Indulgences and our spiritual life

Catechism of the Catholic Church 1471 says "The doctrine and practice of indulgences in the Church are closely linked to the effects of the sacrament of Penance."

What is an indulgence? "An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints." "An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin." The faithful can gain indulgences for themselves or apply them to the dead. Every sin involves both guilt and punishment. The guilt is forgiven in confession, but part of the temporal punishment for sin often remains and must be remitted in this life or the next. The Church has the power to remit this punishment by means of indulgences.

The requirements for gaining a plenary indulgence are the performance of the indulgenced work and the fulfillment of three conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions. A further requirement is the exclusion of all attachment to sin, even venial sin; that is, there is no sin which the soul is unwilling to renounce.

Some prayers and works enriched with a partial indulgence:

Every act of faith, hope, charity, and contrition, prayed devoutly in any authorized form,
A visit to the Blessed Sacrament for the purpose of adoration, The Prayer to the Guardian Angel, The Creed, Teaching or studying Christian doctrine, The Memorare, The Miserere, Prayer for priestly and religious vocations, Private recitation of the Rosary, A reading from sacred Scripture, The Hail Holy Queen, The Sign of the Cross, The renewal of baptismal promises

Prayers and works blessed with a plenary indulgence include:

A visit in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament for at least half an hour, Visiting a cemetery between November 1–8 and praying, even silently, for the dead. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls in purgatory, Adoration of the cross during the solemn liturgical ceremony on Good Friday., The faithful who receive their first Communion or devoutly participate in that Mass, Taking part in spiritual exercises at least three days in length, Praying the Rosary in a church or a public oratory, with family members, in a religious community, or in a prayer group, Reading sacred Scripture for at least half an hour, The Way of the Cross in the presence of stations legitimately erected, The renewal of baptismal promises during the celebration of the Easter Vigil or on the anniversary of your own baptism.

Prayer for Protection During Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awaken from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm less eternity awaits us. Amen.

The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette
