Altar Flowers

The parish is looking for one or two people from the English community and two from the Hispanic community to help with placing flowers on the altar for each weekend. The pairs will alternate weekends. Training/guidance will be offered. Please call the office and leave your name and number so you can be reached.

Flores en el Altar

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PAVINO

A customer goes back to the store and complained to the cashier. "You are not doing your job well! I just counted my change and it's ten dollars short! "The cashier examined the receipt, then checked his records. "Yesterday your change was ten dollars more. But you didn't come back to complain." "Look" said the customer. "I can understand and forgive an occasional mistake – but two mistakes in a row is too much!"

To err is human, we say. Unfortunately, we have always used this as an excuse for not striving harder for holiness and Christian perfection. As a result, we are resigned to the idea that it is simply not possible to attain holiness, and that it is normal for us to commit sin and be bad. That is what we see now – a total reversal of values. Doing the right thing and being holy are considered unnatural and strange; while sins and perversions have become acceptable and even extolled by the secular media and society.

This Sunday, as we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, we pray: "Come Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." The Spirit of God is the heavenly moisture that gives life, vitality and the principle of unity in the world.

The Holy Spirit is given to us so that we may be able to practice the commandment of love. God knows how weak we are and how easily we fall into sin. That is why the Holy Spirit is intimately connected with the sacrament that forgives sins. When Jesus breathed on his disciples, he said, "Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (Jn 20:22-23). Hence, in pronouncing the absolution in sacramental confession, the priest proclaims that, "God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins..." The Holy Spirit, therefore, reconciles us with God and one another. Unity is, indeed, the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Brothers and sisters, without the Holy Spirit the Gospel would not be proclaimed and Christian faith would not spread. In this arid and turbulent world, a fresh and vibrant infusion of the Holy Spirit is truly needed. It is only through the Holy Spirit that there can be new life, strong unity and peace among God's people in the world.

PADRE LOAIZA

QUE SIGNIFICA PENTECOSTES?

Pentecostés en griego significa 50, que en el simbolismo de los números bíblicos significa la perfección, plenitud, cumplimiento.

La fiesta de Pentecostés es una manifestación del misterio de la Trinidad: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Hoy celebramos a JC resucitado, haciendo memoria "de la pasión salvadora" de Jesús, y de su "admirable resurrección y ascensión al cielo", como se dice en la Plegaria eucarística. Y esto lo podemos hacer por obra del Espíritu Santo, que es el Espíritu del Padre y del Hijo. Desde la tarde de la Resurrección a la mañana de Pentecostés, el efecto de la resurrección de Jesús es permanente: dar, comunicar su Espíritu.

Por eso podemos decir que siempre es Pascua de Resurrección y siempre es Pentecostés. Con el "don" del Espíritu de JC resucitado podemos decir que Dios es definitivamente el "Emmanuel", el Dios-con-nosotros. Y donde está el Espíritu, está también el Padre y el Hijo. Nuestro bautismo fue Pentecostés, en la confirmación recibimos como "Don" el mismo de Pentecostés; la Eucaristía es acción del Espíritu Santo que nos reúne, nos comunica y hace entender la Palabra, y hace que la Palabra se haga Pan que alimenta, y nos envía a hacer las obras que el Padre quiere en favor de los hermanos.

Todos nosotros somos testigos de cómo el Espíritu nos va transformando, personal y comunitariamente; cómo el Espíritu va suscitando hombres y mujeres que luchan para la transformación de nuestro mundo.

Stateline Works of Mercy News:

We will offer different food items for the summer months and return to soups for fall & winter. A Case Worker from PATH (Projects for Assistance in Transition from Homelessness) is holding office hours every Tuesday morning. The newest volunteers have been trained and are working. Additional volunteers are needed. We need a few more people for Sky Carp games this summer.
