I will appoint for you Shepherds after My own Heart

Jeremiah 3:15

~ From the Pastor ~

“My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.” Romans 10:1

Mes chers amis,

On this Twenty-Fifth Sunday, we hear the first reading tell us: “Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving” (Is 55:7). As we hear these words, it's important for us to remember what Our Lord expects of us. The Precepts of the Catholic Church are a description of the absolute minimum actions required of Catholics regarding the Church. Yet, it seems so many people have forgotten them. The Church uses these precepts to remind us that the Christian life requires a commitment to prayer and active participation in the liturgy and the sacraments. If we fall below this bare-minimum level, we can't rightly consider ourselves to be in full communion with the Lord or His Church. This examination of Conscience should help you reflect on how you are responding to the demands made by the love of God.

First Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL ATTEND HOLY MASS ON SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION.

Second Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL CONFESS YOUR SINS AT LEAST ONCE A YEAR. Have I...

- made a good confession of my mortal sins at least once a year?
- Purposely omitted telling my mortal sins in my last confession?
- performed the penance I was given?
- made reparation for any harm I have done to others?

Third Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL HUMBLY RECEIVE YOUR CREATOR IN HOLY COMMUNION AT LEAST DURING THE EASTER SEASON Have I...

- fulfilled my Easter duty to receive Holy Communion at least once during the Lenten and Easter Seasons?
- received Holy Communion while in the state of mortal sin?
- fasted an hour before receiving Holy Communion?
- received Holy Communion more than twice in one day?

Fourth Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL KEEP HOLY THE HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION

Fifth Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL OBSERVE THE PRESCRIBED DAYS OF FASTING AND ABSTINENCE. Have I...

- done penance every Friday, if not abstaining from meat, then some other form of penance?
- fasted on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday?
- spent time in prayer, doing spiritual and corporal works of mercy, and practicing self-denial?

Sixth Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL CONTRIBUTE TO THE SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH Have I...

- contributed a just amount of my time/talents/money to support my parish and work of the Church?

Seventh Precept of the Church

YOU SHALL OBSERVE THE LAWS OF THE CHURCH CONCERNING MARRIAGE. Have I...

- been living in a valid and licit marriage according to the laws of the Catholic Church?
- abandoned my spouse and family by separation or divorce?
- kept company with someone whom I cannot marry in the Catholic Church?
- given scandal by living with a member of the opposite sex without the benefit of a marriage blessed by the Catholic Church?
- entered into marriage with more than one person at a time?

Dans le Sacré Cœur du Christ,
Fr. Vidrine

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests.

Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

Baby Bottle Campaign Kicks off Next Weekend

October 1, 2023

A fundraising campaign will be held next weekend to benefit The Unexpected Pregnancy Center, our regional pregnancy resource center in New Iberia. The center has assisted hundreds of pregnant women while honoring life and preserving families. All services are free of charge.

The center is located at 117 E. Pershing Street in New Iberia, LA. Because of your generous donation in the past, the center currently provides pregnancy testing, consulting, ultrasound imaging, maternal-family education, as well as adoption referrals and other services to pregnant women in need. Since opening our doors, the center has had over 100 abortion-prone women who had a change of heart and who decided to choose life after visiting The Unexpected Pregnancy Center.

Baby bottles will be distributed after all services next week for you to fill and return to the collection area of the church the following week.

REFLECTION

We All Receive More Than We Deserve

The parable of the landowner and the laborers hired to work in his vineyard is, on one level, about abundance. The landowner had a large enough vineyard that he needed to hire laborers repeatedly throughout the day to get the work done. As evening approached and the men lined up for their pay, the landowner paid all of them a denarius each. A "denarius" was a silver Roman coin used as payment for a full day's wage. The owner of the vineyard didn't need to scrimp and save. "Are you envious because I am generous?" he asked those who complained that all had been treated with equal generosity.

The landowner's actions depict the endlessly loving heart of the Father that poured itself out onto his undeserving creation with the incarnation of his Son, the Word-made-flesh, God-with us. Jesus Christ became our brother, our Savior, our Friend, the Lamb of God, our Eucharistic Lord, generosity without limits. As he one day multiplied the loaves and the fish for a crowd of 5000, Jesus abundantly multiplies the gift of his presence to us in the Eucharist all over the world until the end of history. Generous abundance is a hallmark of the Kingdom. Jesus said: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (Jn 10:10).

Against the backdrop of this image of extravagant magnanimity the parable paints the stinginess and selfish demands of the workers of the first hour. They assumed that they would get more than what had been agreed upon because the landowner was doling out a full day's wage to those who had come at the last hour and who had clearly done far less work. As these tired laborers watched I can imagine them muttering among themselves that these latecomers were absolutely unworthy to be treated the same as they. The unexpected reversal of the parable is this: no matter how much or little we work, we are all equal recipients of God's generous abundance, of the gifts of his forgiveness, holiness, mercy, salvation, eternal life.

How many times have I thought that I deserved more than the others because I had given more of my time, energy, and love than they. I have fallen into the trap that the others deserved less because of how little they worked or how selfish they had been. This parable frees us from thinking we need to win God's endless love. This love is abundant and freely given to us all according to God's own generous determination. Let us not be upset that others receive what we have been given, but rejoice that others have been gifted, included, loved, and blessed, for we all receive more than we could ever deserve.

Jesus, you surprise me by your love for me and your love for others who I sometimes feel don't deserve that love. I am amazed at how you keep me in existence through your bounteous mercies, even when my love is so small and stingy compared to yours. Take my heart, O Lord, and make it just like yours. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Michael, St. Gabriel & St. Raphael Archangels: Sept. 29 The liturgy celebrates the feast of these three archangels who are venerated in the tradition of the Church. Michael (Who is like God?) was the archangel who fought against Satan and all his evil angels, defending all the friends of God. He is the protector of all humanity from the snares of the devil. Gabriel (Strength of God) announced to Zachariah the forthcoming birth of John the Baptist, and to Mary, the birth of Jesus. His greeting to the Virgin, "Hail, full of grace," is one of the most familiar and frequent prayers of the Christian people. Raphael (Medicine of God) is the archangel who took care of Tobias on his journey.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle;
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, thrust into Hell,
Satan and all the other evil spirits,
who prowl throughout the world,
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.
