SACRED HEART HIGH SCHOOL

The Senior Class of Sacred Heart High School

Presents

"The Fan"

The Story

The play has for its setting a tiny, insignificant Italian village, Casa Nuova, while the plot and conflicts of the play revolve around a small and equally insignificant fan. The fan is broken, and slight misunderstandings, which gradually develop into violent arguments, arise. Reasons for the dispute: two young attractive, and unmarried signorinas, and four equally-young, equally-attractive, and equally-unmarried signors. Added to this confusion are an aristocratic, protective aunt, an over-stuffed, egotistical Count; a cold, dominating brother, and a gossip, and somewhat overcurious, shopkeeper.

The action of the play begins when the delicate Signorina Candida's fan is broken, through the fault of Signor Eustazio, her unreputed suitor. Because of his deep distress over the matter of the broken fan, he attempts to purchase another one for her. He trusts the fan to a third party, and it is this act that leads to the flowing stream of misconceptions and disillusionments that follow. The action of the play soon leads everyone to confusion, but the confusion is delightful.

Among Edison Scholarship Winners

Linda Garrett, 18, of 22201 Gregory, was among 43 scholarship winners honored Dec. 27 by Detroit Edison Co. for scholastic ability, character, citizenship and school activities. She is shown her with Earl Floyd, of Detroit

Edison, who is explaining the operation of a thermo-electric generator. Miss Garrett is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is now a freshman at Marygrove College.

BEST CONTEST — Cited by the city beautiful commission, Sacred Heart High School celebrated its first place victory in the senior high school division of the school clean-up contest in a simple unveiling ceremony last week. Here, admiring the outdoor citation are, from left, Monsignor Walter Hardy; Sister M. Annunciata, principal; Jon Tocks, junior city beautiful commissioner; Bob Carney, student council and senior class president, City Beautiful Commission Chairman John E. Parkhurst, representing Mayor Orville L. Hubbard and Commissioner Dorothy C. Rugis.
