THIS WEEK'S PRAYER

By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God, may we walk eagerly in that same charity with which, out of love for the world, your Son handed himself over to death. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

GOSPEL READING

JOHN 12:20-33

Jesus teaches his disciples about the way in which he will be glorified by God, and a voice from heaven is heard to affirm this teaching.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Family life is often a balancing act in which we prioritize and attend to a variety of competing needs. We learn the value of putting others' needs ahead of our own. In family life we also learn that when we make personal sacrifices to serve others, we gain so much more than we may have lost.

As you gather as a family, talk about how important it is to your family life to gladly serve one another. Ask each person to consider the last time that another family member asked for help. What was your response? Did you cheerfully try to honor the request, or did you ask "Why me?" Read today's Gospel, John 12:20-33. How do you think Jesus would want us to respond when someone in our family asks for help? Invite each family member to make a commitment for the next week to try to respond cheerfully to requests for help. Pray together, asking God's help with this commitment. Pray the Prayer of Saint Ignatius of Loyola.

Stations of the Cross
With Soup Supper to Follow

Friday, March 22nd, 7pm

Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God, teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give without counting the cost, to fight heedless of wounds, to labor without seeking rest, to sacrifice myself without thought of any reward save the knowledge that I have done your will. Amen.

~St. Ignatius of Loyola

Taken, Blessed, Broken, Given

During one of our recent Religious Education sessions, Fr. Cavanaugh Wallace explained to the children of St. Timothy the meaning of Jesus' actions to Take, Bless, Break, and Give. As our children prepare to receive our Lord Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion on May 26th, 2024, we invite you to keep them in your prayers.

Youth Group Update

Last weekend, St Timothy's Youth Group met in the parish hall for food, games, prayer, Bible study and fellowship. If you are in high school, we would love for you to join this new group at St Timothy! Contact Justin Mora at youth@sttimothychurch.com for more information.
