

FOURTH SUNDY OF EASTER

April 25, 2021

Sunday Liturgy schedule:

Saturday (anticipated) 5 pm

Sunday 7, 9 and 10:30 am, NOON and 6 pm.

Please check the website and Facebook for Daily Mass updates. Please be aware that we will be limited to 25% of capacity in our sanctuary. If you are 10 years or older, you will be required to wear a mask. We ask you to maintain a minimum distance of 6ft. between households. You do not need to register for mass, but please plan on coming early at least a half hour before Mass begins to check in. We will need to take attendance.

Bishop Larry Silva ended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday. Bishop Silva and Father Khanh understand that it will take time for us to get back to "normal" so for those who are most vulnerable or do not feel comfortable attending Mass Father Khanh has recommended attending and receiving Holy Communion at a Mass during the week since there are less people.

The Good Shepherd

Good News!

Acts 4:8–12; 1 Jn 3:1–2; Jn 10:11–18

For many of us, our only connection with sheep is with the cuddly white creatures found on holy cards. However, that image strays from the facts. Sheep are not household animals. They live outdoors; they lie down in grass, dirt, and mud. Furthermore, unlike many other animals, sheep cannot clean themselves. I'm not denigrating sheep, just putting aside any fanciful view of their nature.

Raising sheep was an important occupation in the ancient world. In fact, the royalty's governance of people was often described as shepherding. David was told: "You shall shepherd my people Israel" (2 Samuel 5:2). Later, when the royalty were not faithful to this charge, God declared: "I myself will pasture my sheep" (Ezekiel 34:15). This startling characterization of God became a characterization of Jesus.

Grime and animal smells, the blood of births and deaths, inclement weather, and the threat of predators mark the life of a committed shepherd. Human comfort was secondary to the needs of the sheep. Sheep actually learn to recognize the voice of the one who feeds them, cares for them, protects them. The shepherd's voice seems to say: I am here for you, because you are mine. As "the good shepherd," Jesus is totally committed to us, his sheep. He attends to our needs, willing to risk his own security in order to save us. His care for us seems to say: I am here for you, because you are mine.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

For Reflection:

- * Is Christ really your shepherd? Do you listen to his voice?
- * Do you rely on Christ's protection, even when you don't seem to feel it?

Dear Padre,

Am I sinning when I work or shop on Sunday?

Biblical tradition states that the Sabbath is the day that God rested from the labors of creation. Sunday is also the day we commemorate Christ's resurrection from the dead and the inauguration of the new creation.

We rightly refer to Sunday, then, as the Lord's day. This being so, it's important that we do everything possible to keep the Lord's day holy and ensure that we reserve adequate time on Sunday for worship, rest, and recreation.

Today, many activities, social services, and family needs require some people to work on Sundays. In fact, many people have only the weekends to do the errands and activities that sustain their families.

Our participation in such activities and services is not a sin, nor does it mean that those who do need to work cannot find an appropriate way to sanctify the Lord's day and allow time for the worship, rest, and renewal that are proper to the day.

Even so, we must guard against treating the Lord's day as just another workday, or a continuation of our Saturday shopping spree. Remember that the primary focus on Sunday should be participating in the Mass and growing our relationship with the Lord.

For more information on this topic, see paragraphs 2184 through 2195 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

CATHOLIC NEWS SERVICE

True rest is not simple, because there is false rest and true rest....Man has never rested as much as today, yet man has never experienced as much emptiness as today! Opportunities to amuse oneself, to go out, cruises, travels; but many things do not give you fullness of heart. Indeed, they do not give you rest.
