in Zionsville.

We invite you, or someone you care about, to an evening encounter with the healing presence and power of the Holy Spirit. This event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit Encounter-School.org/Indianapolis.

We are critically short of volunteers at the 30th Street Food Pantry. It takes a minimum of 35 volunteers on shopping and non-shopping days alike. Please consider carving out some time to help us. Sign up at SvdPIndy.org.

Come and See - Emmett Till Exhibit

The Indianapolis Children's Museum proudly promotes their latest exhibit: Emmett Till & Mamie Till-Mobley: Let the World See...

Now open and continuing through Oct. 30. Three years in the making, this national touring exhibit was created to help educate, inspire, and build a new generation that will commit to social justice in their communities. It focuses on Emmett Till's personal story and the following key messages:

- How Emmett's murder helped fuel the Civil Rights Movement
- How a community and family have worked to keep Emmett's memory alive
- How a vandalized historical marker connects to us today
- How together as a community we can commit to racial reconciliation
