"And you, who do you say that I am?" Mt 16:15

There are many people, even among "practicing" Catholics, who have their own opinions about Jesus, about God, about faith, or about the Church. And although these opinions are not always completely wrong, they are not capable of truly grasping the objective truth of these realities.

Most of those who ask for Baptism for their children do not really know who Jesus is or understand the sacrament they are requesting. The same happens with those who marry in the Church and those who attend Mass out of tradition.

Opinions do not go beyond the human and earthly level. Peter did not answer according to human criteria, but from faith: "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven!" It is not according to "flesh and blood," that is, according to human criteria, that we arrive at an objective answer about Jesus, but rather through what the Father has revealed to us in the Sacred Scriptures and through our personal experience of God based on them, through a living and personal relationship with the living Christ.

Let us seek to know Jesus more and more each day. Let us read the Bible every day—one chapter a day. Let us dedicate ten minutes each day to silence and prayer. And there, as we do this, ask God our Father to reveal more and more to you about the mystery of Jesus. You will see how your entire life will be transformed.

Fr. Salvador

"Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?" Mt 16, 15

Son muchos, inclusive entre católicos "practicantes", los que tienen su opinión sobre Jesús, sobre Dios, sobre la fe o la Iglesia; y esas opiniones, aunque no siempre sean completamente erróneas, no son capaces de atinar realmente a la verdad objetiva de esas realidades.

La mayoría de los que piden el bautizo para sus hijos no saben quien es Jesús ni el sacramento que piden. Lo mismo pasa con los que se casan por la Iglesia y los que asisten a Misa por tradición.

Las opiniones no pasan del plano humano y terrenal. Pedro no contestó según los criterios humanos sino a partir de la fe: "¡Dichoso tú, Simón, hijo de Juan, porque esto no te lo ha revelado la carne ni la sangre, sino mi Padre, que está en los cielos!"

No es según la carne ni la sangre, es decir, según los criterios humanos, en los que se basa la respuesta objetiva sobre Jesús, sino en lo que el Padre nos ha revelado en las sagradas Escrituras y de la experiencia personal con Dios a partir de ellas, a través de una relación viva y personal con Cristo vivo.

Busquemos conocer cada día más a Jesús. Leamos la Biblia diariamente (un capítulo diario), consagremos 10 minutos al día de silencio en oración y ahí, haciendo esto, pídele a nuestro Padre Dios que te revele más sobre el misterio de Jesús. Y verás como tu vida entera se transformará.
