Third Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Jonah 3:1–5, 10 / 1 Corinthians 7:29–31 / Mark 1:14–20

A New World Is Coming

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Our lives are filled with calls of one kind or another. Phone calls, text messages, teachers who call on us in class, those who call us for supper, people behind a counter who call out, “Next!” And, sooner or later, death will call each of us.

Jonah was once called to go to Nineveh, and the people of Nineveh were called to repent and change their lives. Simon and Andrew, John and James were called to follow Jesus. And today God calls each of us, but it is never easy to sort out what it is we are called to do.

Saint Paul took pains to tell us that “the world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). That being true, then God’s call is always into a new way of life, which seems to imply leaving something behind, not unlike the four followers in Sunday’s Gospel leaving their fishing nets and their father Zebedee in his boat.

The world that is passing away may be childhood, or productivity as we age. The new world may require confronting addiction and leaving a life of what we thought we couldn’t live without. Or, like the people of Nineveh who were called to repent, it might be a call for our nation to confront our failure to engage in dialogue about and find solutions to injustice in its many forms at home and abroad. Who knows what God’s new world will be? ●

-Reflect-

To what is God calling you, your community, our nation?

FOR THE
PRESENT FORM
OF THIS WORLD
IS PASSING AWAY.

In today’s letter from Saint Paul to the Corinthians, he calls upon people of faith to disengage from the world’s way of living. He wants the community to step back and see how being entangled with the outside world can be a captivity preventing them from living authentic lives in Christ. Yet, to his way of thinking, disengagement is not an end in itself. Rather, being disengaged and set free, a person can engage the world from the perspective of being one who is “in Christ.” Good stewards recognize that they live in a troubled world. Knowing the certainty, however, of God’s ultimate kingdom beyond human history, how can we work as good stewards of our daily lives to align the present and the future with that kingdom?

Sunday of the Word of God

In his Apostolic Letter from 2019, Pope Francis declared that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study, and dissemination of the word of God. May we grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."
—Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Olakino Produce Distribution

Mahalo to our Olakino Volunteers who helped pack and distribute produce to our community on Saturday. We appreciate your willingness to lend a hand to help the households and members in our community.

Catholic Care Bags Packing

Mahalo to all who contributed donations of non-perishable goods. If you are available, volunteers are needed to help fill the Catholic Care bags for our kupuna and families on Friday, January 26, after the 7am Mass.

Knights of Columbus Fundraiser Car Wash Saturday, January 27 8:00 am until 12 noon

RCIA

The RCIA catechumens and candidate are beginning their final preparation before Lent. For those who have already been baptized but need the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation, please email Rosemary at rhashimoto@rcchawaii.org.

Next Week's Second Collection

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Mahalo for your continuous care and support to our Capital Campaign. We pray that you will be blessed a hundredfold. If you would like to make a pledge to help throughout the year, please email campaign.sspp@rcchawaii.org

Eucharistic Revival & Evangelization

The Miracle at Every Mass

Jesus makes a miracle happen at every Mass so he can be close to me. What can kids do at Mass? So much!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

eucharisticrevival.org

1. GETTING READY

The Church is Jesus' house, and Jesus is my King. When I get ready for Mass, it's nice to dress up because it is so special to be in the King's house. I make sure I am clean and neat when I go to Mass. I especially make sure I brush my teeth!

2. LISTENING

During the first part of the Mass, we read from the Bible. I ask God what he wants to tell me today, and listen to the stories. God likes to talk to us through his Word. Maybe he has a message for me!

3. MY GIFT FOR JESUS

After the readings, we pass around a basket to collect gifts for the Church and the poor. Grown-ups usually give money, but Jesus wants something even more special from kids. I think of something I can offer Jesus in my heart and imagine my gift going up to the altar with the bread and wine. God is about to do something really amazing with our gifts.

4. THE MIRACLE

When I hear Jesus' words, "This is my body," a miracle happens! God changes the bread and wine into the real Body and Blood of Jesus. The host still looks like bread, but Jesus is there in disguise.

5. JESUS COMES INTO MY HEART

I fold my hands reverently in the Communion line. When I receive Jesus, I thank him for visiting me in this amazing way. While I wait for everyone else to receive communion, this is the perfect time to have a private conversation with Jesus in my heart.

"The Eucharist is the heart of the Church.
Where Eucharistic life flourishes,
there the life of the church will blossom."

POPE SAINT JOHN PAUL II

Dear Padre,

While on vacation, I attended Mass at a church where many people left right after Communion. Why would they do this?

Canon law says the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass on Sundays and other holy days. We are expected to attend the entire Mass.

A misunderstanding of this law may be traced to a pre-Vatican II teaching. Some theologians taught that the Mass had three main parts: offertory, consecration, and Communion. Some people reasoned that their obligation would be fulfilled by attending only those parts of the Mass. They felt justified in coming late and leaving early.

This changed with the Second Vatican Council (1962–1965). The Mass is divided into four sections (introductory rites, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, concluding rite), and Christ is present throughout the Mass. Attending Mass means being there from the processional hymn through the recessional hymn.

Some people have valid reasons for leaving Mass early, such as feeling ill or taking a crying child from church. Perhaps they are traveling and need to get to the airport on time. Still, I also wonder why there is a great exodus before the Mass has ended in some churches. In my opinion, people who are in the habit of leaving early should reconsider that practice. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Brothers and sisters, before the Lord's call, which can reach us in a thousand ways—through others, happy or sad events—our attitude at times might be rejection. But God's call is always love: we have to try to discover the love behind each call, and it should be responded to only with love.
