SUNDAY COLLECTION

Collection data for 1/14/2024 will be in the next bulletin.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PAVINO

This Sunday, the Respect for Life Ministry of our Parish will be speaking in all the weekend Masses to promote their apostolate and hopefully recruit more new members. It is my ardent desire that more parishioners will join the Respect for Life Ministry simply because this is what the Gospel is all about. Jesus Christ came into the world to give us life. This is the reason why Jesus established His Church, and in His Church instituted the Sacraments, to give us the divine life we lost due to the fall of our first parents.

In Baptism, we are reborn to a life in Christ. In Confirmation the life we received is strengthened by the Holy Spirit. In the Eucharist, our life of faith is being nourished and sustained. In Confession and Anointing of the sick, we are being healed of our infirmities and iniquities. In the Sacrament of Matrimony, we are given the opportunity to share in the creative power of God through procreation.

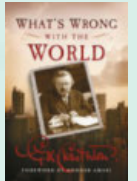

If we are truly Christians ... if we are truly followers of Christ ... it is imperative for us to defend, promote and protect life. Christianity means being PRO-LIFE!
