Dear Parishioners, Visitors, and Friends,

I want to thank all of you for your prayers. I improve a bit each day and am now comfortable using a walker and standing for most of the Mass each weekend.

I want to ask for your help in support of our Bishop against the destructive Physician Assisted Suicide bill currently at the Hawaii State Legislature. Sts Peter & Paul has always been a leader in preventing the passage of this terrible legislation. As Catholics, we believe and support the sanctity of life from conception to natural death. Our Catholic faith emphasizes the importance of this principle.

Even if I were not a Catholic, however, I would not be able to support Physician Assisted Suicide. First, it is destructive of the Doctors' oath "to do no harm". More importantly the "right to die" movement, in jurisdictions where Physician Assisted Suicide has been approved, has led to patients "duty to die" and has even led to decisions to die made, not by the patient, but by others.

Please sign the petitions that are in your pews. Please do this right now. Please don't wait for someone else to sign the petition.

Mahalo,

GOOD NEWS!

Genesis 22:1–2, 9a, 10–13, 15–18
Romans 8:31b–34 Mark 9:2–10

(See artwork on cover)

Kneeling humbly on the altar is the son of Abraham's old age, the promised Isaac. He was the answer to prayer, a commitment by God that, through this child, Abraham would have descendants as numerous as the stars. Yet God was asking him to sacrifice that hope and promise. And Abraham, although surely not understanding, was willing to obey the Father. It represents the supreme test of faith. Abraham is called our Father in Faith for a reason.

Abraham is looking up to God, not focused on the creatures, even as much as he loved his son. We also need to be looking up to God in order to rightly value the things below.

He understands that no godly gift should take God's place in the human heart—even something as precious as his God-given child. When dealing with all the good things God gives us, even those he has promised and those we love the most, we must be willing to submit to his plans. God doesn't always make sense to us, and we are painfully aware that his ways are not always our ways.

Isaac is a young boy, but certainly big enough to put up a fight as his elderly father's plans become evident. Yet we see him kneeling in acceptance of the sacrifice God requests. Although he wants to understand, he doesn't make the reason an absolute. Isaac foreshadows the trusting lamb led to slaughter, the ram whose head will be caught in a crown of thorns, and the Son who will not be spared by the heavenly Father.

What is Stewardship?

It is difficult to teach or practice stewardship, unless we have a clear understanding of exactly what stewardship is. If we wish to embrace stewardship, we must gradually learn every definition or aspect of stewardship. What identifies a Steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly and generous giving of time, talent and treasure. We receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, and share them lovingly with others. All of the teachings of stewardship come directly from the Gospels, the Old Testament and the letters of the New Testament. Stewardship is not a new fad, or environmental word. Stewardship is the way God has expected His people to live since the beginning of time.

ENCOUNTER CESIA

In Nicaragua, we encounter Cesia and her family, people forced to flee violence, searching for stability. How are we called to welcome the stranger in our midst? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Cesia Lea Gomez is from the rural town of Somoto, Nicaragua, close to the Honduran border. Although it is a beautiful farming community, there are few job opportunities for young people, especially women. Many leave their communities to find work, but Cesia wanted to stay home with her parents and youngest sibling. With her mother's encouragement, Cesia decided to pursue her dream of starting a business.

The CRS YouthBuild program helped her achieve that dream. YouthBuild's core values—family, service, opportunity and leadership—guide what participants learn, and the kinds of relationships they build with one another. The program helps them build the confidence to pursue their goals.

Once very shy, Cesia is now a leader in her community. With what she learned in YouthBuild, she has built a thriving business making and selling cattle feed. She dreams of expanding her business throughout Nicaragua, and leads workshops in her community to help other young people.

FAITH FORMATION

RCIA

Last week Sunday, February 18, the First Sunday of Lent, our parish celebrated the Rite of Sending and the Rite of Continued Catechesis, both a part of the RCIA process. From the 9:00 a.m. Mass our two catechumen and two of our four candidates were presented to Bishop Larry Silva at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa where 152 catechumen from Oahu were enrolled into the Order of the Elect at the Rite of Election.

They begin the last part of their journey to the Sacraments at Easter Vigil. This is the essence of our Evangelism. The church exists and we participate fully in the Eucharistic celebrations and the prayers of the Liturgy for this very purpose of bringing others into the faith.

Mahalo to all our catechists and those who have just dropped by to be a part of our sessions. We wish to express a special thank you to those who have kept everyone in their prayers. Please continue to pray for them to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. It has not been an easy road. We begin a new cycle after Easter through summer.

Rosemary Hashimoto for RCIA

Young Adults

You have heard that it was said to the men of old, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment.'

But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be liable to the hell of fire.

