St. Romauld (June 19)

St. Romauld was born into a noble family, but after witnessing his father kill a man in a duel over land, he was shook to his core. He left his lavish lifestyle behind and decided to become a monk. He spent countless hours in prayer making reparation for his father's sin. After a few years reforming a monastery, he was asked to found his own monastery and order, being today known as the Camaldolese Order. His form of monasticism was innovative for his time, with his rule of life having plenty of time both in solitude and shared community. He passed away peacefully in 1027 A.D. "Empty yourself completely and sit waiting, content with the grace of God, like the chick who tastes nothing and eats nothing but what his mother brings him."

St. Romauld, pray for us

The Sacred Heart of Jesus

The heart is, without a doubt, the ultimate emblem of love. It is not without reason that Jesus chose to remind us, through Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1675), that this Most Sacred Heart beats ceaselessly with love for every human being—an unwavering, eternal, and freely given love.

Creation, the election of the people of Israel, His patience with His rebellious people, the Incarnation of the Word, His Passion and death on the Cross, the Church, and indeed the present day—all of this is a testament to this unfailing love! A Love that willed to become man; a God who chose to possess a human Heart, to love with a human Heart, and to feel with a human Heart. And through that Heart, to become the tangible expression of divine Love—an expression beyond all imagining. Every beat of Christ's Heart is an expression of His love and of God's love for humanity—a love that does not fade, a love that does not change.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." This is the message of the love found in the Heart of Jesus. His Heart is a refuge, a shelter, and a comfort to the soul. It is a place where strength is restored—something that truly happens when we approach the sacraments, for they are the means Jesus instituted so that we might experience the beating of His Heart. So that we might experience that ineffable, incomprehensible love. Through the sacraments, He speaks His love to us and enacts it through concrete words and gestures.

And the other means—no less real or effective—that He chose for loving us and being loved by us is our neighbor... "Whoever loves God must also love his brother" (1 John). "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me" (Mt 25)

Let us allow ourselves to be loved by the Heart of Christ through the Sacraments, and let us turn to them frequently out of love, while also attending to the needs of the needy—out of love for Christ.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You!

Fr. Salvador

El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

El corazón es, si duda alguna, el emblema por excelencia del amor. No por nada Jesús decide recordarnos, con santa María de Alacoque, (1675) que ese Corazón sacratísimo late incesantemente de Amor por cada ser humano; un amor inquebrantable, eterno, gratuito.

La creación, la elección del pueblo de Israel, su paciencia hacia su pueblo rebelde, la encarnación del Verbo, su pasión y muerte en la cruz, la Iglesia, y hasta el día de hoy ¡todo es una muestra de este amor ideductible! Un Amor que quiso hacerse hombre, un Dios que quiso tener un Corazón de hombre, amar con un Corazón de hombre, sentir con un Corazón de hombre. Y con ese Corazón ser la expresión tangible del Amor divino jamás imaginada. Cada latido del Corazón de Cristo es una expresión de su amor y del amor de Dios por los hombres, un amor que no pasa, que no cambia.

"Vengan a mí los que están cansados y agobiados por la carga y yo los aliviaré". Es esto lo que nos dice el amor del Corazón de Jesús. Su Corazón es un refugio, un abrigo, el consuelo del alma. Es un espacio reparador de fuerzas, y esto se realiza efectivamente cuando nos acercamos a los sacramentos, pues estos son el medio que Jesús instituyó para que hiciéramos la experiencia de los latidos de su corazón. Para que hiciéramos la experiencia de ese amor indecible, incomprensible. A través de los sacramentos nos dice su amor y lo actúa a través de palabras y gestos concretos.

Y el otro medio, no menos real y eficaz, que eligió para amarnos y ser amado por nosotros, es el prójimo... "El que ama Dios amé también a su hermano." (1Jn). "Lo que hagan a uno de estos pequeños, que son mis hermanos, a mí me lo hicieron" (Mt 25)

Dejémonos amar por el Corazón de Cristo por medio de los Sacramentos y recurramos por amor a estos frecuentemente, y atendiendo las necesidades del necesitado, por amor a Cristo.

¡Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, en ti confío!

P. Salvador

San Romualdo (19 de junio)

San Romualdo nació en el seno de una familia noble, pero quedó profundamente conmovido tras presenciar cómo su padre mataba a un hombre en un duelo por unas tierras. Abandonó su vida de lujo y decidió hacerse monje. Pasó incontables horas en oración para reparar el pecado de su padre. Tras unos años reformando el monasterio, se le pidió que fundara su propia orden y monasterio; hoy en día se la conoce como la Orden Camaldulense. Su forma de monaquismo resultó innovadora para la época, ya que su regla de vida combinaba amplios periodos de soledad con la vida en comunidad. Falleció en paz en el año 1027 d. C. «Vacíate por completo y permanece a la espera, satisfecho con la gracia de Dios, como el polluelo que no prueba ni come nada salvo lo que su madre le trae».

San Romualdo, ruega por nosotros.
