FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PAVINO

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord. We call to mind the event when Jesus finally goes back to the Father. The emphasis was not on the details of the departure, but on the words of commissioning. In the narrative in the Gospel according to St. Mark, the focus was on the parting words of Jesus: "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:15-16).

The disciples had no room to indulge in any dramatic display of emotion, for foremost in their mind it is not that Jesus is departing, but that they had been entrusted with this gargantuan task of evangelizing the "whole world", and the time to do it has now begun. That event was, therefore, more of an overture than a departure.

The Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord invites us to look into ourselves, particularly on the great honor and privilege we received as followers of Christ, and on the tremendous responsibility attached thereto.

First, instead of looking at the Ascension as abandonment by Jesus, we should rather look at it as man's greatest glory. It is not us being left behind, but rather us being taken up by Jesus into the innermost life of God. How faithful have we been to this great dignity? How joyful are we to realize that we have received such great honor of being welcomed into the life of God? Or do we still find becoming rich and famous as more attractive and desirable than to be known as true Christians?

Second, the Ascension of Our Lord highlights the truth that we profess in the Creed: Jesus will come again. The Gospels contain many parables about a master who sets out on a long journey, and entrusts his estate to his servants until his return. We are those servants. Jesus is the Master who ascends to his heavenly Father and leaves his disciples in charge of the affairs of his kingdom till his return in glory. While waiting for that Second Coming of the Lord, we are expected to be the trustworthy and faithful servants. Are we such servants? Are we ready for the Lord's coming at any time? Do we ever take the task of evangelization seriously?

For some of us, we may be embarrassed and humbled to realize that we seriously spend more time, resources and efforts in piling up possessions, or in making ourselves beautiful in front of the mirror than in spreading and living the Good News of Jesus.

As we celebrate the feast of the Ascension of the Lord, let our hearts be joyful and our hopes strong for we are confident that God continues to give us His protection from all evils and unnecessary worries as we work for His kingdom on earth while awaiting our Master's return in glory.

PADRE LOAIZA

ASCENSION DEL SENOR

Desde el domingo de Resurrección, la Palabra de Dios proclamada en la celebración viene desgranando ante nuestros ojos atónitos las riquezas de ese hecho central para la vida cristiana que nuestra contemplación nunca conseguirá agotar. En la ascensión de Jesús al cielo, la iglesia nos invita a que celebremos llenos de gozo un nuevo aspecto de la fiesta de la Pascua: la glorificación de Jesucristo, el Resucitado, con la vida misma de Dios, el Padre de la gloria. Dicho con otras palabras, también figuradas, porque para hablar de Dios no disponemos de otros términos que los símbolos: la fiesta de la Ascensión nos invita a confesar nuestra fe en el Resucitado, proclamando y celebrando que "está sentado a la derecha de Dios, Padre Todopoderoso".

-Desde la Ascensión del Señor, algo de nosotros está ya en el cielo. Como todos los misterios de la vida del Señor, la Ascensión no sólo nos revela quién es Dios. Nos desvela también la profundidad y la altura de nuestra condición humana. En la glorificación de Jesús, la humanidad ha sido investida con la dignidad misma de Dios. El, que siendo de condición divina no se avergonzó de llamarse nuestro hermano, abre con su glorificación el horizonte, hasta ahora insospechado, de "esa nueva esperanza a la que nos llama".
