What Happened This Week?

Good Morning Spartan Parents!

No School MONDAY JANUARY 16TH

January equals busy busy busy! I have posted 3 links in this email asking for help at Open House and filing out a parent survey. No one responded to any of them, which is very strange! I don't know if you missed them or what, but strange indeed. Please take the time to read the email and respond to the links.

I will also be posting a copy of our Open House Flyer. I am asking if you could please post it on all your Social media platforms, city pages (If it is allowed), if you own a business maybe in your store front window. I have already seen it on many Face Book pages, so thank you. I love to show others how amazing our school and loving school family is.

SPARTAN SPOTLIGHT- Spartan of the week

Our Spartan of the Week is fifth grader Abby Samulak!

Abby was nominated by Mrs. Alexander. Mrs. Alexander says about Abby: Abby is a very bright and compassionate student! She is constantly working hard in class, and she puts her all into every project she completes. She is very creative, and I love seeing all the amazing things that she comes up with!

Abby is artistic and passionate about being outdoors. She is always kind and helpful to her classmates, and is a great example of our current virtue, humility. Abby is an excellent role model in and outside of the classroom and I have no doubt she can accomplish anything she puts her mind to!

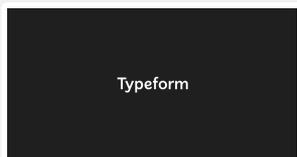

Congratulations Abby!

Shout It From The Roof Tops!

Lights! Camera! Action!

The Our Lady of Hope Players are holding auditions for their spring play. This group is very near to my heart as it is where my daughter Lauren started her acting career. It truly is a fun atmosphere and the students learn a lot. Check out the attached flyer for more details! It looks like a fabulous play!

BOOK FAIR FUN

Our Book Fair will be running during our Open House and the Monday following (1/30). Monday is the only shopping day, if you are interested in letting your child shop, please have them bring in their money on Monday. There are no make up days to shop.

The shop is in need of plastic grocery bags. If you have some you can donate, please send them in to the office.

Mrs. Aboona will be in need of a couple volunteers on Monday to assist her. I have created a sign up genius, if you should like to help, please click the link below.