So if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Make friends quickly with your accuser, while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison;

truly, I say to you, you will never get out till you have paid the last penny.

'Ano'ai Kākou,

Can righteousness be measured? Don't skip the complicated passages in the Bible - on Thursdays during Lent, we'll have a young adults Bible study from 5-6 pm. On Tuesdays, we'll resume free tutoring at church for students of the McKinley Community School for Adults, or anyone that wants to learn English or get their GED. And don't forget, this Sunday the 25th, we're meeting at noon, inside or around the church for fellowship and discuss plans for the future.

Last year we had several educational sessions on human trafficking. This year more training will be available, and we're going to start volunteering to help victims (of course, all volunteers must first undergo a background check, and all related information must be kept discreet).

Check out our facebook page:

www.facebook.com/YoungAdultsMinistry.Honolulu

As the young adults ministry of Sts. Peter & Paul, inspired by St. Don Bosco, we wish to volunteer, learn, reflect, and be happy. Servite Domine in laetitia (Serve God cheerfully). Being part of this group, in this phase of our journey in life, will allow us to help each other to grow spiritually, intellectually and physically. If you have any interest, questions, comments, ideas, etc. please e-mail us at trivialFyr@gmail.com or txt 305-898-0378. Hope to see everyone soon!

NO ALOHA IN SUICIDE

Suicides have become a serious public health crisis in Hawaii, with one person dying from suicide in our islands every other day. We believe every life is precious and that preventing suicides is everyone's kuleana. We, the undersigned, believe every person is entitled to be safe at every stage in life, including those who may be marginalized such as the elderly, those who are disabled or have mental health challenges, and others. We believe awareness and suicide prevention programs are key to supporting the most vulnerable, consistent with our island values of caring for others like family. We believe physician-assisted suicide is not consistent with these values and sends conflicting messages to Hawaii's youth about suicide. Therefore, as a way to further reduce the prevalence of suicide in our state by 25% by 2025, we believe it is critical to concurrently prevent the legalization of assisted-suicide in our state. SIGN THE PETITION TODAY.

MOVIE NIGHT ON SUNDAY

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 25 at 7:15 p.m.

“BELLA” - Bella" tells the story of two people who fall in love because of an unborn child. Winner of the People's Choice Award at Toronto 2006, it is a heart-tugger with the confidence not to tug too hard. It stars an actor named Eduardo Verastegui, who I would describe as the next Antonio Banderas if I ever wrote cliches like that, which I do not. Tall, handsome, bearded, he plays Jose, the chef of his brother's Mexican restaurant in New York, until his life changes one day when his brother fires a waitress named Ninafor being late. (Roger Ebert, 2007)

Join others in being inspired to lend a hand to others and to grow in our faith.

ACTS

Adoration, Community, Theology, Service
(All Women's Retreat)

March 1st – 4th

ACTS retreats have enriched the lives of hundreds of thousands of people; men and women, teens and retirees, rich and poor, Catholic and non-Catholic, in the United States as well as other countries. It has reinvigorated the spiritual lives of individuals, of families, of entire parishes.

Please keep our 14 retreatants and the retreat leaders in your prayers as they embark on an encounter with Jesus this coming weekend. Pray that they will be filled up to then go out to minister to others who may need a touch of heaven.

Dear Padre,

Our guitar group plays music five minutes before the opening song at Mass. By the time the interminable Gloria is sung, I already have a headache! Why so much music?

At Mass, the faithful “form one body, whether in hearing the Word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by participating together at the Lord’s table” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 96). Thus, liturgical music can be a form of prayer, uniting the assembly in praise to God. Ideally, it’s “a particularly apt way to express a joyful heart, accentuating the solemnity of the celebration and fostering the sense of a common faith and a shared love” (On Keeping the Lord’s Day Holy [Dies Domini], 50) by Pope John Paul II.

However, this ideal isn’t always reality. To address your question, let us divide humanity into two groups: people who like to sing and people who don’t; those who sing in full voice in the shower and those who prefer monastic silence. Every congregation includes both groups. While not everyone is naturally inclined to make a joyful noise, most people appreciate music’s power to give voice to what’s deep in the human heart.

Some may even feel there’s not enough music at Mass instead of too much. Nevertheless, happy the liturgical ministers who know when the sum of the individual Mass parts—sung or otherwise—can become too tedious. And blessed are the music makers who know the power of silence, an instrumental, or an optional recessional song, even for solemn occasions.

A Word From Pope Francis

Lent...is a special time for recalling the gift of our baptism, when we became children of God. The Church invites us to renew the gift she has given us, not to let this gift lie dormant as if it were something from the past or locked away in a memory chest.
