THE HOLY FAMILY OF Jesus, Mary & Joseph

~ From the Pastor ~

"My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved." Romans 10:1

Mes chers amis,

For a child is born to us, a son is given us; upon His shoulder dominion rests. They name Him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:5)

Merry Christmas! These words of the prophet Isaiah explain the root of our joy - the long-awaited child is born! God has come to save us! I hope that you experience the joy of Christ's birth and are renewed in His love as we celebrate this holy feast of Christmas. This feast is so important for the Church that it doesn't stop on December 25...in fact it has just begun! We have the entire Liturgical Season of Christmas, which lasts from December 25 until January 8, the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. And in the midst of those days, we celebrate the Octave of Christmas: eight days of celebrating the birth of Christ just as we did on December 25. While the world has long grown tired of Christmas because it began celebrating it in a secular way for months now, Catholics rejoice for days to come that Christ was truly born!

Please accept my thanks for all of your kindness and generosity expressed through the many cards and gifts. I am eternally grateful to Christ for His gift of the Sacred Priesthood, and during these times of the year, I reminded of the great joy it is to serve you, the People of God in St. Martinville. Thank you!!

The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God this Wednesday, January 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Please see the Schedule for Holy Masses for this feast.

Please know of my prayers for you and your families as we begin this New Year. May Our Lady continue to help us experience the abundance of Our Lord's blessings!

Dans le Sacré Cœur du Christ,
Fr. Vidrine

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

“Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel...”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today’s feast is new as feasts go, and it sets us this year in a very modern crisis. Amid conflicting schedules and commitments, a young man, testing the limits, has strayed from his parents and gone off to the big city. Mary and Joseph search frantically, only to find the child Jesus in the temple, conversing with the elders and scholars of the law, who are amazed at his wisdom.

In the time of Jesus, the temple was the religious center of Jewish ritual. Outside of Jerusalem, people gathered in the synagogues, centers of learning, for daily prayer and study. Still, everyone longed to journey to the temple to participate in the offerings, and to fulfill certain obligations of the law that could only be done there. On this feast, we catch a glimpse of the family of Jesus: parents dealing with the normal stresses of raising a child, and yet completely grounded in the ways of faith and tradition.

There has always been an appreciation in Christianity for the value of pilgrimage—the journey to holy places that is a symbol of our life’s journey to God, and a sense of connection to important events in our family history. During the Christmas season, many of us undertake pilgrimages to the family homestead for festival meals, to the parishes where we were formed in the faith, or perhaps even to a beautiful manger scene or festival of lights. There are few better days than this in our calendar for spending time with the family, especially on a short pilgrimage to a favorite place. Just make sure that no one gets left behind!

REFLECTION

Why?

"But they did not understand what he said to them."

Mary and Joseph have just experienced every parent's worst nightmare: their son was missing for THREE DAYS, as they searched and asked and retraced the steps of their journey. Imagine their relief when they returned to the Temple and saw him at last. Surely they ran to him with joy and exasperation, only to hear his answer, "Why were you looking for me?" Why? WHY?!

Of course they did not understand what he said to them. Their hearts had gone through the wringer of fear and anxiety, their imaginations had probably thought of worse case scenarios, their minds could not understand why he would separate himself from the ones who loved him and had supplied his every need in every moment of his life up until then. And he seems to give a dismissive answer, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" Like a sword to the hearts of Joseph and Mary, his response does not seem to take their anxieties into account.

This is hard to understand, so hard that Mary must store it away to ponder later, as we are told she "kept all these things in her heart." But he returns to their home in Nazareth, and is obedient to them.

This Holy Family did not have a schedule given to them from Heaven. Yes, they were holy; yes, Jesus was the Incarnate Son of God; yes, Mary was sinless; yes, Joseph was a just man. They were good Jews, subject to the Jewish Law and open to the will of the Father. But they did not know where the will of the Father would take them. It took them to Bethlehem when they should have been preparing at home for the birth of Jesus. It took them to Egypt for several years to flee the murderous rage of Herod when they wanted to return home with their infant. It took them back to Nazareth at last, where they raised a child they knew to be the Messiah. And it took them over a painful journey of three days to find him in the Temple.

What did this require of them? The same thing that it requires of us: loving trust. They are the model for us of a life of love and trust, obedience and patience, great faith and hope and humility, knowing the will of the Father is always for our good, even when it is difficult.

Let us pray for the grace to continue to submit ourselves to the will of the Father, especially when it is hard to understand, when it seems something else would be better, when it costs us. It is then that our trust is deepened and our love grows.
