TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Keep At It

Good News!

Ex 17:8–13; 2 Tm 3:14–4:2; Lk 18:1–8

We ask something of God because we recognize that we are needy and unable to meet the need for which we plead. This itself is a good prayer because it acknowledges our human limitation, an acknowledgement that might be very difficult for us to voice. Such prayer is also an admission of our dependence on God and our trust in God's loving care. A prayer of petition can be profound. However, what is one to do when the request is not realized? Do you ask again? And if so, how many times? If it is never realized, do you stop asking? This is precisely the issue in today's readings.

Moses held his hands up in prayer, and he grew tired. His prayer addressed a community need—victory over the Amalekites—and so two leaders of the community assisted him so that the plea for help could continue until victory was won. The Gospel passage tells a story about a woman whose need of justice made her bold. As a widow in a patriarchal society, she had no husband to speak on her behalf. She had to plead her own case again and again until a just decision was delivered. The moral of these stories is clear: Keep at it!

What happens when our prayer does not seem to be answered? It is still a good prayer, acknowledging our fundamental need and God's loving care of us. The moral of our story is the same: Trust and keep at it!

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

For Reflection:

- * Make your needs known to God and trust that God will provide what you really need. You might be surprised.
- * Be patient. God knows what you need.

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD. Every year something special happens on the next-to-last Sunday of October. WORLD MISSION SUNDAY joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass that Sunday, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel."

On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. In a world where so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

Dear Padre,

I'm a recovering heroin addict. Do I need to confess my addiction? Addiction is a disease, not a sin, right?

Right, but addiction and using drugs are two different things. As you know, recovering addicts who don't use drugs are still addicts, and that in itself isn't a sin. But it's against the law to use heroin in the United States, so even if you never committed a secondary crime to get it, the "getting it" was a crime.

More important, though, the body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, and it's a sin to abuse ourselves in any way. Even if it weren't against the law, your use of heroin is certainly an abuse of your body.

The sacrament of reconciliation is more than just receiving absolution for sins. It also helps us look more deeply at our lives. Before you go, examine your conscience: Ask yourself how your addiction has affected your body, your life, your relationship with God, and the welfare of others.

If you bring honest answers to those questions as well as an open heart and an open mind, your conversation with your priest at reconciliation will help you heal your relationship with God and others.

You will also receive the grace to improve your life and do things like overcome addiction so you can be a better person.

I encourage all of you...to pursue your commitment to increasing awareness and offering support to those who have emerged from the tunnel of drug addiction....They need our help and accompaniment so that they in turn will be able to ease the pain of so many of our brothers and sisters in difficulty.

EVERY YEAR, SOMETHING SPECIAL HAPPENS on the next-to-last Sunday of October. WORLD MISSION SUNDAY joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. YOUR MISSION SOLIDARITY!

UN DOMINGO PARA TODO EL MUNDO

TODOS LOS AÑOS SUCEDE ALGO ESPECIAL en el penúltimo domingo de octubre. EL DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES une a todos los católicos del mundo, en una sola comunidad de fe. En la misa de ese Domingo, nos comprometemos nuevamente con nuestra vocación común, mediante el bautizo, a ser misioneros a través de la oración, participación en la Eucaristía y aportando generosamente a la colecta para la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe.

El mensaje del Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de este año reflexiona sobre el tema: "No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído" (Hechos 4:20). Nos recuerda que "como cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros", como "recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser apóstoles generosos y gozosos del Evangelio."

En el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, nos unimos a nuestro Santo Padre para apoyar sus misiones. Al orar y responder aquí en casa, compartimos esas celebraciones que tienen lugar en todas las parroquias y escuelas de todo el mundo. Juntos, a través de nuestras oraciones y apoyo financiero, llevamos la misericordia del Señor y ayuda concreta a las comunidades más vulnerables en las misiones del Papa.

En un mundo donde tantas cosas nos dividen, el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones se regocija en nuestra unidad como misioneros por nuestro bautismo, ya que nos ofrece a cada uno de nosotros la oportunidad de apoyar la presencia vivificadora de la Iglesia entre los pobres y marginados en más de 1,111 diócesis misioneras.
